From the Pastor's Desk…

Today we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Lent. As we find ourselves much closer to Holy Week and Easter I'd like to remind all in our community that our Parish Communal Lenten Reconciliation Service with individual confessions will take place here at St. Eugene on Monday, April 15th, at 7:00 p.m. There will also be an opportunity for individual confessions on Wednesday, April 10th at 1:00 p.m. This afternoon hour is provided for those of our senior population who do not like driving or going out at night. Hopefully, this 1:00 p.m. time better enables our seniors to avail themselves of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I invite you to join us in receiving the healing power of Jesus and the gift of God's grace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please plan on joining us on April 10th or 15th as you make your personal preparations for Holy Week and Easter.

The Vocation Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago is happy to introduce new events geared toward the youth of our parishes to hopefully promote discipleship, help deepen our young people's Catholic identity and create a deeper relationship with Christ. As a parent, I would think this would be something that would be desirable and you would want for your children. The goal of this office is to meet our youth where they are at and to bring Jesus to them. The following are a few activities that are available to help accomplish this goal:

Catholic Sports Camps. These are faith-filled experiences where leaders are built, sports are played, and faith is strengthened. The mission of the camps is to teach boys and girls sports through leadership along with the teachings of the Catholic Church. They are hosting a Basketball Camp from July 21-24 at Guerin Prep High School in River Grove and a Distance Running/Cross Country Camp from August 4-7 at Mt. Carmel High School in Chicago.

Quo Vadis Days. This is a 4-day/3-night camp for young Catholic men to have the opportunity to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God's call in their lives. Quo Vadis Days is from July 28-31 at Loyola Retreat and Ecology Center in Woodstock.

Totus Tuus. This is a very popular program serving the youth and parishes of our Archdiocese for the thirteenth year. For the first time, it will expand from 24 to 30 parishes. Totus Tuus seeks to foster openness to the sacrifices and blessings of the various Christian vocations through evangelization and catechesis. It will run from June 8-July 26. In addition, this program offers an opportunity for young adult leaders to participate in an intensive training to be missionaries and serve a different parish each week.
More information and registration for these events can be found at chicagopriest.com/events or by calling 312-534-8292. I have also put brochures about these opportunities in the racks located in the vestibule of church.

You don't want to miss the last Knights of Columbus Fish-Fry coming up on Friday, April 12th starting at 5:00 pm in the Shaunessy Center. If you've never been to one of our fish-fries, I really encourage you to check it out. Not only is there a large variety of menu items and sides to choose from but it's also a great place to meet and socialize with fellow and neighboring parishioners. Hope to see you there this Friday night.

GODS ACTIONS NOW

When Jews celebrate the Passover, they always tell the story of the Exodus in present terms, as if they themselves experienced those events: when we were prisoners in Egypt; when God brought us out of slavery and through the waters of the sea. We would do well to follow their example and see the works of Jesus and his sacrifice as being in the present, as happening to us now. We believe that Christ's work, his teachings, and his sacrifice on the cross were not just for his followers in the past, but for all people at all times. When we think of this in our prayers, we become one in faith with that great cloud of witnesses, the saints.

We have been striving through Lent to repent of our sins and failings, and to follow Jesus more closely. Today in the story of the woman caught in adultery, we see Jesus forgiving the woman, saving her from a horrible death, and urging her not to sin any more. This is new, and brings out something for which the law had not allowed--forgiveness. Of course one can sin no more if one is dead, caught in one's sins forever. But Jesus introduces the concepts of forgiveness and reconciliation.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY
Thursday, April 11 - 7:00 pm
Shaunessy Center Meeting Room

This is our regular monthly meeting. We ask all members to be present. We are always looking for new members - wouldn't you like to join us?

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Next weekend, many churches provide palms to be carried in the opening moments of the liturgy, as we gratefully recall Jesus' entry into the holy city of Jerusalem. The children who greeted him on that day used what was both handy and traditional, since palms were carried to inaugurate the joyful harvest feast of Succoth. To this day, faithful Jews are directed to take a beautiful palm branch, green and straight as possible, called a lulav, and bind it with three myrtle branches fifteen inches long, and two longer willow branches. At the end of the temple service, everyone carries the lulav, circling the sanctuary in a dance called the Hoshanot, singing hymns of joy.

In other climates, Jews and Christians alike have had to make accommodations over the years. In Italy, everyone carries olive branches today, often brought from their own garden. In England, forsythia branches are preferred, a relative of the olive, sign of peace. Germans prefer pussywillows, and others look for flowering spring branches. In our part of the world, what do you think would be the best choice to express joy and welcome, and to remind us of the joy of Christ's victory even as we prepare to commemorate his passion?

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Next Sunday, and on the second Sunday of each month, St. Eugene Parish offers a blessing for expectant mothers, fathers and their unborn children following the 9:30 a.m. Mass. The blessing is given to strengthen mothers and fathers during the time of waiting, and to pray for the health and safe delivery of their child. This blessing may be received monthly throughout the pregnancy.

ABORTION HEALING; PRO-LIFE INVOLVEMENT

If you or anyone you know have been involved in abortion — moms, dads, grandparents, friends, and abortion workers and are seeking healing, one great healing resource you can go to is AbortionForgiveness.com.

On that site, one need only enter a zip code and healing resources in that area will display on the screen. This is coordinated through our Silent No More and Rachel's Vineyard worldwide ministries.

If you would like to get involved in the pro-life movement, you can find ways to do that at 10StepsToEndAbortion.com, or by joining our Respect Life Committee.

At the time of a family member's death, if you would like memorials to be made to St. Eugene Parish, please instruct the Funeral Home to use the following in the death notice:
"In lieu of flowers, a memorial may be made to St. Eugene Parish, Foster Avenue, Chicago."
Envelopes can be provided by the Funeral Home.

I am proud of the fact that I never invented weapons to kill.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!
CALL BY 5/31 TO RECEIVE 75% OFF LABOR
After 5/31/19 customer will be eligible for 50% off labor. Does not include cost of material. Offer expires 9/30/19.
Receive a $50 Restaurant.com Gift Card with FREE in-home estimate!
All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $50 gift certificate. Visit https://www.restaurant.com/about/terms for complete terms and conditions and https://www.restaurant.com for participating restaurants. Retail value is $50. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID, be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail within 10 days of receipt of the promotion form. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Expires 9/30/19.
• LeafGuard® is guaranteed never to clog or we'll clean it for FREE*
• Seamless, one-piece system keeps out leaves, pine needles, and debris
