Trinity Sunday

The Holy Trinity - the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. When it comes to explaining the Trinity, sometimes a simple explanation says more than a detailed description. I have decided to give both today.

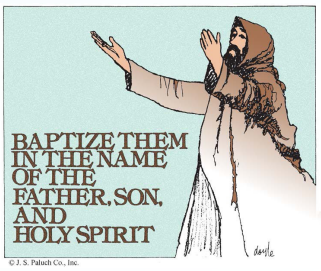

First, the complex theological definition of the Holy Trinity. The Church says: "God, who is one and unique in infinite substance or nature, or Godhead, is three really distinct Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Each of these Persons is truly the same God, and has all infinite perfections, yet each is really distinct from each of the other Persons. God the Father is not the Son, but begets the Son eternally, as the Son is eternally begotten. The Holy Spirit is neither Father nor the Son, but a distinct Person having His Divine nature from the Father and the Son by eternal procession. Thus the unique and indivisible Godhead subsists in three Persons, who are constituted by distinct internal Divine relations. These Persons are co-equal, co-eternal, and consubstantial and deserve co-equal glory and adoration."

Do you have a headache? I think that definition is rather complex. Even though it is true, most people do not get a lot out of that statement. A simpler approach to explaining the Holy Trinity involves the legend of St. Patrick. It is said that when St. Patrick was trying to explain the Holy Trinity to the people of Ireland, he picked up a three-leaf clover and pointed to it and said: "There are three distinct leaves on this clover, but it is still only one clover."

Of course, the Trinity is not exactly explained by that example, for a clover does not do justice to the relational aspect that is found in the Trinity. The love and relationship between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit is the key to the Trinity. It is in our relationships with one another that we can best imitate the love that exists within our Triune God. The Trinity is a mystery that can never be exhausted. There is always more for us to learn. The Trinity cannot by fully grasped by our finite minds. However, through our relationships with one another, we can experience that love that exists in the Holy Trinity. Love allows us to understand a bit of the mystery of the Holy Trinity.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

Prayer on Memorial Day

Lord Jesus Christ, today we honor the memory of those men and women who gave their all in the cause of freedom. They worked, fought and died for the heritage of freedom, brotherhood, and honor that they have passed on to us.

Help us to recall that you gave up your life for the true freedom of all human beings. Teach us the meaning of peace and the real battle that must take place in ourselves before it will be won in families and nations. Make us keep your memory in our celebration of communion and pray for the peace and freedom of the whole world.

Let freedom ring
Our fathers' God to Thee
Author of liberty
To Thee we sing
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light
Protect us by Thy might Great God, our King!

See page 9 for Memorial Day Field Masses.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity created by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross. The table, prepared for eating and tilted toward the viewer, is an invitation to the Eucharist. From left to right, each figure is keyed to a person of the Trinity. Like all icons, this image is theology in art. The persons are equal in proportion and dignity, they all carry staffs to symbolize their power, and are shown with golden wings and halos. Today, the best place to see Rublev's work is the Holy Trinity Cathedral, at the heart of the vast Holy Trinity monastery about an hour from Moscow. After decades of persecution, it is now once again a living monastery, a world heritage site, and the spiritual home of Russian Orthodoxy. A Google visit is highly recommended today!

The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland

Dear Father George:

St. Eugene collected a total of $5,135.06 for The Women's Center in the 2018 Baby Bottle Project!

We are grateful for the generosity of your parish and the wonderful donation we received from you and the parishioners. It is wonderful that you believe in our Life Saving Mission and that your parish is so charitable. We appreciate your help with this endeavor. Since the Baby Bottle project is an essential part of our organization's fundraising , it is an incredible blessing to us and the women and babies we serve that we can count on your support.

These funds allow us to provide material and financial assistance to women in crisis pregnancies. By choosing life for their babies they can be assured that they will be provided with the many necessities they require. We have over 3,500 appointments with women every year and give away over $500,000 in material goods!

We want to express to you, the parishioners and everyone involved at you parish our sincere appreciation.

We are indeed thankful for all that your parish and you do on behalf of defending LIFE!

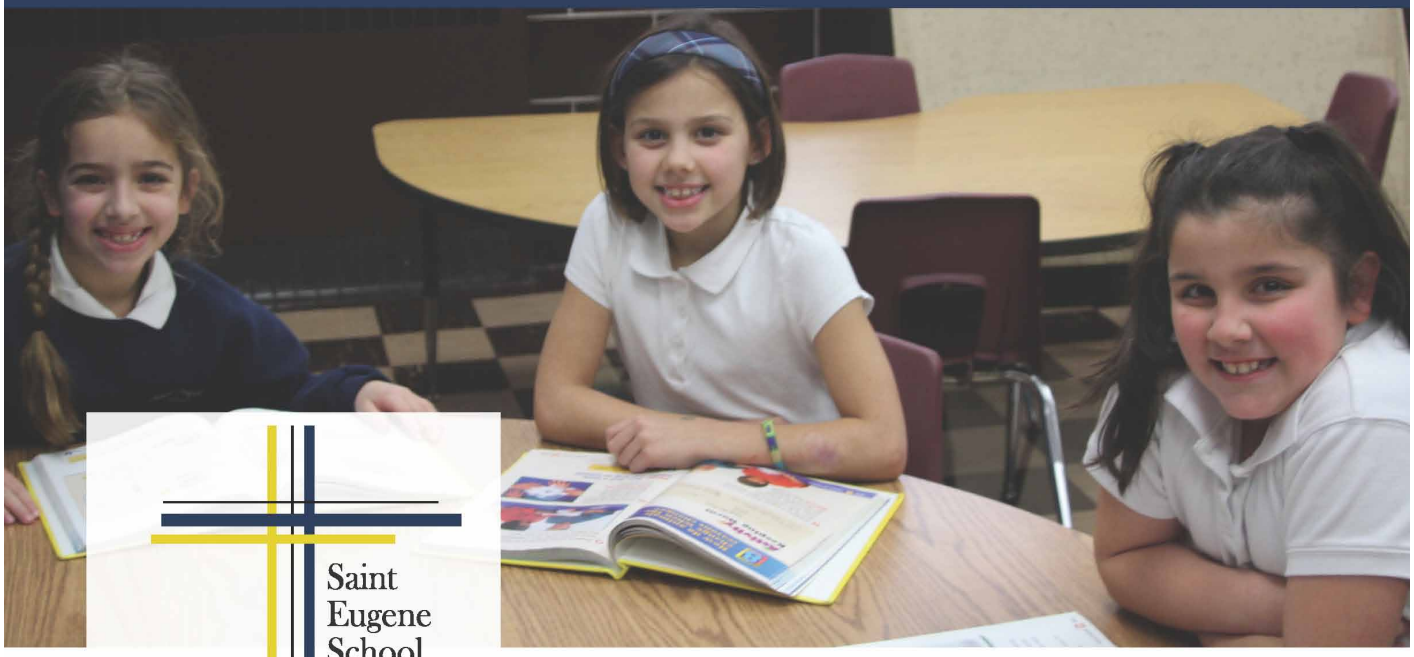

May God bless you always and congratulations and thanks again!

Sincerely in Christ,

Mary A. Strom, Executive Director
Janet Back, Manager of Development

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
