Summer Mission Appeal

On the weekend of July 29/30 we will welcome our summer missionary speaker. This year we are honored to have the Most Rev. Antonisamy Francis, the Bishop of the diocese of Kumbakonam. The diocese has an area of 7823 sq. km. and is situated in Tamil Nadu, South India. The Catholic population is more than two million faithful and is served by 200 diocesan and 73 religious priests, 568 nuns, and 15 trained lay catechists.

The diocese has set some goals to meet the growing pastoral needs. They hope to establish 12 more new parishes, provide better facilities for 126 Catholic schools, and purchase some much needed catechetical materials. Unfortunately, the people in the area are quite poor and are unable to support the church for such pressing pastoral projects.

Currently, there are 505 nuns and 3155 catholic teachers in charge of catechetical, educational, medical, and social ministries throughout the diocese. Since education is a main means of evangelization, the diocese has to provide buildings and infrastructure for the schools in remote villages, while the government would pay most of the teachers. Education of 2000 very poor or orphan children from remote villages every year and providing them with free board and lodgings, is extremely costly. All of the mission projects are 80% dependent on the Mission Cooperative Appeal to meet their needs. Please be generous with our second collection on July 29/30 to support the evangelization efforts of the diocese of Kumbakonam. I want to thank you in advance for helping with our summer mission appeal.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

THE MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE OF GOD

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

For centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer we heard as Western Catholics was the old Roman Canon, usually recited in a low voice by the priest, in Latin. By the 1940s, many Catholics were learning to follow along with the actions of the priest by means of a bilingual missal, with Latin on one side and English on the other. Drawings of the priest's position at the altar, moving from one side to the other, or bowing or standing with uplifted hands at the center, helped the readers stay on track.

The Roman Canon is a long prayer, and since it was done every day for every occasion, priests had a way of galloping through it. Even though long, its structure is fairly simple, with the consecration and sacrifice clearly marked out. Sadly, this surviving prayer had triumphed over many treasures of our tradition that emphasized other dimensions of Eucharist. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy in 1963 did not call directly for new Eucharistic Prayers, but that direction was inevitable. Discussion began almost immediately, and by 1967 the Vatican approved three new Eucharistic Prayers. In 1974, the Congregation for Worship unveiled the experiment of two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation, and three for Masses with Children. At last, a period of creativity and enrichment had begun.

BLESSED KATERI TEKAKWITHA

July 14

About 350 years ago, a Native American girl named Kateri Tekakwitha lived in a Mohawk village in what is now the state of New York. Her mother was a Christian, but the rest of her tribe did not believe in the Christian God. When she was a young woman of twenty, Kateri Tekakwitha was baptized by a missionary priest. Sadly, her life among her people became so unpleasant because of her baptism that she felt she could no longer live among them. One night Kateri Tekakwitha and a friend got in a canoe and paddled away from their home to a Christian village near what is now Montreal, Canada. There she spent the rest of her life, living simply, caring for others, and praying for missionaries and her own people. Before she died, she promised to continue praying for others in heaven. Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha is called the "Lily of the Mohawks." She is the first Native American candidate for sainthood. Her memorial day is July 14.

You can make some healthy snacks that will remind you of Kateri Tekakwitha's long canoe trip. You'll need celery and peanut butter or cream cheese.

Cut the celery into pieces about three inches long. Fill each piece with peanut butter or cream cheese. You can also make sails out of paper and toothpicks to stick into your celery boats.

BLACK ELK

Every person is a child of God, and we are all equal in God's sight. Black Elk, a wise Native American holy man who became a Catholic and a catechist (religion teacher), taught that Jesus came to draw us back into the unity of God's family. As a young man, Black Elk had had a vision in which he saw a sacred hoop of peoples, all united in a circle of universal peace. In the tradition of Black Elk's people, the circle is holy.

Black Elk taught that we tend to think of ourselves as standing on the rungs of a ladder. We look up at people we think are above us because they have more money, more possessions, or more talents, and we look down on people we think are below us because they have less money or intelligence or fewer advantages.

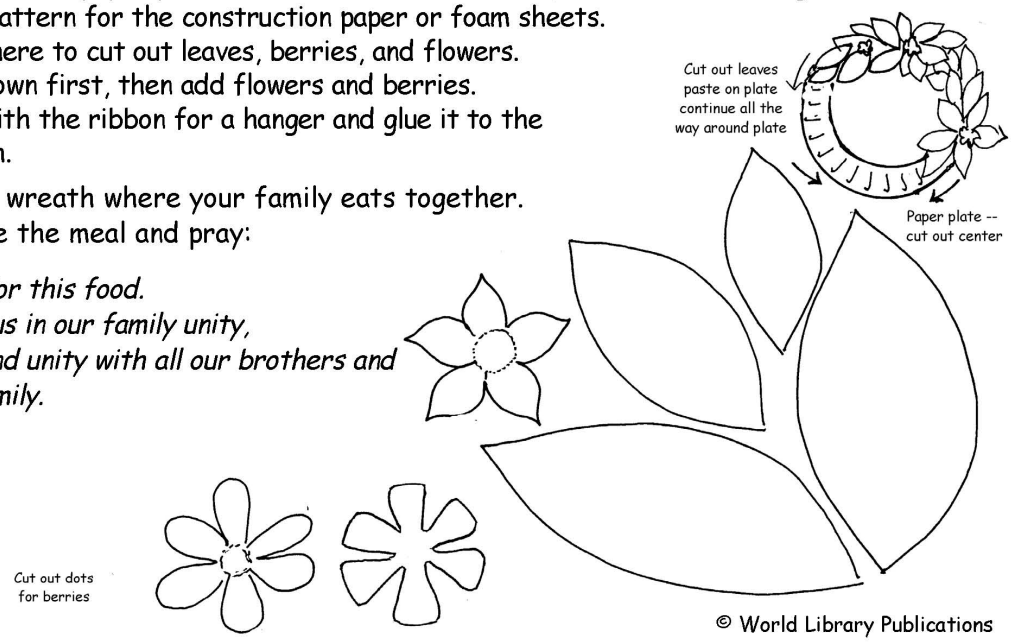

When we stand in a circle, however, we are equal, all on the same level. We can look into our neighbor's eyes and see what is needed—a snack, a smile, a good work, a shared toy or game. Together, we can work to make things better. We can reach out to others, hold hands, help each other, enjoy our differences, and live the peace, unity, and joy God wants for us.

To honor the unity we share as God's children, make a unity wreath.

You will need construction paper or colorful foam sheets—green and flower colors—plus scissors, glue, ribbon, and a paper plate.
Cut out the inside of the paper plate on the inside circle, or 1 3/4 inches from the edge.
Use as is, or as a pattern for the construction paper or foam sheets.
Use the patterns here to cut out leaves, berries, and flowers.
Paste the leaves down first, then add flowers and berries.
Make a long loop with the ribbon for a hanger and glue it to the back of the wreath.

Hang or place the wreath where your family eats together.
Hold hands before the meal and pray:

Thank you, Lord, for this food.
Let it strengthen us in our family unity,
and in our peace and unity with all our brothers and sisters in God's family.
Amen.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY FOR MASS

As warm weather is here, we would like to remind everyone that Sunday Mass is the most important and solemn event of the week. It is not an "informal occasion." As a consequence, the appropriate attire for Mass should be characterized by modesty, dignity, and elegance. Clothing suitable for a picnic, or for the beach, can indicate a lack of respect for the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
