Father's Day Prayer

We celebrate Father's Day this Sunday. As a way to honor those men who have played such an important role in our lives, I am including the prayer from the book of blessings at the bottom of my article (prayer is in italics). I would ask, if possible, families pray this prayer when they gather for the celebrations they have for dad.

My own father passed away back in 1989. I realize that many people no longer have their fathers with them. However, that does not mean we cannot offer a prayer for them. A father is meant to be a person of great faith who brings hope to his family. A father brings life and love to his family. Let us show them kindness, love, and gratitude for all they have done. Let us pray for fathers who have died, that God may bring them into the joy of his kingdom. Let us pray for fathers that are still with us. Let us tell them how much they matter and give them an extra hug on their special day.

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Happy Father's Day!

Fr. George

THIS WEEKEND

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the "big lake," as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, "Respect the lake; don't take it for granted." People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today's Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

SCHEDULING
THE USE OF PARISH FACILITIES
AUGUST 2015 THRU JUNE 30, 2016

The calendar year for the use of parish facilities by parish ministries is from August 1st through June 30th. During the month of July no events are scheduled. This allows time for the extensive summer cleaning and repairs in the buildings. When summer maintenance projects require August scheduling, part or all of August may also be unavailable for use by parish and other organizations.

The calendar committee will meet after July 1, 2015 to approve the scheduling of events for the months through June 2016. All organizations requesting space must submit the official scheduling forms (available in the rectory). Forms must be completed in full and returned to the rectory no later than June 30, 2015

No organization should assume that the space and meeting times available in past years will continue to be available during the 2015-16 school year. All groups and parish organizations are, therefore, reminded to await the confirmation of available space for dates submitted before finalizing plans for events.

ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT

"Jesus has our backs!"
Father George Koeune

(Acts 18:9) The Lord said to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid. Go on speaking and do not be silenced, for I am with you. No one will attack you or harm you." With the Lord's encouragement, Paul continued teaching the word of God. Today Pope Francis implores us not to be afraid to speak out against the rapidly spreading violence imposed on our Christian brothers and sisters in many areas of the world including the United States.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

PLEASE CALL THE RECTORY BY MONDAY, JUNE 29 (10:00 AM)
IF YOU WOULD LIKE A NAME LISTED.

ADDING NAMES TO THE PARISH SICK LIST

It has always been the goal of St. Eugene to offer our parish community an opportunity to pray for those parishioners who are ill and in need of our prayers. We have tried to keep close track of these names for our Bulletin as they are made available to us.

However, now we face an important privacy issue, very much like the issues faced by hospitals, health institutions, and certainly by other parishes.

We cannot (by law) publicly let our parish community know the health status of any of our members without their permission.

We appreciate the fact that often friends, neighbors, and acquaintances wish to do something special for a person who is ill, and ask to place their name on the list to be prayed for. While their intentions are surely good, we simply can no longer accept names in this manner.

Names for the sick list placed in the Bulletin have to be called in by the person who is ill, or by a member of their immediate family. At the time they call in the name, they will be asked whether they are the sick person him/herself, or a member of their family, and if they give permission for the name to be placed on the list. They will be asked for the correct spelling of the sick person's name. If a family member, they will be required to give their name for our records.

Thank you for your patience regarding this process. We wish to do all we can to offer our parish community the opportunity to offer prayers for those who are ill — but we must also be cognizant of the fact that all members of our congregation are entitled to their privacy in this regard.

For Dads ...

If you share in all their interests, all their happiness and cares; encourage without nagging; show your love in thought & prayers;

If you help them find their talents and are proud when they employ them, yet teach them grace in failures, to accept, if not enjoy them

If you show by good example what is right and what is wrong; If you teach them independence so they learn to get along;

If you see their need for freedom and yet help them realize that there's something warm and lasting in old -fashioned family ties;

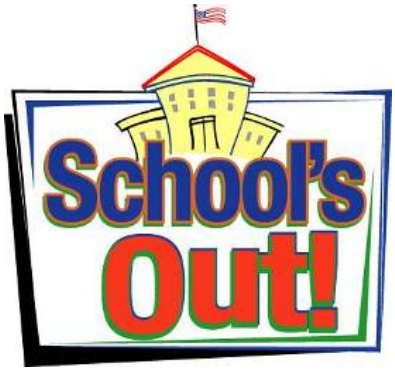

If you listen to their problems with an understanding heart; and your influence goes with them even when you're far apart;

Then your children will respect you and in you they'll always see, the kind of fine and special Dad you hoped and prayed you'd be!

CATHOLICS RETURNING HOME

Were you raised Catholic… but do not come or seldom come to church anymore?

Are you a Catholic who feels separated from your church?

Would you like to know more about the Catholic Church as it is today?

Would you like to feel at home in the Catholic Church again?

No matter how long you have been away and no matter the reason, we invite you to consider renewing your relationship with the Catholic Church.

For more information, please call the rectory at: 773-775-6659 and ask to speak to any of our priests.

Your parish doesn't get two weeks off with pay. Please remember to send in your envelope even if you are on vacation.

ANNULMENT SUPPORT MINISTRY

The Annulment Support Ministry is active at St. Eugene's. Chris O'Malley has been trained for this role. If you are considering an annulment, please contact the Rectory at: 773-775-6659 and leave a message. Chris will return your call and help you to begin the healing process of annulment.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When you are thinking about traditions in the Church, 1563 is a "watershed" year. The Council of Trent began a reform of the liturgy that put an end to old practices and set many of our present practices in place. For the first time, engaged people were absolutely required to appear before their parish priest, and to exchange consent in his presence along with two witnesses. To this day, Catholics are obliged to this form, namely: to marry another Catholic in the presence of a priest (or deacon) and two witnesses, unless dispensed from the law. The Council really didn't forbid customs and ceremonies that added life to the celebration, but the mood of the times was dark and somewhat austere. Practices like the blessing of the marriage bed or using a canopy for the nuptial blessing started to fade away, as did the custom of bringing the presents for the couple to the church and the addition of fiddlers and jugglers to the procession. The Council of Trent tried to preserve local customs, but the long□term effect was to standardize celebrations everywhere in the world.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Stand

©Brian Warling

Although priests do many things—teach, celebrate sacraments, and govern the Church, their core identity, as the Second Vatican Council described it, means that they act in the name and person of Jesus Christ, the Head and Shepherd of the Church. In other words, they stand in the Church as a visible and effective sign of Jesus Christ present and active among us.

With every other member of the Church, priests embrace a path of discipleship. In that, there is no difference. Their ordination does not confer on them an additional dignity. As ordained ministers, they have not more dignity but greater responsibility toward their brothers and sisters in the Church. By standing for Jesus Christ, priests remind all of us that the Lord never abandons his people but continues, through his human instruments, to extend to all of us a shepherd's care.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
