From the Pastor's Desk…

This weekend we celebrate Respect Life Sunday. It is an opportunity for each of us to examine the ways in which we respond to the precious gift of human life, in all its forms from conception until natural death. There are so many complexities that surround the many "life issues" that we are faced with each and every day. The decisions we make both personally and collectively about these "life issues" all have ramifications. That is why the Church in her infinite wisdom will always look to protect the dignity and sanctity of human life… whether it be coming to the protection and defense of the defenseless fetus, caring for the increasingly aging senior population, taking a definitive stance on birth control, encouraging natural family planning, or helping us to understand all the ramifications of stem cell research, etc.

I want to encourage everyone in our parish to use this Respect Life Sunday as an opportunity to learn more about what we as Catholics believe about respecting life in all its forms, and more importantly, why we teach and believe and hold firm to our convictions about the protection and preservation of human life.

****

At all of our weekend Masses throughout the month of October, you will see some activity and perhaps hear some "clicking" as our ushers conduct their annual count of our weekend worshipers. This is necessary so that we can give an accurate accounting to our Archdiocese of the number of worshipers that attend Masses at all of our parishes on a given weekend. Every man, woman and child is counted for this annual census.

****

A few weeks ago I wrote about some "Common Good Excuses" we sometimes use to not attend Sunday Mass. This week I'd like to offer 18 reasons why we should go to Sunday Mass or perhaps even return to Sunday Mass if we've been away for a while. Please share this column with those who might need a little reminder of what participation in the Mass gives us or who have perhaps just become lazy and have lost their way.

Reason 1. It's your way to relive the Last Supper.

Reason 2. When was the last time you prayed too much?

Reason 3. If you want to spend eternity with Christ, you need to get to know him now.

Reason 4. It's the central, necessary activity of Christian worship (Luke 22:14-23; John 6:53; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

Reason 5. It's your best way to identify yourself with Christ's sacrifice on the cross.

Reason 6. Some of the greatest people in history were Mass goers (St. Francis, Mother Teresa, Pope John Paul II …)

Reason 7. Wise people invest money for the future. How much more should we invest in eternal life?

Reason 8. It has to be better for you than TV.

Reason 9. If you've been to confession, you get to receive Jesus Christ. If you find a better deal, do that instead.

Reason 10. If you knew Jesus would be somewhere, wouldn't you go see him?

Reason 11. Guaranteed Bible readings. Countless lives have been changed by Scripture. Might yours?

Reason 12. Statistics say that people who go to church are less stressed.

Reason 13. It's the best way to pray for your family and friends – and to cope with troubled times.

Reason 14. One out of Ten Commandments asks you to go to Mass every Sunday.

Reason 15. You'll become a better person at Mass. The more you are part of God's life, the better you'll be.

Reason 16. Life is complicated. Get directions that work – from the One who created life.

Reason 17. It's your way to go most directly through Jesus Christ to God the Father by the power of the Holy Spirit in prayer.

Reason 18. Is one hour too much to give to God? How many do you spend on other priorities?

****

Finally, many have been asking when I was going to be "officially" installed as pastor. Well, I just received word that my Installation Mass as the 5th Pastor of St. Eugene has been set for Sunday, November 11th at the 11:30 a.m. Mass. Our new Vicar, Bishop Mark Bartosic will be the presider of the Mass. All in our parish are invited to join in the celebration and there will be a light reception to follow in the Shaunessy Center after the Mass. This is really a very special occasion for our parish. I would be honored if as many people as possible could attend. More information will follow in the weeks ahead.

HE EMBRACED THEM AND BLESSED THEM

Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God's love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ's love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

The RCIA is a process by which one enters the Catholic Church through prayer, study, and discussion.

This class is designed for those who are: not baptized; baptized in another denomination; or baptized Catholic but did not make their First Holy Communion or Confirmation.

We meet on Thursdays at 7 pm in the Rectory from October 4, 2018 until the Easter Vigil 2019.

For more information, please contact: The rectory office at: 773/7756659 and someone will call you back.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of our great treasures is the way the Church has frequently flourished under unfavorable conditions, like the grape ivy on the mantel that refuses to die no matter how infrequently you water it or open the drapes. Like the apartheid laws in South Africa in the last century, the penal laws of Ireland were aimed at depriving the majority population of basic human rights. The Protestant parliament of Ireland enacted laws limiting the practice of Catholicism. The goal was to force conversion from "popery" to the Church of Ireland, and additional laws took aim at Jews, non-Anglicans, and Quakers.

There were laws against intermarriage, laws against Catholics being lawyers (there was a one-hundred-pound fine), a law granting lifelong income to priests who became Protestant, and a ban on weapons. In fact, until 1793, a Catholic man had to recruit and pay a Protestant man to serve in the local militia in his place! As if family life is not complicated enough in any age, the sons of a deceased father could divide his land equally, unless one became Protestant. In that case all would go to him! When allowed, new Catholic churches had to be built of wood, not stone, be off a main road or city square, have no steeple or bell, and be called a "chapel." Catholic "Emancipation" was largely secured by 1829, but even up to the founding of the Irish State in the 1920s, some effects of the laws endured. No wonder that poor Irish immigrants to the United States frequently built gloriously beautiful churches as their first act on free soil!

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
