PASTOR'S CORNER

Please Call Ahead

On Tuesday, October 3, Cardinal Cupich had a meeting for all the Archdiocesan Priests. It was an expectation that Fr. Greg, Fr. John, and I would be present at that meeting from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at St. John Brebuf Parish. The Renew My Church Program that Cardinal Cupich is implementing will make demands on all of us in the future.

It is more important than ever that parishioners call ahead to make an appointment if they want to see a priest. We often get people showing up at the rectory for sacramental or spiritual needs and they want immediate attention. This is not a realistic expectation. For example, the meeting on October 3 with Cardinal Cupich called all the full time priests away at the same time. I had my cell phone with me in case a call came in for an emergency anointing, but, I could not come back to the rectory to meet the needs of someone who showed up without an appointment for something that was not an emergency. Again, it is important to call ahead if you wish to see a priest. Hospital visits, Archdiocesan meetings, anointings, funerals, teaching a class at school, helping at another parish, reconciliation services in Advent and Lent, parish meetings, and other responsibilities often mean that a priest is not available when someone shows up at the rectory without an appointment. In the past, many parishes had three or four priests. Today, many parishes have only one priest. We are fortunate here at St. Eugene to have so many priests living in residence, but it is still important to call ahead.

Doctors expect patients to make appointments. It is not wise to just show up without calling ahead. Lawyers, psychologists, and many other professions require appointments in order to arrange their schedule to meet the needs of people. The same must be done if you wish to meet with a priest. Again, it is not that priests do not wish to meet with parishioners. It's just that there are other demands on their time. Statistics tell us that there will be fewer priests in the Archdiocese for ministry in the near future. It is not realistic to expect that a priest will always be available when you stop by the rectory. However, if you call ahead and set up an appointment, it is realistic to expect that the priest will be waiting for your visit.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS AFTER THE 9:30 AM MASS

WISDOM

We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudently, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it.

Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror. Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ.

FREE DINNER/LECTURE
Wednesday, November 15 - 6 pm
Shaunessy Center

Our Pastor, Father George, will be our speaker, and the title of his presentation is "Simony, Indulgences and the Path to Sainthood" — you cannot buy your way into Heaven. So, how do we enter the Kingdom of God?

Please call the rectory by November 11, if you plan to come, so that we may plan for the amount of food that will be needed.

Also, we would be most appreciative of donated desserts and salads. Thank you very much. We hope to see you there.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

Don't miss out!

Each of us probably still harbors a childhood memory of when we "missed out." It might have been a party we were too sick to go to, or that family obligations forced us to miss. Remember how sick with disappointment and grief your young heart felt? It was almost too much to bear, knowing everyone else was having so much fun and you were left out.

Consider how much larger the grief would be if the party had been hosted by Jesus. Today's gospel tells the story of ten young maidens who were to participate in a wedding. Five of them came well prepared with oil for their lamps. Sadly, the other five had forgotten their preparations. When the bridegroom was almost at the door, they rushed off to replenish their oil - and ended by missing the whole party. No matter how they begged to be let in, the groom said, "Sorry, I don't know you."

Let's not risk a repeat of our childhood disappointments. All it takes is a little preparation, a little commitment, and a lot of faith to ensure we enjoy the best party in the universe: the glorious and blessed gathering of Christ and His friends.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We had sixteen hundred years' experience with one Eucharistic Prayer in our repertoire, and the liturgical reforms of the Council of Trent shaped the way we worshiped for four hundred years. In the last years of the Tridentine Mass, the early 1960s, we tended to see children as miniature adults. Fully rooted in the Sunday assembly by the decision of Pope Saint Pius X to push Communion back to the age of seven or so from the standard age of twelve to fourteen years during the early 1900s, children were still more tolerated than acknowledged. The Mass was in Latin, and by the 1960s the people had begun to regain their voices in the "dialogue Mass," so the focus was on training little children to recite or sing in Latin.

The new attention to the experience of children, their ability to enter into ritual, their spontaneity, their ability to grasp key concepts in faith, felt "untraditional." Yet we can trace in our tradition the ways in which children have long been given a special place in the assembly. From earliest times, boys have served in choirs and certain ministries in monasteries and in parish churches. Girls were sometimes entrusted to nuns, learning liturgical chants and the arts. Yet, in our day, the formation of a Lectionary for children and Eucharistic Prayers suited to them are truly tremendous breakthroughs in our treasury of prayer.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Exploring the Diaconate
For those discerning the call from Vicariate II

THE CALL OF THE HOLY SPIRIT TO CONSIDER A VOCATION may sometimes be a gentle voice stirring the soul or a personal longing in our hearts. It may be the urging of friends or spouses. It can also find birth in the invitation of pastors, deacons and parish leaders to pursue such an inquiry. No matter the source of our questions, each of us needs to be affirmed and encouraged to bring a call to a vocation to prayerful discernment.

The Institute for Diaconal Studies (IDS) invites all men who feel the gentle nudge of the Holy Spirit to attend an Exploring the Diaconate session. It is a time to pray, discuss, and learn more about the discernment process and the formation program that aspirants and candidates pursue.

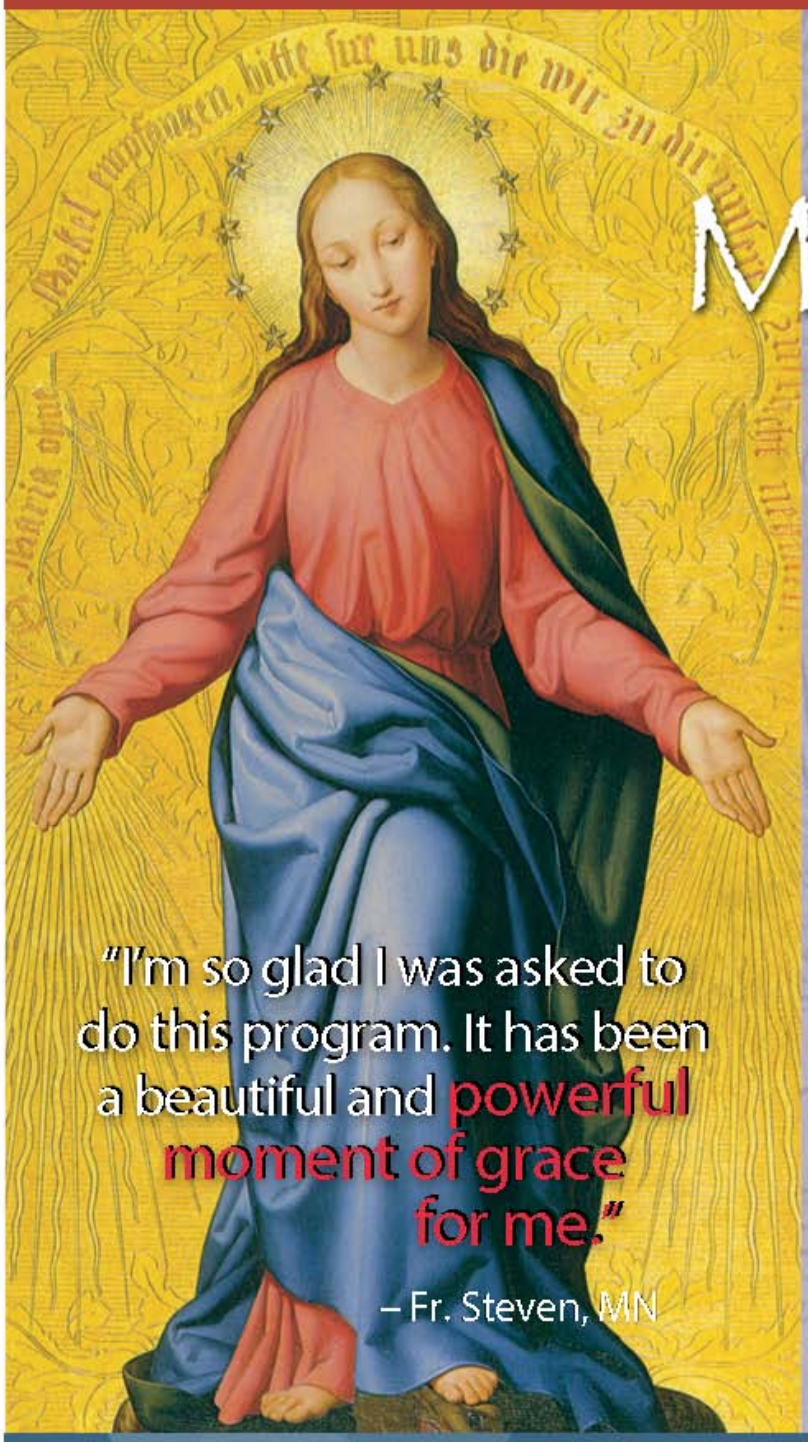

Please join us, with your wives, if married, as we explore the potential of a vocation, engage in dialogue and pray in search of the next step. All are welcome to attend any of the sessions.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
