Respect is a Two-Way Street

As I have written before, the Church has a different set of moral values than society. The Church believes that certain acts accepted by society go against her core theological beliefs. This being the case, the Church will find herself at odds with the "politically correct" way of thinking. However, just because we hold a position different from main stream society, this does not constitute hatred.

The Catholic Church does not promote hatred. Yet, with the Supreme Court statement that all states must accept homosexual unions as a marriage, there will be people who will accuse us of hatred because we do not hold that belief. The Supreme Court, in essence, has redefined marriage, not as a sacrament, but as a contractual union of two parties. The Supreme Court may use the term marriage, but the Church does not hold the same definition of marriage that the Government does.

The late Cardinal George gave an excellent definition of what the Church believes. He stated:

Marriage exists because human nature comes in two complementary sexes: male and female. The sexual union of a man and woman is called the marital act because the two become physically one in a way that is impossible between two men or two women. Whatever a homosexual union might be or represent, it is not physically marital. Gender is inextricably bound up with physical sexual identity; and "gender-free marriage" is a contradiction in terms, like a square circle.

Simply put, the Catholic Church cannot perform "gay marriages" because theologically this does not coincide with what we believe constitutes a marriage. As I have stated before, the Government will be enacting laws that go against the faith beliefs of the Catholic Church and other religions. However, just because something is legal does not make it morally acceptable. The sin of abortion is a clear example of a law that the Catholic Church and many other faiths cannot accept. If a person cannot accept the teachings of a faith, they should pray for guidance. It is ludicrous to expect the faith to change and embrace something that goes against the theology they profess. As a people of faith, we are called to love all our brothers and sisters. Yet, we are not called to accept the actions of our brothers and sisters. Having a different view about an issue is not hatred. The people who are quick to label the Catholic Church as a promoter of hate speech are actually spouting hatred themselves. Respect is a two-way street. The Catholic Church does not hate people with homosexual tendencies. Can people with homosexual tendencies make the claim that they do not hate the Catholic Church?

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST

Mark's Gospel account today is built on a double astonishment or amazement: the neighbors and family of Jesus are astonished that he taught in the synagogue with wisdom and worked powerful signs. Jesus, in turn, is amazed that they have no faith in him because they know his origins, not because of any fault with his teaching or ministry. As with many of Mark's passages, we get a rather intimate glimpse here of the human part of Jesus' two - fold nature. To reinforce his point, Mark tells of Jesus' return to his native place, and further points out that he is in the midst of his own family members there. From the very people he expected the most, Jesus received the least. In the day of the Gospel's writing, Mark was attempting to illustrate a lesson to the house of Israel: the God of the covenant expected the greatest faith from the house of Israel, but often received the least. This is a good source for reflection on our part, we who are Jesus' followers today. For the wisdom of Christ to continue and for our lives to be seen as signs of his power, he must expect and be able to find great faith among us. Will he? Can he? Does he? Or is he, once again, amazed by its absence?

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Next Sunday, and on the second Sunday of each month, St. Eugene Parish offers a blessing for expectant mothers, fathers and their unborn children following the 9:30 a.m. Mass. The blessing is given to strengthen mothers and fathers during the time of waiting, and to pray for the health and safe delivery of their child. This blessing may be received monthly throughout the pregnancy.

SHROUD of TURIN EXHIBIT

The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful, and is believed to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth.
It is one of the most scientifically studied religious icons in history.
As science has progressed, so has the speculation on how the image of the crucified man of the Shroud was made.

The KNIGHTS of COLUMBUS are privileged to bring to St. Eugene Parish a moving and informative exhibit on the Shroud of Turin.

THE SICK LIST HAS BEEN UPDATED.

PLEASE CALL THE RECTORY IF YOU WOULD LIKE A NAME LISTED.

ADDING NAMES TO THE PARISH SICK LIST

It has always been the goal of St. Eugene to offer our parish community an opportunity to pray for those parishioners who are ill and in need of our prayers. We have tried to keep close track of these names for our Bulletin as they are made available to us.

However, now we face an important privacy issue, very much like the issues faced by hospitals, health institutions, and certainly by other parishes.

We cannot (by law) publicly let our parish community know the health status of any of our members without their permission.

We appreciate the fact that often friends, neighbors, and acquaintances wish to do something special for a person who is ill, and ask to place their name on the list to be prayed for. While their intentions are surely good, we simply can no longer accept names in this manner.

Names for the sick list placed in the Bulletin have to be called in by the person who is ill, or by a member of their immediate family. At the time they call in the name, they will be asked whether they are the sick person him/herself, or a member of their family, and if they give permission for the name to be placed on the list. They will be asked for the correct spelling of the sick person's name. If a family member, they will be required to give their name for our records.

Thank you for your patience regarding this process. We wish to do all we can to offer our parish community the opportunity to offer prayers for those who are ill — but we must also be cognizant of the fact that all members of our congregation are entitled to their privacy in this regard.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

The RCIA is a process by which one enters the Catholic Church through prayer, study, and discussion.

This class is designed for those who are: not baptized; baptized in another denomination; or baptized Catholic but did not make their First Holy Communion or Confirmation.

We meet on Wednesdays at 7 pm in the Rectory from September 16, 2015 through the Easter Vigil, March 26, 2016.

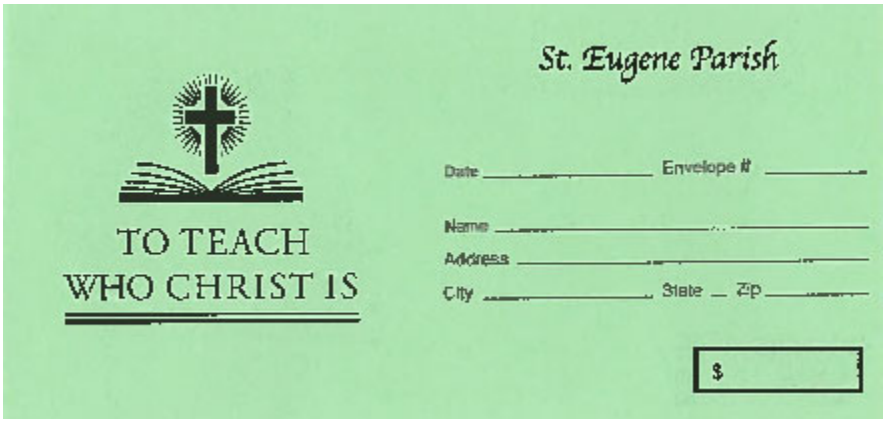

For more information, please contact:
Angie Cisek - (708) 456 - 1375
or the rectory - (773) 775 - 6659

Special thanks to Helen Chichon, her son Richard and her family for their contribution to the Corpus Christi Polish altar. They not only store the altar but contribute all the altar cloths and all the flowers as well as assist in setting up and taking down the altar.

The rectory has received a few calls about the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign. Some parishioners were not sure how to continue donating. When you receive your envelopes you will find two pale green envelopes in your packet. You will also find the same green envelope in the church vestibule and in the rectory. You may also contribute thru Give Central; call the rectory for more information.

TO TEACH WHO CHRIST IS

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the sixteenth century, the Council of Trent, which was otherwise devoted to liturgical uniformity, was very tolerant of age-old marriage customs. The Council singled out "praiseworthy" customs and hoped they would be retained. The Second Vatican Council likewise asked for a careful evaluation of customs, admitting that not everything about wedding practice is "praiseworthy." In our revised liturgy, all of the prayers consistently stress the equality of the partners. Some familiar customs do not match this insight. Often, the groom remains hidden in a sacristy while the bride, accompanied only by her father, enters with her attendants. This is hardly equality, especially if it appears that her father is "giving her away" to her husband. This is a familiar enough scene, but increasingly couples are called to a different practice. Symbols and signs carry and communicate meaning. The challenge for couples today is to match the meaning to the symbol, and for the couple to be authentic in all they do and say on the day of their wedding. Having bride and groom both take part fully and equally in the entrance procession is exactly the kind of "praiseworthy" practice we've been looking for!

DRESS APPROPRIATELY FOR MASS

As warm weather is here, we would like to remind everyone that Sunday Mass is the most important and solemn event of the week. It is not an "informal occasion." As a consequence, the appropriate attire for Mass should be characterized by modesty, dignity, and elegance. Clothing suitable for a picnic, or for the beach, can indicate a lack of respect for the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY WISHES TO ANNA & STANLEY MASNICA 49 YEARS

"[T]he pro-life position is often misunderstood as neither showing compassion to mothers nor caring about the children after they are born. This is unfortunate. Those who see a lack of compassion from pro-lifers may not be aware of the many resources and compassionate care available to women facing unplanned pregnancies… [Crisis pregnancy] centers exist to provide warm and caring environments for mothers and families who find themselves with an unexpected pregnancy."

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
