Church Leaders Need Our Prayers

On Wednesday, in the tenth week of ordinary time, the gospel according to Matthew was read. Given the theological state of affairs in our church today, I believe that Gospel passage should be looked at more closely.

The Gospel I am referring to is:

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the Kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the Kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:17-19)

The letter of the law is important to Jesus. It should not be broken. The teachings of Holy Mother Church are important, too, and they must not be broken. However, we have prominent church leaders that are doing what Jesus said not to do. Specifically, Holy Mother Church teaches that divorced and "remarried" people are living in adultery and cannot receive Holy Communion without first ceasing their adulterous relations. Bishops, priests, deacons, and lay ministers are called to help those living in sin to get out of sin. The annulment process should be explained and stressed to help those living in sin to get out of sin. Ignoring the sinful condition of a person and welcoming them to take Holy Communion without addressing the issue, is to go against church teaching.

What did Jesus say about those who promote error? He said, "Whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the Kingdom of heaven." These are strong words. I pray that the faithful take heed of them. I pray that those in a leadership position in our church will stop teaching error. The problem, as I have stated previously, is that the leaders of our church promoting error are doing so under the guise of mercy. This false mercy is causing terrible division in our church. We are becoming a church of compromise.

Many teachings in our society support, accept, and glamorize sin as wonderful. Should the Catholic Church be wonderful and welcoming to the point of accepting sin? Or, should it be a beacon of light that stands against sin? Jesus made it very clear that those who teach others to break the letter of the law will be called least in the Kingdom of heaven. However, Jesus also says that those who obey (which is a difficult cross given the direction our society is heading) will be called greatest in the Kingdom of heaven.

Pray for the leaders of our church. Please pray that they will not teach or promote anything that goes against the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

BE A ROCK

Peter's history as a follower or friend of Jesus is a bit spotty. It might be natural to wonder if Jesus, in giving him the keys to the kingdom, didn't feel a bit like a parent giving a teenager the keys to the family car. But it was at the moment when God's power and presence broke through everything else to raise up Peter's great profession of faith in Christ as Messiah that Jesus chose to establish the bond between the loving, forgiving mercy of heaven and our vocation to be witnesses of that love, mercy, and forgiveness on earth.

Like any parent, Jesus no doubt foresaw the failings, the irresponsible maneuvers or impaired senses, the collisions that the church would be headed for. But, most importantly, he also saw us at that moment as God prefers to see us: capable of manifesting great faith, with a willingness to remain at the feet of Christ to understand what it truly means to be Messiah and Christ. As the letter to the Romans points out to us today, we have not known the mind or the wisdom of God, but God knows us and still chooses to manifest the reign of justice, joy, beauty, and peace through us. Let this be our vocation. Let us always strive to be solid ground on which the church of Jesus Christ can be founded and on which it can continue to be built.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

NAME CHANGE TO ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

For over 40 years St. Eugene has had a St. Vincent de Paul Society. In 2006 the Society removed the individual chapters under the respective churches and established a National Organization. We have now heard of new pending changes to come to the Society. Since we are now such a small group, we at St. Eugene have decided to leave the National Society and return to St. Eugene Church as a SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY. As our group grows smaller, administration will be easier and direct. Our goal and mission will remain the same -- to help those in our Church and our nearby neighborhood with respect to food, clothing and bills as best as we can. Please look for this name change as of September 1, 2017. We hope you will understand this change and continue to support us in our food drives, clothing drives and our Christmas Gift Program — as you always have.

Thank You for your generosity.

Grief Support Group at St. Paul of the Cross

The Grief Share program features biblical, Christ-centered teaching that focuses on grief topics associated with the death of a loved one. The DVD seminar features nationally respected grief experts and real-life stories of people, followed by a small group discussion about what was viewed. Past participants have related how helpful the information and follow-up discussions were to them.

Many grieving people find they are only beginning the work of healing when friends or family have returned to their daily life routines. Too often people, including Christians, tend to stuff their grief instead of allowing it to do the God-given work for which it is intended. Don't allow fear of what others may think to keep you from what could help you. Confidentiality is very much a part of this program.

Your bereavement experience may be recent or not so recent. You will find encouragement, comfort and help in grieving the death of a spouse, child, parent, sibling, other family member, or friend. No matter what the cause of your loved one's death, this is an opportunity to be around people who understand what you are feeling. You will learn how to recognize the symptoms of being stuck in grief and that you do not need to live in bondage to certain emotions. You will learn valuable information about facing your new normal in life and renewing your hope for the future.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
