PASTOR'S CORNER

The Church in Confusion

For my article, I am going to present some events that are happening in our Catholic Church (please do not get upset with the messenger).

Pope Francis' new apostolic exhortation, Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love), was made public on April 8, 2016. Since it came out there has been a lot of confusion, especially from paragraphs 300-305 and the famous footnote 351. There appears to be a contradiction in what is stated and the teachings of St. John Paul II's, Familiaris Consortio, Sacramentum Caritatis, the Code of Canon Law and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Briefly put (this is a very simple but important way to phrase the confusion), it seems that Amoris Laetitia is allowing for those who were sacramentally married, civilly divorced, then married again and sexually active (which is the sin of adultery), to receive Holy Communion, even though the consistent teaching of Holy Mother Church has said that they may not receive Holy Communion.

This is a very serious matter. For it appears that the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony is being weakened significantly. If the matter is not corrected, we will be dealing with the acceptance of sin as an approved condition in a person's life. This, of course, should not be promoted by any Catholic, especially those who have teaching authority in the church. As I have mentioned in previous articles, sin blocks the graces present in the Sacraments. Therefore, A true pastor (actually any baptized catholic) helps people out of their sinful state. It is not merciful to allow a person to live in the condition of sin.

Four Cardinals - Cardinal Carlo Caffarra, Cardinal Raymond Burke, Cardinal Walter Brandmuller, and Cardinal Joachim Meisner, sent a dubia (which is a set of questions) privately to Pope Francis asking politely for clarification of Amoris Laetitia. Pope Francis did not respond to their questions. Following church procedures, the four Cardinals made the dubia public (for the full account of events you can go on the Internet and view exactly what was sent to Pope Francis). The Pope has still not responded. The next step may be a formal correction of the Pope (which may happen later this year). This has happened before in history, in fact, at the very beginning of our Church St. Peter was corrected by St. Paul. (Gal. 2:1-4)

Speaking of St. Paul, it is appropriate at this time to look at what he wrote in his letter to the Corinthians regarding the reception of Holy Communion. St. Paul writes:

Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord. A person should examine himself, and so eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself. (1Corinthians 11:27-29)

Bulletin copy MUST be in the rectory office NO LATER THAN 12:00 NOON EACH MONDAY. Copy material received past the deadline will not be published in The Voice until the following weekend—NO EXCEPTIONS.

St. Paul makes it very clear that we should not receive Holy Communion in the state of sin. The notion that some Cardinals and Bishops around the world believe that Amoris Laetitia is giving permission to give Holy Communion to those civilly remarried couples who engage in adulterous relations is a very serious distortion of the Catholic faith. In my opinion, I believe a grave sin is being committed by those in a teaching position who lead the faithful astray is such a way.

It should be noted that not everything Pope Francis says or writes is infallible. Being a human being, Pope Francis can make mistakes like any of us. Certainly Amoris Laetitia has some good things contained within, but it appears to be very confusing for many people around the world. This confusion needs to be addressed. Our church has gone through a sexual scandal and many bishops remained silent for too long. The bishops cannot remain silent about the faith scandal happening in our church. And, thankfully, some of them are not remaining silent.

In closing, please pray for Pope Francis and the leaders of our Church that this matter gets resolved quickly. Again, the Pope is trying to be merciful, but mercy and acceptance of sin are not compatible. Let us all remember Holy Scripture and what Jesus said to the woman caught in adultery in John's Gospel (8:10-11).

Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more." (Jn. 8:10-11)

Jesus forgave and was truly concerned about the woman. That is why he told her to get rid of the sin in her life. Let us imitate Our Savior and help people get rid of sin in their lives.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

St. Thomas Aquinas: "Mercy without justice is the mother of dissolution."
"Justice without mercy is cruelty."

THIRSTING FOR LIFE-GIVING WATERS

Especially during the Lenten, Holy Week, and Easter seasons, the prayer texts of the Eastern Church revel in paradoxical images of Christ: the eternal life who is put to death, the host of the supper who is also its meal, the thirsty crucified one with living water streaming from his side. These images flow from the evangelists' portrayals of Jesus and from his very ministry, during which he often upset or reversed people's expectations about him or the ways of God. This "reversal" is at play in today's Gospel, as Jesus speaks to an enemy foreigner who is also a woman beneath his status. In addition he, the thirsting one, shows the woman to be the one truly thirsting. He—whose parched lips will say "I thirst" before he dies—is the source of life and life-giving water. Lent calls upon us to dwell on how each of us is thirsting for Christ, and it leads us, ultimately, back to the life-giving waters of our baptism into his Body.

"I know well the plans I have in mind for you, plans for your welfare, not for woe: plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot." Jeremiah 29:11 Eucharistic Adoration gives us an opportunity to spend quiet time listening for God's word. He guides us in all things.

(1 COR: 12:26)
Please pray for our brothers and sisters who suffer persecution in many countries throughout the world because of their Christian faith.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
