Catholic Schools Week

This week we pay special attention to the importance of Catholic Schools. All across the Archdiocese of Chicago, parishes are celebrating Catholic Schools Week. When it comes to educating our youth, we should all be very proud. Our Catholic Schools have a great history. We also have a fantastic record in the present time. Our students do very well academically when compared to the public schools.

I know I have written about this in previous articles, but it is worth repeating. St. Eugene Parish is extremely dedicated to the spiritual and academic formation of children. As a parish, we give a generous subsidy to the school each year. We have an educational endowment of more than $500,000 to help ensure the vitality of our school and religious education program. It is clear that parishioners take seriously the call to pass on our faith and values to the next generation. I am thankful for the great support of the parish in the area of spiritual formation and education.

St. Eugene School and our Religious Education Program exist to promote the spiritual, academic, and social values that are found in our faith. As we journey through the year, let us continue to look at ways to strengthen Catholic education. I know that our new principal, Ms. Catherine Scotkovsky, our school faculty and staff, our School Advisory Board, and many dedicated parents, are working very hard to market our school. Academic and technological changes have already taken place this past year. We had a great system in place, but we should always look for ways to make it better. Through prayer, financial support, and the gift of time, we will continue to provide great spiritual and academic formation for our students. I want to thank all the people who support our school and religious education program.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

LIVING AS THE BODY OF CHRIST

Some of Saint Paul's best known and most beloved imagery is contained in the passages from First Corinthians that we have heard last week and this week: the many gifts granted by the one same Spirit and the many members making up the one Body of Christ. Few passages from sacred scripture more accurately sum up how Christian vocations work together.

Unlike some of Paul's other writings, which are a product of the social and religious conventions of his time, these enable us to look at our own lives and the lives of those around us to discern what gifts, what vocations the Holy Spirit has given for the good of all. We can likewise know the joys and sorrows of the other members of the Body and share in them for the strengthening of the whole Body of Christ.

There will be an Open Forum beginning at 7:00 pm and lasting one-half hour. Parishioners are welcome to attend.

Please note change of location for our meeting.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

As the deer longs for streams of water, so my soul longs for you, O God. Psalm 42,2

2017 MASS BOOK

The Mass Book for 2017 opened Tuesday, January 19, 2016

Consistent with Archdiocesan policy, there is one intention per Mass. To accommodate the additional requests of parishioners, collective or multi-Intentional Masses are scheduled at 9:00 am on Wednesday, and 11:30 am on Sunday. Since we have a large parish, we must allow people an opportunity to get specific days for Mass Intentions. Therefore, only five intentions may be given to an individual within the first two weeks that the book is open. An individual person may not take more than five Mass Intentions in a given month. Of these five Masses, no more than two should be listed in any given week. The above guidelines do not apply to the designated Multi-Intentional Masses. A person can have a Multi-Intentional Mass every week if they desire it. However, since the intentions are read at Mass, no more than thirty intention should be taken in on any Multi-Intentional Mass.

At the time of a family member's death, if you would like memorials to be made to St. Eugene Parish, please instruct the Funeral Home to use the following in the death notice:

"In lieu of flowers, a memorial may be made to St. Eugene Parish, Foster Avenue, Chicago."

Envelopes can be provided by the Funeral Home.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As Roman Catholics, our marriage practices have their pedigree in ancient Rome. One of the major players in shaping our practices was the warfare involved in building an empire. Soldiers vanished and sometimes never returned. Women began to manage their lives and to make decisions. The old family values were replaced by patriotic ones, and religion was more attuned to the gore and glory of battle, a religion of the state, not of the family. Weddings were still family celebrations, but had a public face. The bride wore a white toga and a red veil and walked to her new home. There, she and her husband joined their right hands and gave consent to each other, not relying on her father to give consent for her. Religion was optional: a pagan priest might be invited or not, and even without the ceremony, society agreed by common law that a year of living together equaled marriage consent. By the same token, marriage by consent also meant divorce was on the same legal footing, and did not require the courts or civil declarations. This is the world-view the first Christians inherited, and it was up to them to determine what was good and to hold marriage up to the light of the gospel. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Fifty Years and Counting
The Biblical Revolution of Vatican II

One of the most remarkable achievements of Second Vatican Council was the impetus it gave the biblical Renewal within the Catholic Church. The Council's Decree Dei Verbum ("the Word of God") on divine Revelation and its pastoral recommendations brought a new energy and perspective to the Church, a renewal that fifty years later is still in process.

LECTIO

UNVEILING SCRIPTURE AND TRADITION

Through Reading, Reflection, Response, & Contemplation

Jesus said "This is my Body" and "This is my Blood."

Some say they're merely symbols of remembrance. Others say they're really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can't explain how that's possible. The Eucharist is the center point of the Mass – but why?

Together we'll join the acclaimed Dr. Brant Pitre for Lectio: Eucharist, Discovering the Mass in the Bible. In 10 compelling and informative sessions, Dr. Pitre will guide us through the whole of Scripture to deepen our understanding of the mystery and wonder that is the Eucharist – and how it will transform our lives.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
