2019 Annual Catholic Appeal
"Come, Follow Me…and share the Word"

Next weekend you will find inserted in the Sunday Bulletin a very informative brochure explaining and outlining this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. I ask all in our parish to spend some time next week to read and to reflect upon the information you will find in the brochure that you will receive. The Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledged campaign commitment where you can make a gift payable in installments. A pledge is a promise to make a gift over a span of time.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to answer Jesus' call to "Come, Follow Me…and share the Word."

Once we reach our parish goal this year of $49,636.14 in paid pledges, 100% of any additional funds come back to our parish to help fund our needs. If you've been paying attention to the finance page in our weekly bulletin you can easily see that our needs are great as we are not meeting our required budgeted income on a weekly basis. These "extra" funds would help us tremendously.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass with you the weekend of February 23/24. For those who did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all the Masses on that weekend and the weekend following.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and hopefully generous response.

The 2020 Mass Book will open this Tuesday, February 12th at 9:00 a.m. and will be available for the addition of your special mass requests throughout the year. As in the past, only 5 intentions per person can be accepted for the first 2 weeks the Mass book is open. Also, this year 4 intentions will be accepted for each Mass (except for Masses said for The People of the Parish and The Purgatorial Society which are single intentions). Please remember that there are some days when individual Mass Intentions will not be available such as All Soul's Day, Mother's Day and Father's Day. On these days we will have only one Mass Intention that will be for all of our deceased loved ones (All Soul's Day) as well as all of our living and deceased mothers and fathers (Mother's Day and Father's Day). There will be an opportunity, however, to include the names of your own personal deceased loved ones for All Soul's Day and for your individual living and deceased mothers, fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers, etc. for Mother's Day and Father's Day on the special envelopes that will provided in your monthly offering envelopes. These names, when submitted to the parish office or dropped in the collection basket, will then be printed on special pages in our parish bulletin as well as kept on our altar throughout the year.

In case you did not read my bulletin article last weekend, I want to give all in our parish an update on Fr. Phil Grib's health. After speaking with his Jesuit Community superior and caretakers, it has been decided that this weekend's planned farewell Mass and reception for Fr. Phil will need to be postponed indefinitely for now. This is certainly much to his and our disappointment. Unfortunately he has not bounced back from his early January fall as quickly as we had all hoped. Fr. Phil was moved from Resurrection Hospital two weeks ago to the Resurrection Life Center across the street on Talcott. He had not been eating for many days, so the decision was made to provide a feeding tube to enable him to get some nourishment. He can certainly benefit from your prayers, so please remember him in your daily prayers and Masses. You can visit him if you like, but having many visitors might be a little overwhelming for him in his current condition.

In light of all the upset and news about the child abuse scandal that has shaken our Church, Bishop Bartosic has asked that each parish in our Vicariate host a 30 minute or so listening session to provide our parishioners an opportunity to openly express and share their feelings, thoughts, and ideas with each other and with their pastors. These comments and opinions will be recorded (written down) and shared with Cardinal Cupich at a Vicariate-wide listening session that will be held in March. To honor this important request and to solicit your feedback, we will be gathering in the Shaunessy Center next Sunday, February 17th at 12:45 p.m. right after the 11:30 a.m. Mass. All in our parish are invited to attend and offer your valuable input.

This Thursday, February 14th, is Valentine's Day. According to legend, the Valentine takes its name from a young Christian priest who lived in Rome. Like so many of the early Christians, Valentine had been imprisoned because of his faith. Often and longingly he thought of his loved ones and wanted to assure them of his well-being and of his love for them.

Beyond his cell window, just within reach, grew a cluster of violets. He picked some of the heart-shaped leaves and pricked them with the words, "Remember your Valentine," and sent them off by a friendly dove. On the next day, and the next, he sent more messages that simply said, "I love you." Thus, did the Valentine have its beginning. And so it has been through the ages…Those who love, remember…And send Valentines to express their love.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY to all in our parish family!

Dear Parishioners,

Your associate pastor, Fr. Grzegorz Wojcik, will soon be participating in the Catholic Leadership 360 Review process. This review process is part of the ordinary structure required by Archdiocesan Policy of every diocesan priest approximately every five years. It is an opportunity for Fr. Wojcik to recognize his talents and to grow to become a better priest and pastoral minister. Selected members of the parish staff and parish leadership, your Dean, and myself will be asked to be reviewers using this instrument.

According to Archdiocesan policies lay leadership and parishioners are to be given the opportunity to recognize Fr. Wojcik's gifts and to share their sentiments about his ministry. So, we are providing a parish-wide survey as part of his review process. The survey can be easily accessed by going to the Archdiocese's web page (https://www.archchicago.org/) and clicking on Offices and Ministries on the top panel. This will bring you to an alphabetical listing of offices. Under 'M', select Ministerial Evaluation. You will then be directed to the Ministerial Evaluation webpage. In the middle of the page, you will find "360 Catholic Leadership review for priests". The survey is available in English, Spanish, and Polish. Please click on the word 'Link' next to your appropriate language to access the survey.

If you have any concerns or comments pertaining to Father's review, feel free to contact me directly. If you have any further questions or suggestions about the review process you may contact Fr. Bob Heidenreich, Coordinator of Ministerial Review and Priests Programs, by email (rheidenreich@archchicago.org) or by phone at the Priests Placement Office (312-534-5237).

When the Catholic Leadership 360 Review process has been completed Fr. Wojcik will be asked to share the insights he has received and his further developmental plans with you in the parish bulletin and on the parish web site.

Thank you in advance for your willingness to participate and provide constructive information.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Mark A. Bartosic

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS
AFTER THE 9:30 AM MASS

GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, Whom shall I send? Who will go for us? Isaiah answered, Here I am, send me.

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger? Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the act of giving from our abundance, and attending to the needs of the poor, opens us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

Do not fail in love

Let us see that whenever we have failed to be loving, we have also failed to be wise; that whenever we have been blind to our neighbors' interests, we have also been blind to our own; whenever we have hurt others, we have hurt ourselves still more. Let us ask forgiveness of God for all acts of malice and uncharitableness, blindness and hardness of heart; and pray for the spirit of true charity, which alone is true wisdom. And let us come to Holy Communion in charity with each other and with all; determined henceforth to feel for each other, and with each other; to put ourselves in our neighbors' places; to see with their eyes, and to feel with their hearts, so far as God shall give us that great grace; determined to make allowances for their mistakes and failings; to give and forgive, even as God gives and forgives, for ever; that so we may be indeed the children of our Father in heaven, whose name is Love.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
