There is Hope

Praying for an end to the sin of abortion does not mean Catholics do not have compassion for those suffering from post abortion trauma. In fact, the Catholic Church has a program to help women and men who regret their actions. The people who do not care are the ones who run abortion centers.

No matter what society tells you, it is not natural for a mother to allow another person to destroy the baby inside her womb. The consequences of such a horrendous action are very serious. The baby has been killed. This often leads to spiritual, emotional, and physical problems. The abortion center does not care about the woman after they have received their payment from her. Abortion is a business for them. It is about money. It is bad for business to deal with those who regret what they have done. That is why an abortion center will focus on getting you out of their clinic quietly. They do not want you upsetting any of their clients who are waiting to abort (destroy) their unborn baby. After all, there is money to be made! Killing babies for profit is what abortion centers are all about. Do you really think they care about women or men who are suffering spiritually or emotionally?

Fortunately, the Catholic Church has recognized this serious need. Project Rachel has been set up by the Archdiocese to help those who are hurting emotionally and spiritually after an abortion. Project Rachel is the post abortion reconciliation and healing program that can restore hope to those who are feeling lost. And believe me, there are many people who suffer after the abortion has been done. Many in society try to ignore the suffering that women and men go through, but that is not the way to deal with the issue.

As a priest, I can help sacramentally in the confessional. However, many priests (including myself) are not trained to deal with the psychological and emotional pain that people experience. Yet, there is hope. If you, or someone you know is suffering because of an abortion, please reach out for help. Call 1-888-456-HOPE, or go online at: www.hopeafterabortion.com. You will be able to speak one-on-one to a lay counselor, be referred to a trained priest, or receive help from an understanding professional counselor. There is hope for the future!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

NOVENA OF SUPPORT FOR OUR SCHOOL

ST. EUGENE ADULT CHOIR

It is a new season for our adult choir!
Our first practice will be today at 10:30 am.

We will sing at the 11:30 am Mass.
Please meet Lydia, our
Director of Music, at the organ in church.
Everyone is welcome to sing with us.!!!

THE HEAVENLY BANQUET

The mountain of the Lord described in today's first reading is a place where there is no more hunger, no more weeping, and no more division of any kind. We need to pause and ponder these images every now and then, especially given the fact that we live in such a fractured world. The responsorial psalm continues to paint a picture of a place where only goodness and kindness flourish. These readings describe the heavenly banquet, to which God calls each of us through baptism and continues to call us throughout our lives. Let us "RSVP" to God's invitation and live our lives consistent with gospel values so that one day we will be welcomed to the table of the kingdom.

PEOPLE OF THE CROSS UNITED

We are all members of the Body of Christ.
If one member suffers, all members suffer.
(1 COR: 12:26)

Please pray for our brothers and sisters who suffer persecution in many countries throughout the world because of their Christian faith.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

ALTAR & ROSARY SOCIETY — CHRISTMAS TROLLEY
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8 5:30 TO 9:30 PM
MEET AT THE SHAUNESSY CENTER

For the last several years, Altar & Rosary has had the Christmas Trolley to see the sights and Christmas lights!

In the past, we have had to turn people away because we were unable to get another trolley. I have secured a third trolley this year and we will be able to accommodate 96 people total.

I know this is early, but if I do not get the additional trolley filled, I need to cancel it by November 10, 2017, so Altar & Rosary doesn't incur any cost. Anyone wishing to join us on this tour, please call Lois at: 773/774-1511 by November 6th. As a reminder, this is also a Holy Day of Obligation (Immaculate Conception), so you will have to go to the anticipated mass on Thursday evening, December 7, or one of the morning masses on Friday, December 8. Cost of the Christmas Trolley is $27.00.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In 1971, the Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship completed a survey of the presidents of the national liturgical commissions around the world. How were children doing in the liturgical reform? Probably to their surprise, the cardinals learned of special weekday Masses for children designed to teach them how to participate on Sunday, Masses with separate components for children. The decision was made quickly to develop adaptations for Masses where children were a majority of the assembly. Changes would include a simpler structure, understandable texts, a simplified Lectionary, more active participation, and most surprisingly, new Eucharistic Prayers. By 1973 the work was done, and with very specific advice from Pope Paul VI, including the need for two new Eucharistic Prayers, the Directory for Masses with Children was published on December 20, a timely Christmas gift for the children of the world.

The prayers are the first to be written fresh in a modern language—not Latin, but French and German—then translated into English, Italian, and Spanish. With a sense of caution, these new prayers were approved for three years, until 1977, but it soon became apparent that they had truly been embraced.

NAME CHANGE TO ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

For over 40 years St. Eugene has had a St. Vincent de Paul Society. In 2006 the Society removed the individual chapters under the respective churches and established a National Organization. We have now heard of new pending changes to come to the Society. Since we are now such a small group, we at St. Eugene have decided to leave the National Society and return to St. Eugene Church as a SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY. As our group grows smaller, administration will be easier and direct. Our goal and mission will remain the same -- to help those in our Church and our nearby neighborhood with respect to food, clothing and bills as best as we can. Please look for this name change as of September 1, 2017. We hope you will understand this change and continue to support us in our food drives, clothing drives and our Christmas Gift Program — as you always have.

If you would like to make a monetary donation, please make your check payable to St. Eugene's / SCM.

Thank You for your generosity.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

If you are in need of assistance,
call the rectory.
A member of the SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
