Pastor's Corner

Today we have some information about our new Archbishop Blaze Joseph Cupich. Archbishop Cupich will be installed this Tuesday, November 18, 2014.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

ARCHBISHOP BLAZE JOSEPH CUPICH

Born: March 19, 1949
Ordained a Priest: August 16, 1975
Consecrated Bishop: September 21, 1998
Bishop of Rapid City from 1998 - 2010
Bishop of Spokane from 2010 - 2014
Will be installed as Archbishop of Chicago, November 18, 2014
Archbishop Cupich's motto: Peace be with you.

Bishop Cupich was born in Omaha, Nebraska, to parents of Croatian descent. He discerned a vocation to the priesthood when he was a teenager and did most of his seminary formation in Rome at the North American College and the Pontifical Gregorian University.

Bishop Cupich is an active writer, and his articles and commentaries have appeared in a variety of publications, especially the Jesuit-run American magazine.

In one of those articles published in October 2013, Bishop Cupich wrote of Pope Francis, "His words cannot be understood apart from his witness. We should focus on a person who reveals himself as a fresh witness of the Gospel, who is stirring our hearts to take up the journey with him as a fellow disciple with new vigor and purpose." The assessment in many ways points to the type of leadership that Pope Francis apparently wants of American bishops and that Bishop Cupich is likely to bring to Chicago. He has emulated Francis' call for personal austerity, doctrinal reliability without ideology and an intense pastoral focus. Eschewing a formal residence, Bishop Cupich chose to live as bishop of Spokane in a room at the seminary, and he famously does not own any furniture.

Our Sunday Visitor,

GET READY

The Letters of St. Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent. Therefore, to devote time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor receded a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart. What should we do when we hear that the day of the Lord will come upon us "like a thief at night"? (1 Thessalonians 5:2) Does this mean we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus.

ADVENT WREATH

During Advent, a wreath with four candles, representing the four weeks of Advent, is in a prominent place in the sanctuary.

As in previous years, we are asking parishioners, ministries, or organizations to volunteer to be in the entrance procession and light the appropriate candle(s) at the beginning of Mass. A single person, a couple, an entire family, or representatives of a ministry or organization can volunteer for the candle lighting ceremony.

A sign-up sheet is posted in the vestibule of the church. Stop and sign up for one of the twenty masses during Advent. Make sure to include your telephone number (or call the rectory to leave your phone number), so we can answer any questions you may have and also to remind you the day before your mass.

YOUNG AT HEART CLUB

Tuesday, November 18 - 11:30 am
Shaunessy Center

We are also collecting dues ($7.00) for 2015. Please pay your dues as soon as possible, if you haven't already paid.

We are also looking for new members. We meet on the first & third Tuesdays of the month at 11:30 am in the Shaunessy Center

See you at the meeting.

Prayer with Scripture

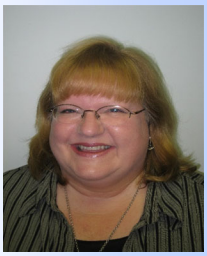

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

A communion rail does not belong in the vestibule. I want to encourage those who are in the vestibule at Mass, to come into the church. Technically, if you are sitting in the vestibule during the Mass, you are not in church. Thank you for understanding.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For several weeks, we have considered penance as a sacrament of forgiveness, and yet there are two other sacraments in this category. The first, of course, is the Eucharist itself. The other is the sacrament of the sick, long associated with penance.

The Letter of James sets out the deep tradition for caring for the sick: sending for the priests, who will pray and lay their hands on the sick ones, anointing them with oil, and giving them forgiveness. Long before other rites of penance developed, the sacrament of the sick was therefore a profound experience of forgiveness. Jesus often healed the sick, nearly always as a visible sign of forgiveness of sin. The tradition didn't unfold smoothly, however, and within a few centuries the oil of the sick was taken home to be applied by caregivers as a salve, or even to be drunk as a medicine. As early as the second century, bishops were therefore urging that priests should be the ones to visit those separated by illness from the Sunday assembly. Thus the practice of consigning the Eucharist and the oil of the sick to the non-ordained faithful to bring home was relatively short-lived.

—James Field, © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

As we gather around the bedside of our dying loved ones, we entrust them to the Lord. We can do no more. At some point, although medicine can offer some comfort, it can no longer keep them alive. We face within ourselves and in our loved ones the poverty and dependence that has always marked our lives, even when we have not been conscious of it.

Now, we entrust them to God, to the saints, and to the angels. And when we do so, we acknowledge that we belong to a great communion of holy men and women and of spirits who serve the living God. What seems to be the most solitary, the loneliest moment of our lives, when we are dying, is rather a time of communion and connection. The whole Church in heaven and on earth gathers. The whole Church in this moment of entrustment is our great sacrament of communion in the Lord.

A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

LORD, HOLD OUR TROOPS IN YOUR LOVING HANDS.
PROTECT THEM AS THEY PROTECT US.
BLESS THEM AND THEIR FAMILIES
FOR THE SELFLESS ACTS THEY PERFORM
FOR US IN OUR TIME OF NEED.
WE ASK THIS IN THE NAME OF
JESUS OUR LORD AND SAVIOR. AMEN

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
