Catholic Schools Week

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week. It is a wonderful week that gives us an opportunity to showcase what a great school we have here at St. Eugene Parish. Now I am sure many people have heard that some Archdiocesan Catholic Schools are in trouble, but that is not the case with our school. St. Eugene Parish has a very vibrant school that is doing very well. We have a stable enrollment; our buildings are in fine shape; we also have a school and religious education endowment that has generated more than $275,000 since being started in 2007. To date, we have $525,000 in our endowment to ensure a bright future for our school. Our school is on very solid ground. A recent study on the demographics in our area indicates a substantial growth of children in the near future, which is another great opportunity for our school.

As I have mentioned before, children are the future of our Church and it is the responsibility of us all to pass on our faith and values. We need to take care of our children academically, but, as a faith-based school, we must also develop strong prayer habits in children. The Church says that parents are the first, and best, teachers of the faith. Without parental involvement, handing down the faith becomes an almost impossible task. Children imitate their parents. For the good of our children, I must again ask that all parents of our school and religious education program students, take seriously their practice of weekly Mass attendance.

We can be very proud of our school. I want to once again express my thanks to our Principal, Dr. Pat Brown, our Associate Principal, Mrs. Janet Kusinski, all our teachers, and school staff members, for the excellent job they do at St. Eugene School. It is a blessing for our parish that all those involved in our school are serious when it comes to passing on the spiritual, academic and social values that are found in our faith.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

CHANGE OUR LIVES

In today's first reading, Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through Nineveh, frightening the citizens out of their wits. It works! They repent before Jonah makes his way through a third of the city, and God sees "by their actions" how they have turned from evil.

Then we hear Paul telling the Corinthians that "the world in its present form is passing away." He calls for a change of heart. He stops short of telling them to set aside their everyday lives, but still he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live as though they aren't doing the things they're doing.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, "The kingdom of God is at hand!" The apostles-to-be abandon their nets and follow him. Thus in all the readings we hear an invitation to a radical and immediate change in our lives.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

2016 MASS BOOK

The Mass Book for 2016 opened
Tuesday, January 20 at 9:00 am

Consistent with Archdiocesan policy, there is one intention per Mass. To accommodate the additional requests of parishioners, collective, or multi-Intentional Masses are scheduled at 9:00 am on Wednesday, and 11:30 am on Sunday. Since we have a large parish, we must allow people an opportunity to get specific days for Mass Intentions. Therefore, only five intentions may be given to an individual within the first two weeks that the book is open. An individual person may not take more than five Mass Intentions in a given month. Of these five Masses, no more than two should be listed in any given week. The above guidelines do not apply to the designated Multi-Intentional Masses. A person can have a Multi-Intentional Mass every week if they desire it. However, since the intentions are read at Mass, no more than thirty intention should be taken in on any Multi-Intentional Mass.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

We know that Baptism unites us with Christ in his dying and rising. We know that because of our union with him, we are God's beloved daughters and sons in the Son. And besides all this, because Christ is our life through Baptism, something else happens. He sets us free from the two most enslaving and burdensome realities of our lives. He frees us from sin and death.

Sin entraps us, usually within ourselves. And on our own, we cannot break free. Death and the impending sense of doom and loss it brings seem to box us into the narrow confines of our very short earthly lives. Baptism loosens the grip of sin through forgiveness, and it loosens the grip of death through new and eternal life in Christ Jesus. We are free to be who we really and truly are—the children of God.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
