From the Pastor's Desk…

As the old Crosby, Stills and Nash song said, "Teach your children well…"

"As with any other skill, parenting takes love, time, consistency, and lots of patience (A few prayers never hurt either). The following tips may help make your experience of taking the little ones to church change from holy terror to just plain holy.

- Remember that Mass is usually one hour long. Most children can sit and watch a video for longer.
- Prepare for what you are going to celebrate at Mass. Begin before you ever set foot inside the door. Use time at home, perhaps over dinner or breakfast, to discuss proper church behavior; when to sit, stand or kneel. How to share the sign of peace. Why it is important to sing and pray with the church community?

- Discuss your family's rules of conduct and why they may differ from those around you.
- Arrive early so you can settle in or make a bathroom stop, if needed.
- Dress in special clothing. You're going to a special celebration. Soon they will start believing it is a special time.
- Feed your children before you go to church. Just think of the time that you'll save by not packing snacks. When you forget to bring the snacks it won't matter because your children won't be used to getting them. Snacks are distracting to those around you, especially other children.
- Have an older child read the Sunday scriptures on the way to Mass. This will also help you appreciate the readings during Mass.
- Sit up front. If the children can see, they are more apt to pay attention.
- Ask questions after Mass. Ask what color the priest was wearing, or what their favorite song was. This will help them pay attention, so when they are asked next week they will have an answer.
- Have smaller children sit on your lap. Hug them. Share the joy and comfort of Christ.
- Once they start to run up and down the pews, enforce that they sit on your lap or take them out into the gathering space to remind them of the rules.
- Teach your children that you come to church to worship as a family.
- On your way out, stop to talk to their friends. Let them experience fellowship at the appropriate time.
- Above all, have patience. We priests do! Even as adults our minds wander. Encourage them to do their very best and be loving and firm in correcting them.

They will learn if you are consistent.

On Monday, September 3rd, we here in the United States, will celebrate Labor Day. From its origin as a federal holiday in 1894, Labor Day has celebrated the economic and social contributions of our country's workers. This day has also come to be celebrated by most Americans as the symbolic end of the summer.

This Labor Day, our country continues to struggle with a broken economy that has not been able to produce enough decent jobs for its workforce. Millions of Americans are suffering from unemployment, underemployment or are living in poverty as their basic needs all too often are going unmet. Sadly, this represents a serious economic and moral failure for our nation. However, as a people of faith, we are called to stand with those left behind, to offer our solidarity, and to join forces with "the least of these" to offer our help in meeting their basic needs. Let's pray together that our nation and its leaders will do their best to seek economic renewal that places working people and their families at the center of our country's economic life.

I wish all in our parish community a happy Labor Day. May it be a day spent enjoying the company of your family and friends, thanking God for the many blessings that each of us has been given. Perhaps you might want to begin this day by joining your parish community at Mass. On Monday, Masses will be at 6:30 & 9:00 am. Our parish office will be closed on Labor Day for the holiday.

Fr. Rich

Please note that the Parish,
School and Religious Education Offices will be closed on Monday, September 3rd for Labor Day.

This Saturday, September 8, 2018 there will be a shredding event sponsored by

THE HIGHEST LAW

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of "filler," various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others' attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all.

Work makes us more human

"Work is a good thing for man. It's a good thing for his humanity, because through work man not only transforms nature, adapting it to his own needs, but he also achieves fulfillment as a human being and indeed, in a sense, becomes more of a human being."

Pope John Paul II

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When an altar is dedicated, the Rite of Dedication directs that, if possible, the relics of a martyr be mortared into the church floor under the mensa, or "altar table." Up until this revised rite, the general practice was to include small relics of saints in an altar stone, a slab of marble that was normally set in the altar itself. Today's rite states a clear preference for "martyr," and for a substantial part of the body, in accord with our tradition's desire for substantial symbols. Martyr, of course, means "witness" in Greek, and was the title given early on to the people who by their death imaged the death of Christ.

From the beginning, there has never been a shortage of such people, although it took a while for the Church to develop a process to declare someone a martyr. Saint Augustine tells how it was done in the fifth century. By then, popular opinion didn't count as much as an official tribunal set up by the bishop of the place where the martyr suffered. After the inquiry established that the person did indeed die for the faith, a metropolitan bishop had to ratify the decision before a shrine could be built or an altar set up over the martyr's tomb. For the most part, the honor paid to a martyr (called a "cult") was restricted to that diocese, although the fame of some heroes spread so much that they were celebrated elsewhere. The age of the martyrs is now, and more people died for the faith in the twentieth century than ever before, witnessing to Christ to the end. Their sacrifice remains "the seed of the Church."

FRIENDLY VISTORS NEEDED
Be a friend to a lonely senior.

The Seniors Assistance Center is looking for outgoing, caring and compassionate volunteers to visit with a senior citizen in the communities of Norridge, Harwood Heights and unincorporated Norwood Park Township.

This service provides companionship to the older adults in our community who are lonely, isolated, homebound, or in need of assistance to leave their homes. One of the most important aspects of the program is the real friendship that can develop between a senior and a friendly visitor.

Some simple and fun things to do when visiting with your senior - having coffee/tea and conversation; reading aloud; playing a favorite game; sharing memories; doing crafts together; planning occasional outings such as short walks or shopping when possible.

For further information about how you can become a friend to a senior, call Anne or Carole at: 708/456-7979.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
