

JIMMY monologue (Jimmy is talking to his dad about not wanting to move to New Zealand)

I don't want to move.

I know you say it'll be better, and I believe you.

But I like my school. And my friends. And my room.

I don't want everything to be different all at once.

I'm not saying no forever. I just want things to stay the same for a little while longer.

I just want us to be together... and not scared.
