The Holy Triduum

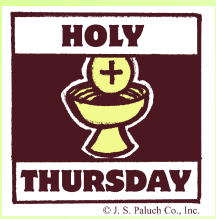

This coming week we will be entering the Holy Triduum. The Lenten season officially ends at sunset on Holy Thursday. The triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. Holy Thursday commemorates the day Jesus instituted the Eucharist; Friday commemorates the day he was executed on the cross, and the Saturday vigil commemorates his emergence from the tomb. The Holy Triduum is full of beautiful traditions that speak to the hearts of us all.

The institution of the Holy Eucharist and of the priestly Order was established on Holy Thursday. Also, the washing of feet is done on this day and reminds us of the service we are all called to do for our brothers and sisters. The veneration of the cross on Good Friday calls us to reflect on the sacrifice of Jesus and how we are to unite our crosses in life with Our Lord's. The Easter Vigil is called the high point of our liturgical year where we welcome new members into our church from the RCIA program, and where we celebrate the triumph of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

We are truly entering the high holy days of our faith. It is my hope that you will be able to join us for our beautiful liturgies. This is the holiest time of our liturgical year. Please prepare yourself by slowing down and taking extra time to pray. Easter Sunday will mean a lot more for you and your family if you can join your family of St. Eugene on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS AFTER THE 9:30 AM MASS

SECOND COLLECTION EASTER FLOWERS FOR OUR SANCTUARY

SEEING CHRIST CLEARLY

We start today looking through the portals of Jerusalem, seeing crowds of people, cheering and waving palm branches in the air. The whole atmosphere is one of joy, triumph, and celebration. We can get distracted or enthralled by the scene, and not see clearly the features of Jesus as he enters. But our readings from Isaiah and Paul's letter to the Philippians clarify his features for us. He is the Suffering Servant, meek and mute before his captors and persecutors; he is the very image of the unseen God, yet will not clutch at equality with God before he endures his final confrontation in humility. Isaiah and Paul help us "behold the Lamb of God" before we hear the story of his final and greatest confrontation. It is important that we see Christ clearly before we hear the account of his passion, for we—his Body through baptism, the church—now bear his face. We must, with him, enter into this time of trial so we can, also with him, enter into his final triumph.

Mondays in church
12:00 NOON - 8:00 pm
with Benediction at 7:45 pm

"The Church beseeches that we may venerate Christ in the Eucharist. We show this "veneration" by going to visit Christ in the tabernacle. He dwells there, really present, he who was present in the crib, at Nazareth, upon the mountains of Judea, in the supper-room, upon the cross."
Blessed Columba Marmion

PEOPLE OF THE CROSS UNITED
We are all members of the Body of Christ.
If one member suffers, all members suffer.
(1 COR: 12:26)
Please pray for our brothers and sisters who suffer persecution in many countries throughout the world because of their Christian faith.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Now we have come to the center of the Christian year, beginning with today, Passion Sunday, Holy Week, and culminating in the Pasch, the Sacred Triduum. Some have called the culminating event in this week's journey of faith "The Three Days of Easter." The origins of many of our observances, including today's blessing of palms and solemn entry into the church, hearken back to old Jerusalem.

In the late fourth century, a woman living a consecrated life in southern France made a four-year pilgrimage to Jerusalem. There, she encountered the rich liturgies of the city, bursting with Christians. She was a keen observer, and fortunately for us wrote vivid letters of her experience to a circle of women friends she calls her sisters. By the time of her journey, it is clear that even some catechumens were undertaking the dangerous journey so that they could be formed at the very site of the events of Christ's passion and rising. At the heart of the pilgrim experience were processions, such as today's joyous procession to the Mount of Olives, and brilliant catechesis from the bishop every day, as well as intense fasting and prayer. When you resolve to keep this week holy in your own life, and especially when you commit to participate in the full Triduum with worship in church and fasting at home, a very ancient tradition is within your grasp.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
