Confidence in God

How does a person overcome sins of habit in order to grow spiritually? I have been asked this question by more than one person. Now, while I am not an expert, I do know what has been written on the subject. In my opinion, St. Jerome has some great practical wisdom to share on the subject of fighting against temptations that lead us to sin.

St. Jerome says in the book The Soul Sanctified:

Never allow a bad thought to remain in your mind; cast out the enemy while he is still young because if he gains strength he will overpower you. Eradicate the weeds of temptation as soon as they appear, and do not let their roots strike deep into your heart, for they will ruin it. What would you do if a spark fell on your clothes? You would not examine it curiously, but would instantly throw it off on the ground. Be, then, quick in ridding yourself of evil thoughts; they are sparks which, if allowed to rest in your mind, will set fire to your soul.

That you may obtain the strength necessary to fight courageously against temptations, have instant recourse to God in prayer, and with a few but earnest words entreat Him to come to your help*. As soon as you feel yourself attacked by temptation, raise your mind, heart and voice to God and say to Him in perfect confidence, "Aid me, O Lord; help me, that I may not offend Thee." (See pages 265-266.)*

St. Jerome indicates that we must not waste time dwelling on the things that tempt us to sin. I like the image he uses about the spark. If you were next to a campfire, and a spark landed on your clothes, you would certainly brush it off quickly so it would not ruin your pants or shirt. You would not sit there and look at the spark while it burned a hole in your clothes. The same thing must be done with the things that tempt us to sin. Get rid of the things that tempt you as soon as they come to your mind. Dwelling upon the unhealthy things is dangerous to the spiritual life.

In your efforts to grow spiritually, please remember to never give up. Perseverance is the key to the spiritual life. We must always be willing to pick up our cross when we fail. Also, we can never grow spiritually if we try to do it by ourselves. As St. Jerome says, "as soon as you feel yourself attacked by temptation, raise your mind, heart and voice to God."

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

SHARE THE HOPE

The readings for today's celebration of the Ascension of the Lord once again remind us that as Christians we are people of hope. In the second reading Saint Paul eloquently exhorts the Ephesians to enlighten their hearts so that they will know the hope and glory that come from being people who place their trust in the Lord Jesus. In the story of the Ascension, recounted in the first reading, the Lord Jesus assures the disciples that the Holy Spirit's power will come upon them. Finally, in the Gospel, the Lord lets the disciples know that their mission is to spread the hope of the gospel to all the nations. This wonderful feast keeps our eyes focused on the hope in which we were grounded on the day of our baptism.

Prayer on Memorial Day

Lord Jesus Christ, today we honor the memory of those men and women who gave their all in the cause of freedom. They worked, fought and died for the heritage of freedom, brotherhood, and honor that they have passed on to us.

Help us to recall that you gave up your life for the true freedom of all human beings. Teach us the meaning of peace and the real battle that must take place in ourselves before it will be won in families and nations. Make us keep your memory in our celebration of communion and pray for the peace and freedom of the whole world.

Let freedom ring
Our fathers' God to Thee
Author of liberty
To Thee we sing
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light
Protect us by Thy might Great God, our King!

See page 10 for Memorial Day Field Masses.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

OUR PATRON, POPE ST. EUGENE I HIS FEAST DAY IS JUNE 2

Pope St. Eugene I

The feast day of our Patron Saint is commemorated in the Roman martyrology on June 2, the day of his burial at St. Peter's.

It is good to honor St. Eugene. His pontificate was very brief, from August 10, 654 to June 2, 657, but he accomplished a lot during that short time. He was a gentle and holy man who showed great charity to the poor. He was a great defender of the theological truth that Christ is one person with two complete and distinct natures: a divine nature consubstantial with the Father, and a human nature consubstantial with us. Pope St. Eugene I is a great Saint to call upon for intercession if you find yourself confronted with heresy.

At the time of a family member's death, if you would like memorials to be made to St. Eugene Parish, please instruct the Funeral Home to use the following in the death notice:
"In lieu of flowers, a memorial may be made to St. Eugene Parish, Foster Avenue, Chicago."
Envelopes can be provided by the Funeral Home.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If you could somehow transport a third-century Christian into your twenty-first-century Sunday Mass, once the initial shock wore off he or she would be more or less at home with the structure of the first part of the liturgy, the Word. The second part might be more difficult to comprehend. The stumbling block would be the book. We have a book, a missal that is set down on the altar with a very precisely prescribed set of words for the priest to say and the people to sing at the Eucharistic Prayer. In the early days of the church, there were no set "formulas" for this prayer. The ancients would have raised eyebrows at our "bookishness" since they preferred to let the prayers roll forth from a gifted leader of prayer. There was a basic shape to the prayer of thanksgiving, and almost general agreement that the words of Christ at the Last Supper ought to be included.

By the second century, Justin Martyr wrote that the presider "gives thanks at some length . . . and when he has finished the prayers and the thanksgiving, all the people present give their assent by saying 'Amen.' " In the world before books, people could memorize long passages of prose and poetry, and so it is easy to see how particular phrases or expressions passed from church to church.

Risen with Him

When the living presence of Jesus was taken away from His own, it was not that they were to have Him less, but in a lovelier, in a diviner way. For when He rose up to heaven, he took with Him, all their hearts, their minds, and their love. So is it with us. He is gone up to heaven, into the bosom of the Father, into the Father's heart of love and we ascend there with Him, with all our hearts, our love and rest where He abides in the Father's Heart.

Prayer on Memorial Day

Lord Jesus Christ, today we honor the memory of those men and women who have given their lives for their compatriots in the cause of freedom.

They have worked, fought and died for the heritage of freedom, brotherhood and honor that they have passed on to us.

Help us to recall that you yourself gave up your life for all human beings in the cause of true freedom, to save us from self-love and sin.

Teach us the true meaning of peace and freedom, that the real battle must always take place in ourselves before it will be won in families and nations.

Teach us to pray daily for peace and freedom for the whole world.

THIRD GRADE FAMILY MASS MARCH 19, 2017

Catholic Education

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of
Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
