PASTOR'S CORNER

Male and Female

"God created man in his image; in the divine image he created him; male and female he created them." (Gen.1: 27)

The above scripture passage from the Book of Genesis probably makes some people in our society angry. There is a movement in our society that does not want to distinguish children by their gender. In some schools, you don't call a child a girl or a boy; you use a gender-neutral term. Children are all called "Purple Penguins," or they are known as "Green Friends." The idea is not to call Susie a girl, or Tommy a boy.

I think the whole neutral-gender thing is a bit ridiculous. The so-called "educators" in our schools that promote such thinking should be ashamed of themselves. Instead of explaining the biological differences of male and female, they are presenting the differences in gender as something negative. I don't agree with the gender-neutral thinkers in our society. Little boys and little girls (in general) like different toys and different clothes. When the preschool and kindergarten children leave school, many of the little girls have backpacks with Disney Princesses on them, while many of the boys have Spiderman or Batman backpacks. And I think that is okay.

When my goddaughter was five years old (she is now turning 13), she wanted a baby doll for her birthday. It seemed like a natural request to me. So, I went to the toy store, headed to the section for girls, and bought her the doll she wanted. It was an easy trip to the toy store. Unfortunately, such a trip to the toy store will be more difficult in the future. Some stores are doing away with boys and girls sections. It is viewed as bad to market some toys for boys and other toys for girls. The whole movement seems like an unnecessary headache to me. Thankfully, my goddaughter doesn't want toys for her birthday any longer. She wants clothes. However, she does not want me to pick out her clothes, so, she now gets money for her birthday. We are both happy about the arrangement.

The point of this article is to state that God created human beings as male and female. We are made a little different and that should be celebrated, not downplayed. My brothers and I like different movies than my sisters. Sylvester Stallone is a favorite actor among my brothers, but not with my sisters. My sisters actually do not like many of Stallone's movies. And you know what? That is okay. The different sexes have different likes and dislikes (in general). One is not better than the other. The real shame is trying to pretend that there are no differences between the sexes. I know growing up my sister wore different clothes than I did. And you know what? We both thought that was okay.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

GIVING ALL

Trusting widows play a significant role in this weekend's readings. At the point of poverty, when giving even the smallest amount of what they had could imperil their health and well-being, they trusted God and gave anyway. What is important about their giving is not what or how much they gave, but how they gave it. Without selfishness, they gave to help others. Their giving was from the heart, with little hope or intention of receiving any sort of reward or recognition for their generosity. The monetary values of the widows' gifts were small, but their value measured in the Kingdom was priceless.

There is a significant similarity between their gift and the gift Jesus gave each of us. The widows offered their lives for God. Jesus offered his life for us.

HOME GROWN TERRORIST ATTACKS - The number of post 9/11 jihadist terror plots in the U.S. has surged. There have been more U.S. -based terror plots or attacks in the first half of 2015 than in any full year since 9/11. Overall, homegrown jihadists plots have tripled in just five years. Islamists are getting better at recruiting Americans. In the last month, 55 ISIS-inspired individuals have been arrested and charged in America. ISIS followers have now been arrested in at least 19 states. - Committee on Homeland Security -

VETERANS DAY

"War is waged so that peace may prevail, but it is a greater glory to slay war with a word, than people with a sword, and to gain peace by means of people, and not by means of war."
St. Augustine

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

DINNER/LECTURE
Wednesday, November 11 - 6:00 pm
Shaunessy Center

Our free dinner will be served at 6:00 pm followed by a talk from our pastor, Father George, entitled, THE SAINTS AND THE SPIRITUAL BATTLE. Father's talk will look at the spirituality of various saints, as they confront evil, and life's struggles, and how their faith can help the modern day Christian.

There will be a split-the-pot raffle to help defray the cost of the dinner. Salad and desserts will be greatly appreciated. Please call the rectory if you plan to attend. Thank you. We hope to see you there.

As in previous years, we are asking parishioners to volunteer to be in the entrance procession and light the appropriate candle(s) at the beginning of Mass. A single person, a couple, or an entire family can volunteer for the candle lighting ceremony.

A sign-up sheet is posted in the vestibule of the church. Stop and sign up for one of the twenty masses during Advent. Make sure to include your telephone number (or call the rectory to leave your phone number), so we can answer any questions you may have and also to remind you the day before your mass.

PRO-LIFE MATTERS

Never underestimate the power of prayer! The last day the Albany clinic was open was Saturday, October 17 and it has not reopened. Albany clinic has been one of the sites where the 40 Days for Life Campaign took place — where our parishioners have prayed for the last 5 years. Patients are now being referred to another abortion facility in downtown Chicago and callers are being told that the Albany facility is permanently closed. We can now offer prayers of thanksgiving . Our thanks to all those whose prayers made this possible.

Praise be to God, the Author of Life.

FORGIVENESS

Forgiveness is the fragrance a violet sheds on the heel that has crushed it. —Mark Twain

The STARS (Special Times and Religious Studies) program, help at Saint Monica Parish, would like to invite you to join our community. The program's mission is to help people with developmental disabilities learn and grow in their love for God. This is accomplished with tremendous support from the Knights of Columbus, volunteer catechists, and through the use of a simple lectionary based curriculum incorporating music and art. The students gather and make a craft based on the Sunday's gospel reading. After this, the students proceed into the chapel for prayer and music. At the end of the prayer service, we gather together to "break bread" with each other by enjoying a small meal which is provided by the parents. Participants who are in need of Sacraments may speak to Mrs. Laurie Becker, Director of Religious Education to make individual arrangements. We generally meet twice a month from September to May on Saturday mornings beginning at 11:30 am & ending at 1:00 pm in the Ministry Room at St. Monica Parish Office, located at 5136 N. Nottingham. We graciously welcome ANYONE with a disability. St. Monica's is wheel chair accessible. We have a wide range of students between the ages of 7 - 30 at the present time. If you are interested in joining our community or just want to find out more information, please contact the Office of Religious Education at: 773-763-1661, ext. 113.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the tangled but fascinating history of penance in the Church, the Irish "tariff" system helped us survive the collapse of the old system of public canonical penance and prepared the way for a new system that emerged in the twelfth century. The old form was unrepeatable, public, dealt with serious community matters, and regulated by the bishops as chief reconcilers. The new form had a more intimate setting of penitent and confessor, was extremely repeatable, and applied to everyone. The old canonical form was closed to children, who were hardly capable of the very grown□up sins listed, or their demanding remedies. The old form was likewise closed to clerics, who were protected in a sense by the very nature of the discipline.

In the new Irish form the penitent directly named sins, or answered direct questions by the priest. Sometimes, the penitent would recite a long formula accusing him- or herself in a general way of all sorts of sins, even from the distant past. Next, priest and penitent together would lie prostrate before the altar and recite several of the psalms with penitential themes. Finally, the priest would pronounce a judgment, deciding what form and duration the penance should take, normally insisting that the person return for reconciliation once the penances were completed. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
