You Must Call

I have written about hospital visits before, but there is a need to do so again. A while back, Fr. Greg went to the hospital to visit our parishioners. Unfortunately, he was told by the hospital administration that because of the Hipaa Laws (connected with patient privacy and confidentiality), the hospital could not give him a list. This presents a problem which we must address. It is not possible to know who is in the hospital and in need of a visit, unless the rectory is notified. It is impossible to visit someone unless we are made aware of the situation.

If you, or a loved one is in the hospital, please do not assume that the rectory has been notified. With the new privacy laws that are being enforced, the reality is that the rectory has not been called by a hospital worker. There is not a list that a priest can check at the desk. If you have a loved one in the hospital in need of a visit, please do not hesitate to call the rectory. We can only visit a sick parishioner if we are notified.

In our hectic society, a lot of things speed pass unnoticed. One thing that should never pass by without acknowledgment is a sick brother or sister. In a parish the size of St. Eugene, some people get overlooked. Let us keep the lines of communication open. Please call if you want a visit, or if you have a loved one in need of a priest.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

EYEWITNESSES

Today, the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, is a day of eyewitness accounts. The first, a vision reported by the prophet Daniel, was well known to Jesus and his apostles. The vision account was written in quite mystical and figurative language. It is a vision of heaven, powerful and memorable. There are flames of fire, burning wheels, the Ancient One, and a Son of Man. Clearly, Daniel saw something. But was it a dream? Was it real? Was it merely a clever myth?

Peter wants no such confusion about his vision! We are told in Matthew's Gospel what he and his friends James and John saw when they went up on the mountain with Jesus one day. Jesus warned the three witnesses to tell no one until "the Son of Man has been raised from the dead" (Matthew 17:9). Lest readers of one of the Gospels discount the story or simply write it off as a pious myth, Peter gives his own account of the Transfiguration of Jesus in his second letter to the church. He writes with authority, as an eyewitness. He reports this message from God concerning Jesus: "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased," and he assures us that the message is "altogether reliable" (2 Peter 1:17, 19).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As the Latin Mass evolved in the first six centuries, the central prayer, what the Greeks called the anaphora and what we call today the Eucharistic Prayer, became fairly standard almost everywhere in the West. What we now know as Eucharistic Prayer I, or the Roman Canon, took a complex shape, not at all like the fluid and spontaneous prayers of early Rome, but a real architectural construction.

The city of Rome was in a terrible condition by that time, and a series of political upheavals, plagues, and invasions swept through. Not much of Rome's former glory was left standing, except for the pope, who became a symbol of protection and hope for the troubled people. The structures of law and administration were swept away in the chaos, and the pope gradually assumed authority to restore and maintain order. Soon, the public liturgy of Rome became the city's only glory. The Romans wanted "good order" not only in their civic life, but in their liturgy. One prayer, increasingly enriched by music (although when the music tried to overtake the prayer the pope banned musical instruments entirely) was the new rule of the day. That one prayer, the Roman Canon, was solidly in place when the first liturgical book we have, the Leonine Sacramentary of 540, was compiled.

PEOPLE OF THE CROSS UNITED

We are all members of the Body of Christ.
If one member suffers, all members suffer.
(1 COR: 12:26)

Please pray for our brothers and sisters who suffer persecution in many countries throughout the world because of their Christian faith.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

"In lieu of flowers, a memorial may be made to St. Eugene Parish, Foster Avenue, Chicago."
Envelopes can be provided by the Funeral Home.

Your parish doesn't get two weeks off with pay. Please remember to send in your envelope even if you are on vacation.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY FOR MASS

As warm weather is here, we would like to remind everyone that Sunday Mass is the most important and solemn event of the week. It is not an "informal occasion." As a consequence, the appropriate attire for Mass should be characterized by modesty, dignity, and elegance. Clothing suitable for a picnic, or for the beach, can indicate a lack of respect for the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

Keep this Information handy for summer travel.

Death of the Reverend. F. Jaime Bonet Bonet
Founder of Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity

Father Jaime Bonet, Founder of the Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity, which is a part of the Verbum Dei Missionary Family, Died on June 25th, in the Henares University Hospital (Coslada, Madrid).

Father Jaime was born in Alqueria Blanca, Mallorca, Spain, on May 21st, 1926; and was ordained a priest on May 31st, 1952. He was a passionate and tireless preacher. His work of evangelization gave origin to the Ecclesial Institute of Consecrated Life: Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity. Verbum Dei received its pontifical approval in the year 2000. The Fraternity has male and female celibate missionaries, priests, and missionary married couples; it expands into the Verbum Dei Family, which consists of lay members devoted to the same charism and mission.

In 1994, he took part in the Synod of Bishops: "The Consecrated Life and Its' Role in the Church and in the World." He was there as our founder, representing the New Forms of Consecrated Life. We remember some words from his intervention at the Synod: "To be witnesses to Christ — before being teachers - requires of us to be able to answer, with the same words of Jesus, to anyone who asks the reason for our way of life: "Come and see." Out of charity and justice, this life shaping adhesion to Christ is the first ideal and the essential theme that we cannot but present to every person. Both the young and the old are more passionate about being than having and doing. They will want to follow Jesus when they see lives that are rooted in Christ and fully realized and happy. They are convinced most by coherence between Word and life. (…) To imitate Christ captivates the hearts of today's men and women."

After these last years of illness, fruit of his total self-giving for the sake of Evangelization, we understand his death under the light of the grain of wheat that falls into the ground and dies in order to bear much fruit (cf.Jn.12:24).

He leaves within our hearts the missionary command that Jesus gave to his disciples before ascending to heaven: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations," (Mt.28:19) These are words that echo in us with all the strength of an apostle who devoted his life to form other apostles.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
