Pastor's Corner

I recently came across a pamphlet from Our Sunday Visitor, and inside it gave the top ten reasons people returned to the Catholic Church. I know I used this information years ago in a previous article, but it is worth repeating, especially during this Lenten Season when we have RCIA members from across the country joining (or returning) to the Catholic Church.

The Top Ten Reasons People Return to the Catholic Church

10.) Because they want meaning in life.
9.) Because childhood memories surface.
8.) Because they made mistakes.
7.) Because they need to forgive others.
6.) Because they want to be healed.
5.) Because the Catholic Church has the fullness of truth and grace.
4.) Because they want their children to have a faith foundation.
3.) Because they want to be part of a faith community.
2.) Because they want to help other people.
(And the Number One Reason People Return to the Catholic Church)
1.) Because they hunger for the Eucharist.

The desire to receive the Body and Blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, is, without exception, the number one reason why people come back to the Catholic Church. Sometimes it happens at a funeral, a wedding, or a confirmation. Sometimes it happens when a person is facing a difficult struggle in life. The presence of Jesus in the Eucharist draws people back into Church more than anything else. Great preaching, wonderful music, good liturgical celebrations, are all helpful in a parish, but it is The Eucharist that truly calls people and sustains people in their faith.

The source and summit of our faith is the Holy Eucharist. Attending Mass on Sundays is how we stay connected to Christ in the Blessed Sacrament and how we stay connected to Christ present in the community. At St. Eugene Parish we also have Eucharistic Adoration that takes place every Monday from 12:00 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. (Benediction takes place from 7:45 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.). The number one reason people all over the world return to the Catholic Church is the Eucharist. Come and strengthen your faith each Monday by spending some time in the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

NEW EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

There is a need for Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for the Sunday 7:00 am Mass. Some of these lectors and Eucharistic Ministers cover the 9:30 am monthly Altar & Rosary Society and/or the Family School Mass. Please consider becoming a Lector or Eucharistic Minister to help your parish. You must be a parishioner of the parish and have made your confirmation. There would be one class for you to attend before being mandated. If you are interested, please call the rectory and leave your name and phone number. Someone from the rectory will return your call.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY
Wednesday, April 11 - 7:00 pm
Shaunessy Center Meeting Room

This is our regular monthly meeting. We ask all members to be present. We are always looking for new members - wouldn't you like to join us?

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

SO THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

It is not often that the author of one of the books of the Bible comes right out and tells us directly why he is writing what he is writing. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, taken from the conclusion of John's Gospel, the author tells us that he has chosen to record these events so "that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (20:31).

The letter of John echoes this idea by saying that "[e]veryone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God" (5:1)—what we might refer to as being "born again." Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles for this Second Sunday of Easter shows us exactly what it looks like when believers are born again through faith.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes children acquire nicknames in childhood that stalk them through adulthood: “Pinky,” “Boo-boo,” and the like. This Sunday was once called “Low Sunday,” a step down from Easter glory, and an unfortunate nickname since Easter rejoicing goes on for fifty days. Traditionally this is the day when the newly baptized put away their white baptismal robes and returned to their everyday life after a week of intense celebration. Of course, the goal was to take up everyday duties with a very new point of view.

A long title for the day was Dominica in albis deposito, or “The Lord’s Day for Putting Away the Albs,” so no wonder the nickname “Low Sunday” arose. In the old calendar it was also called “Quasimodo Sunday,” after the first word of the opening chant, Quasimodo geniti infantes, or “As newborn infants,” a reference to the newly baptized taken from the Epistle of Peter. Victor Hugo’s bell-ringing hero in The Hunchback of Notre Dame was abandoned as an infant on the threshold of the cathedral of Paris on Low Sunday, 1467, and named “Quasimodo” for the feast.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
