To Teach Who Christ Is Campaign

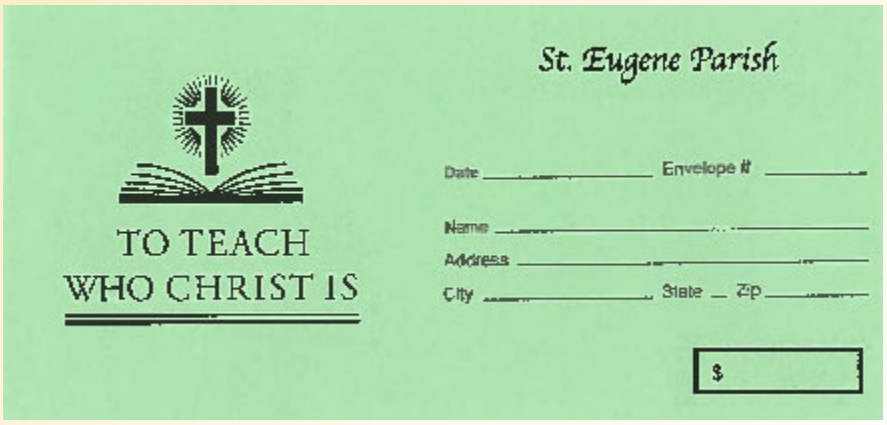

I wanted to give an update on some of the projects we are hoping to accomplish in the next few months. Playground equipment has been ordered and the new playground for the children should be in place at the beginning of our new school year. This past Wednesday Mr. Chick O'Leary and I met with an architect regarding updating our church bathrooms. Both of these projects will have an estimated cost around $170,000 dollars.

There is good and bad news regarding the playground and bathroom projects. The good news is that we are going forward. The bad news is that we are using our savings to fund the projects. As you may recall from the campaign drive last year, we have already dipped into our savings to cover the cost of our church air-conditioning unit. Although monies are coming in, the parish bank account will need to be replenished before any more projects can be addressed.

I am thankful for those who responded to our To Teach Who Christ Is campaign. Some parishioners have been very generous. Unfortunately, roughly only twenty-percent of our families responded to our campaign. It is hoped that parishioners who have not responded will do so once they see our new bathrooms and playground for the children. Every amount given truly helps our parish and archdiocese. Some people are unclear on how to fulfill their pledge or how to contribute. The green envelope in your monthly packets is the way you can contribute to the Teach Who Christ Is campaign. An example of the envelope has been printed below my article. I want to thank you for helping our parish and for taking care of God's house. I know your generosity will be rewarded.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS
AFTER THE 9:30 AM MASS

SENT BY GOD

In Amos' time the vocation of prophet had achieved a very formal status in Israel. The prophets had arisen, originally, to act as God's voice when Israel was no longer led by the spiritual/civil figures known as "judges," but by monarchs. Over time, the monarchy had appropriated the offices of priest and prophet, established them into companies, and reserved the right to appoint courtly prophets. Then, as now, when those in power also got to choose who would act as their official conscience, things sometimes went awry. At such times, God raised up prophets from unlikely places, and this is how Amos received his vocation as prophet. In last week's Gospel we heard how Jesus was raised up as God's anointed from a place many viewed as unlikely. As we continue to discern our own vocation as baptized disciples, we can be assured that we are, in Paul's words, "chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will" (Ephesians 1:11).

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful, and is believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth. It is one of the most scientifically studied religious icons in history. As science has advanced over the last few decades, so has the speculation on how the image of the Man of the Shroud was made. This traveling exhibit details the history and various aspects of the shroud, and includes as its centerpiece, a full-length photographic image of the shroud itself.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Many marriage customs stand in tension with modern American attitudes and values, notably "giving away the bride," which is no longer in the Catholic liturgy, and reminds us of a time when marriage was a contract between men (the groom and the bride's father). A Mexican custom, now approved for use in the United States, has a very different message.

An ancient Roman custom called for smashing pieces of gold and silver so that bride and groom could each keep half. This is the origin of today's Mexican practice of the groom giving thirteen gold coins to the bride, symbolically placing all his worldly goods into her care, and a sign of his unconditional trust. The coins are often given in beautiful gift boxes and are retained as an heirloom. Why thirteen? The standard explanation is that they represent Jesus and the apostles. The priest blesses the coins and pours them into the bride's cupped hands. Then she entrusts them to the groom, who later pours them back into her hands. This enduring ritual is in such harmony with our tradition's view of marriage that it is now increasingly performed by English-speaking Hispanic Catholics at weddings in the United States.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY FOR MASS

As warm weather is here, we would like to remind everyone that Sunday Mass is the most important and solemn event of the week. It is not an "informal occasion." As a consequence, the appropriate attire for Mass should be characterized by modesty, dignity, and elegance. Clothing suitable for a picnic, or for the beach, can indicate a lack of respect for the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

SCHOOL OFFICE

The school office will be closed until August. If you would like to leave a message your call will be returned in August.

At the time of a family member's death, if you would like memorials to be made to St. Eugene Parish, please instruct the Funeral Home to use the following in the death notice: "In lieu of flowers, a memorial may be made to St. Eugene Parish, Foster Avenue, Chicago." Envelopes can be provided by the Funeral Home.

INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION

—St. Augustine

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Meaning, or merely a mouthful?

As humans we all know how easy it is to stray from God's will. Sometimes it seems we wander from the path no matter how hard we try. Perhaps that's why Jesus sent His apostles out in society to call people to repent, not just believe. Jesus knew that we can only have peace of soul when we are in harmony with God. In fact the first step in any true believer's relationship with God is repenting. Giving up our will, our sinful ways and taking that long hard road to walk back to Him. Without that, belief is merely a mouthful of words, without any valid meaning. Take a moment to consider your life today. Are you shouting your belief from miles away from God - or kneeling in repentance at His feet?

FIVE STEPS TO END OF LIFE PLANNING

He hadn't reached his late twenties yet but there he lay in a hospital bed in a coma. His hospital room had turned into a showdown, much like you'd hear about in the Wild West: his mother and siblings on one side, his estranged father on the other. Dan's [name changed for privacy] family never dreamed they would end up in a heated battle over whether to give Dan time to recover or end his life by removing food and fluids. Dan had never filled out any end of life documents and didn't have any conversations with his family regarding his final wishes. His family now fought over his last wishes for months.

The five steps below will help you to avoid these heartbreaking situations:

Quick pro-life rule of thumb:
the cause of death should never be due to a medication overdose, starvation, or dehydration.

- Choose a healthcare agent. Picking the wrong healthcare agent (a person to make medical decisions for you should you become incapacitated) can be as dangerous as completing the wrong healthcare directive. Have several in-depth conversations with your chosen healthcare agent ensuring they understand your end of life desires.

- Complete a healthcare directive from. Illinois Right to Life's Patient-self Protection Document — a pro-life end of life durable power of attorney form - is a good choice. All persons, age 18 and older, should complete a healthcare durable power of attorney.

- DNR — To sign or not to sign? Illinois' DNR form has been replaced by the "POLST" form. A DNR is not appropriate for a healthy person to sign. If a need for resuscitation occurs, the patient will be properly resuscitated if this form is not signed. A DNR is appropriate for a person entering the absolute final stage of his or her life and who is also very frail. In this case, resuscitation would only prolong and disturb natural death.

- Regularly discuss end of life wishes with your healthcare agent. Situations and health change over time. Talk about your end of life wishes regularly and openly with your healthcare agent to ensure your end of life desires are understood. It is okay to change your healthcare agent is necessary.

- Make organ donation desires clear.

A new Illinois pro-life power of attorney for healthcare form will be available soon from Illinois Right to Life.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
