PASTOR'S CORNER

ASH WEDNESDAY

This coming up Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. It was just a short while ago we were in the Christmas Season. We had a brief period of Ordinary Time, and now we find ourselves preparing for the penitential season of Lent. Ash Wednesday begins the Lenten Season which runs until the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. We receive more phone calls on Ash Wednesday than on any other day of the year. It is great that people want to receive ashes; unfortunately, some people do not have a proper understanding what the ashes really represent. I know some Catholics who faithfully receive ashes, but, unfortunately, they do not observe their Sunday Mass Obligation. The reception of ashes should lead to a commitment to practice the faith. If a person receives ashes but does not intend to go to Mass every Sunday, then that person has fallen into superstition. Ashes themselves are not salvific. It is the Holy Eucharist that is essential to the spiritual health of every Catholic.

Again, it is great that so many people want to receive ashes, however, our faith is much deeper than that Lenten symbol. Let us encourage our brothers and sisters to return to their faith by attending weekly Sunday Mass. Again, it falls into superstition if a person receives ashes and then neglects to practice their faith by attending weekly Sunday Mass. If I never receive ashes again in my life that would not bother me; however, if I could not receive Holy Eucharist, I would be spiritually dead. Ashes are good but they are not as important as hearing the Word of God and receiving Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Attending Sunday Mass is an obligation of the faith. If a person receives ashes and then fails to practice their faith, they have spiritually wandered into superstition, which, of course, is a sin. Let us pray that the reception of ashes truly means something to those who receive them faithfully.

As ashes are placed on the forehead, one of the following formulas is said:

Repent and believe in the Gospel.
or
Remember, you are dust, and to dust you will return.

These two formulas should give us pause. The first formula reminds us that spiritually we should always be turning away from sin. However, it is not enough to simply turn away from sin, in order to grow spiritually, we need to be faithful to the Gospel and embrace the teachings of Jesus Christ.

The second formula is a sobering reminder. This formula calls us to always have the proper perspective in life. We are called to cherish God's gift of life, but we should always live with our hearts focused on eternal life. May this Lenten Season deepen your spiritual focus on the Kingdom of God.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

DON'T BE ANXIOUS

People have, it seems, a natural penchant for misplaced emphasis on unimportant things. They can easily get caught up with what they're having for dinner or what they will wear.

Often it is a tragedy that helps people to refocus on what is really important. What I shall wear is an irrelevant question when I am facing surgery or chemotherapy. What's for dinner is immaterial to those living through grief or unemployment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us not to worry. He doesn't say, "Don't eat. Don't cook. Don't buy clothes." He says, "Don't worry." Jesus asks us not to relinquish our responsibilities but to let go of our anxiety. Anxiety betrays a lack of trust and Jesus reminds us that "Your heavenly Father knows" all that you need (Matthew 6:32). Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
