Meeting With Bishop Kane

As I mentioned in a previous article, my second term is ending this July, and since I am not near retirement age, I am being transferred. St. Eugene Parish is on the list of parishes looking for a new pastor. There is a process involved, and parishioner input is important.

This Tuesday, November 7, two members from the priests' placement board, along with Bishop Kane will be in the church at 7:00 p.m. for a Parishioner Input Meeting. This meeting is your opportunity to express what you are looking for in a new pastor. It is my hope that the pastor who follows me will be strong in the pro-life movement, a strong supporter of our school, open to working closely with our wonderful parish ministries, and faithful to the teachings of the Catholic Church. However, my hopes will not be considered since I am not allowed to attend the meeting. Therefore, I pray that many parishioners will attend the meeting. It is your chance to make your voice heard. Please come to church so Bishop Kane and the members of the priests' placement board can hear your concerns regarding a new pastor.

During the month of November and December, I will be meeting with priests interested in coming to St. Eugene Parish. I will share with them information and give them a tour. It is my opinion that we will have many priests wanting to come to St. Eugene's. This is a great parish with wonderful parishioners full of faith and vitality. I will be praying that the right person is assigned to St. Eugene's. I would also ask you to pray for me. During November and December, I will have to go and look at other parishes that are on the list for a new pastor. This will be hard for me to do. Leaving St. Eugene Parish will be like leaving my home. Please pray for me as I go through the process.

Cardinal Cupich and the Priest Placement Board members meet in early March, and soon after the parishes are given the name of the priest who will be coming in July as their new pastor. The new assignments will not start until July 1, 2018. I am your pastor up until that time and I assure you that I will continue to be present at St. Eugene and fulfill my duties at the parish. However, the reality is that in June I will have to begin preparing to move to another parish. Again, please keep me in your prayers as I go through the change process, and know that you are in my daily prayers as you await your new pastor.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

THE GREATEST AMONG US

Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.

Wednesday, November 8 - 7:00 pm
Shaunessy Center Meeting Room

This is our regular monthly meeting. We ask all members to be present. We are always looking for new members - wouldn't you like to join us?

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

What is the name of the pope's cathedral? If you said the Vatican, or St. Peter's, you were off by a few miles, since the answer is the Basilica of St. John, the Lateran, the "Mother Church" of all the churches of the world and the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome. It takes its name from the Lateran family, the Trumps of their day, who somehow ran afoul of the Emperor Nero. He seized all their property, including their vast Roman palace and estate. We don't know how Plautius displeased Nero so badly, but eventually all the Lateran property came to Constantine, the first Christian emperor, through his wife, Fausta. Early in the fourth century, when Christianity was at last legalized, Constantine gave the property to the church. Soon the great meeting halls were expanded and adapted.

Over the centuries, the church building has been sacked by armies, ruined by fire, torn down, and rebuilt. The oldest and most unchanged part of the Lateran is a vast, separate baptistery with steps leading down to a huge green basalt pool. Imagine what a triumphal moment the dedication of this public church building was for a community that had worshiped in secret for so long! This Thursday's feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is really about the tradition of consecrating space for worship, and so by extension, a feast for your parish church building and, given the beautiful second reading, for its baptistery as well.

VETERANS DAY

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

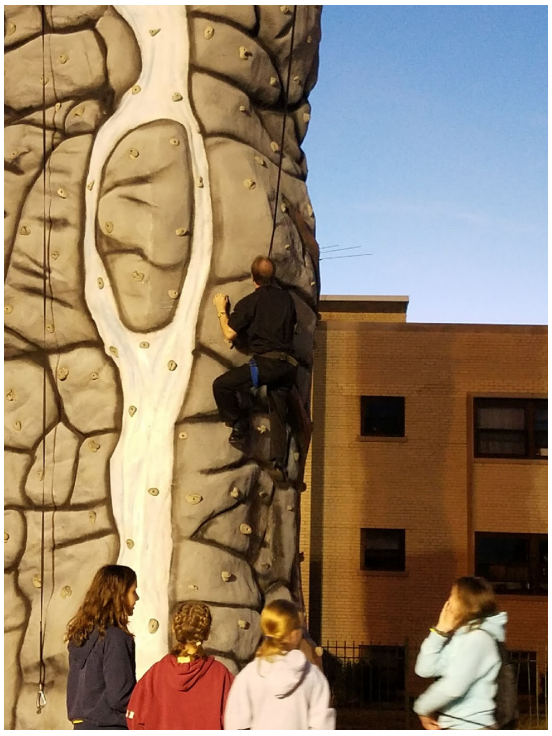

Why Poppies for Veterans?

In the United States veterans organizations traditionally hand out red paper poppies on Veteran's Day as a symbol of remembrance. But of all the flowers, why poppies? John McCrae's well known war poem "In Flanders Fields" begins: In Flanders fields the poppies blow between the crosses, row on row, that mark our place. Beautiful words and a stirring image but again, why poppies?

The reason is simple: Poppies only flower in rooted up soil. Their seeds can lie on the ground for years and years, and only when someone roots up the ground will they sprout. The battlefields of the Western Front provided an abundant fertile, war torn soil for poppies to bloom as they never had before. This inspired McCrae's powerful verse, and the poppy became a symbol for the cost of battle and the eternal hope that springs even from the horrors of war.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Exploring the Diaconate
For those discerning the call from Vicariate II

THE CALL OF THE HOLY SPIRIT TO CONSIDER A VOCATION may sometimes be a gentle voice stirring the soul or a personal longing in our hearts. It may be the urging of friends or spouses. It can also find birth in the invitation of pastors, deacons and parish leaders to pursue such an inquiry. No matter the source of our questions, each of us needs to be affirmed and encouraged to bring a call to a vocation to prayerful discernment.

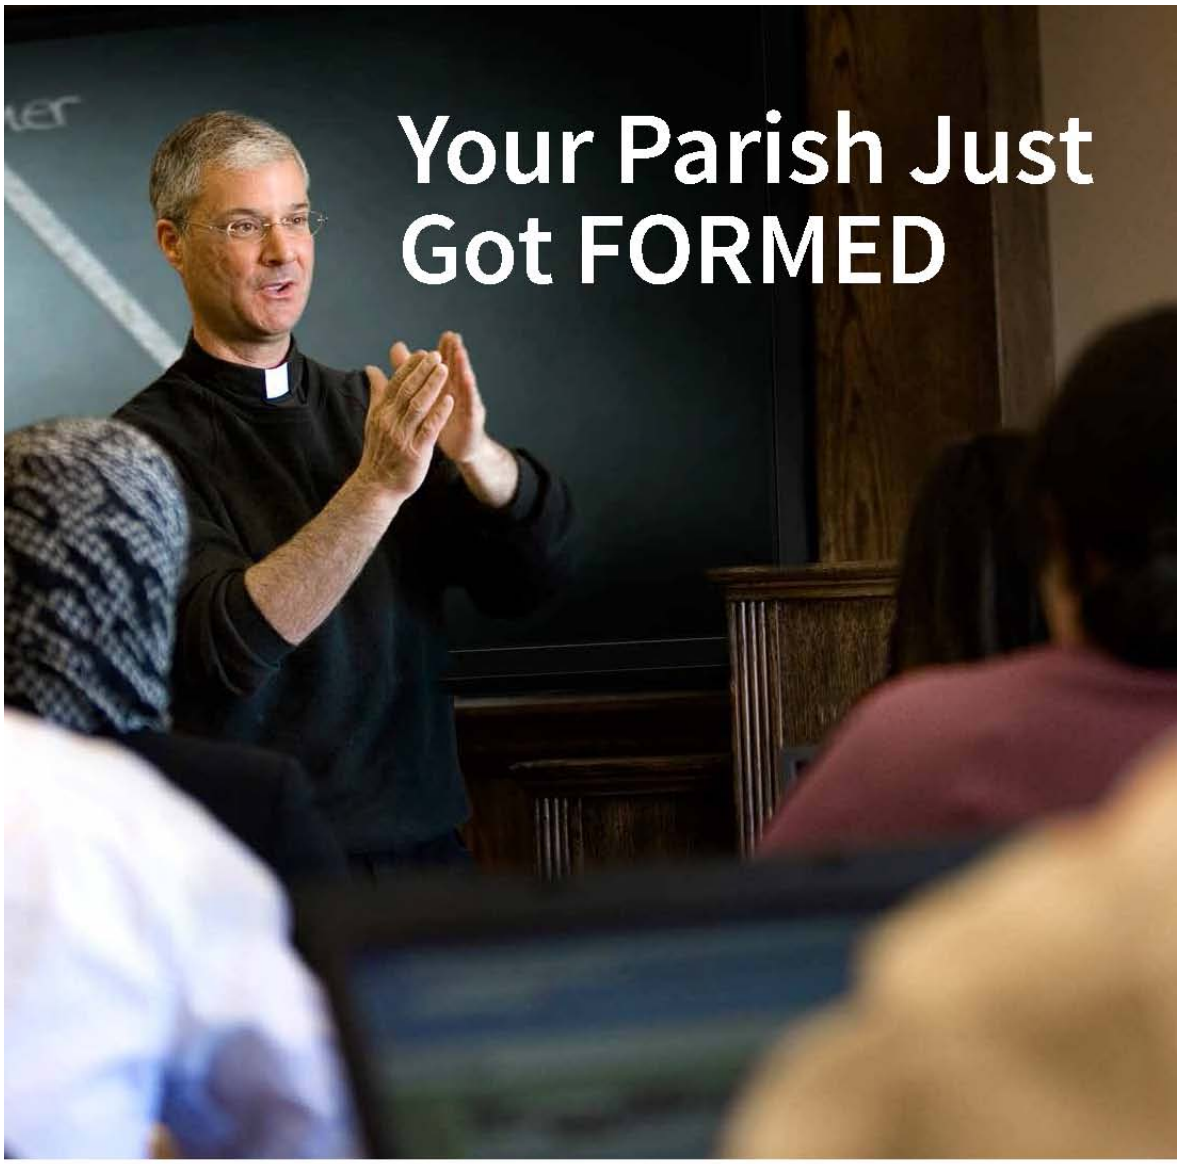

The Institute for Diaconal Studies (IDS) invites all men who feel the gentle nudge of the Holy Spirit to attend an Exploring the Diaconate session. It is a time to pray, discuss, and learn more about the discernment process and the formation program that aspirants and candidates pursue.

Please join us, with your wives, if married, as we explore the potential of a vocation, engage in dialogue and pray in search of the next step. All are welcome to attend any of the sessions.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
