From the Pastor's Desk…

Happy Easter to all in our parish family. I would like to offer a special welcome to all of your relatives and friends and to all of our visitors. I can honestly tell you that there is no greater feeling inside than when I see our church filled with young and old alike, worshipping side by side on this day that truly celebrates the miraculous event of Christ's resurrection. This truly is a sign of God's ultimate love for His Son and for you and me, as well. This is what is at the heart and core of our belief as Catholics and Christians. Today, we are reminded that not even death can ultimately separate us from the love of our God and each other. What a glorious reality!

After a seemingly long Lenten season, and with a real glimpse of spring in the air, somehow Easter has a way of reassuring us that no matter how difficult life may seem at times, there is reason to believe things do change and they can and will get better.

I personally find comfort these days when I reflect upon what Jesus' friends and disciples must have felt after witnessing the trial, suffering, pain and crucifixion of Jesus, only to find, after coming to His tomb, that He was not there. At first, they must have been confused and perhaps even upset that someone may have taken His body. Remember though, Jesus had prepared them for these events so many times and in so many ways, but because of their state of mind, they were unable (at least for the moment) to put it all together. Even the last line of the gospel today tells us that…"they did not yet understand the scripture that He had to rise from the dead".

Despite this confusion, I can't help but believe that in the back of their minds, there was some glimmer of HOPE, that just maybe, their friend had risen just as He told them He would. Of course, we all know the rest of the story. If it isn't really clear to you, continue to join us throughout the rest of the Easter season and beyond and you will hear this GOOD NEWS unfold.

The comfort I spoke of earlier, that I find in the events that led up to and followed Jesus' death and resurrection is in this: each of us can relate to pain, anxiety, anguish and suffering in our lives. Whether we experience the loss of a job, the news of a life-threatening illness of a loved one, being the victim of racism or bigotry, worry about your teenage son or daughter and the crowd they're hanging with, alienation by your family, etc., the list goes on and on. In all of these life experiences, without the HOPE that they are not ends in themselves, we can get stuck, feel trapped in a seemingly bottomless pit with no way out. It is the victory over these realities that Jesus won for us. His resurrection is a real reminder to us that these little deaths and even our ultimate earthly death, are not ends in themselves, but opportunities for new beginnings. This is hard to accept, though, when you are in the midst of situations and circumstances that seem to be so painful and with no way out of them.

Look at Christ's disciples, though. It took them months and I'm sure, for some of them, even years to put Jesus' words and final days into perspective — enough at least to bring some sense of comfort and HOPE to continue living in spite of their personal losses and pain — enough to continue on the journey of life with all of its twists and bends.

This is what Easter is all about – FAITH, HOPE and LOVE -- Faith to trust that somehow God has a plan for us much like He had for His own beloved Son. Hope that despite the challenges and obstacles life puts before us, God walks with us to embrace them and overcome them. And Love that the depth of love Jesus had for us, to ultimately give His life for the salvation of all, is still ours today.

From all of the priests and staff here at St. Eugene, may you have a happy, blessed and Christ-centered Easter season.

Fr. Rich

THIS WEEKEND

Today, Easter Sunday, April 21

Masses: 7:00 am, 8:30 am, 10:00 am, & 12:00 noon
(There is no 4:30 pm Mass on Easter Sunday.)

The rectory office is closed.
It will re-open Monday at 9:00 am.

HAPPY EASTER!

Happy Easter! Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch--Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus's Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, Here comes everybody! So in this Jubilee of Mercy, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb! Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody!

We show this "veneration"
by going to visit Christ in the tabernacle.
He dwells there,
really present,
he who was present in the crib,
at Nazareth,
upon the mountains of Judea,
in the supper-room, upon the cross."

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING
Tuesday, April 23 - 7:00 pm
School Room 110

There will be an Open Forum beginning at 7:00 pm and will last one-half hour. Parishioners are welcome to attend the Open Forum.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the centuries, the Church has demonstrated a wonderful ability to adopt a culture's favorite symbols and customs and assign them new meaning. Easter eggs have a very ancient pedigree: nature's perfect package, emblem of new life, dyed and decorated and given as gifts in ancient Egypt, Rome, China, and Persia. Just as the long hard winter is over, the egg bursts with promise of life and nourishment. Long ago, Christians came to see the egg not as a symbol of spring's rebirth, but of ours, and as a sign of Christ's tomb. A Polish legend says that Mary, in compassion for the soldiers at the cross, gave them eggs, but that her tears stained their shells with brilliant color. Legends have their origin in tales told around a hearth, but they often contain a profound truth. The idea of Mary, the first Christian, engaged in a merciful act of forgiveness and tenderness even in the shadow of the cross, describes the age-old wish that Christ "Easter in us."

SUPER ALUMNI DAYS XXVII

The Shaunessy Center was rocking on Alumni Weekend as eight basketball games and eight volleyball matches took place. Many present and former coaches, 135 alumni and 21 seventh & eighth graders competed athletically. On Friday night, February 22, the Alumni Bash was held at the Curragh Irish Pub in Edison Park. Everybody who attended had a great time in the beautiful private room on the second floor. On Sunday morning, February 24, the Alumni Mass was celebrated by Father John. At the conclusion of Mass, we were treated with a sensational presentation by the guest speaker, Mr. Robert Fulton (2005). Finally, Erin Dillon (2015) and Marco Troiano (2015) respectively received the 2019 Dr. Patricia Brown and Father James O'Brien Scholarships, while Mr. Hank Godziszewski was the worthy recipient of the "Rev. George Koeune Alumni Spirit Award."

I extend my most sincere gratitude to our Athletic Director, Ms. Patty Samborski, for her personal assistance and coordinating another outstanding hospitality table. Many thanks go out to all of the volunteers that donated their time by helping at the Shaunessy Center and (or) the Mass and to everybody that competed or participated in any segment of the festivities. Once again, I extend my very heartfelt gratitude to Mr. John McCabe for providing us with hundreds of beautiful photographs that greatly enhanced the weekend.

From the bottom of my heart I would like to thank the following people for their very generous monetary contributions to St. Eugene School.
The Curragh Irish Pub, Eric Gubatan, Jim & Erica Dillon, Kevin Kubica, Jr., Matt Kusek, Thomas Cascino, Marne Riordan, Thomas Jaconetty, Chicagoland CPAs, Ted Bieniek, Vic Guerrieri, Jr., Vincent Dorsey, Bob & Theresa Moore, Joe & Kelly Natale, Caitlin Bradwell, Joey Godziszewski, Ken Busse, Kaitlyn Guerrieri, Joseph Carrozza, Louis Carrozza, Frank Romeo, Frank Fazio III, Rocco Rubino, Nicole Mikulski, Nancy Aiello, Christi Pizarek, Al Pinter, Samantha Alaimo, Eric Hennessey, Laura Guerrieri, Nicholas Kuta and Marco & Ana Modica

Once again, Alumni Weekend provided hundreds of people with an opportunity to have fun, renew friendships, catch up on current events and relive 'the good old days'. Your support of this wonderful tradition for the past 27 years has created a multitude of memories and treasured moments in time! It's been a great run that has enhanced my life tremendously and will remain in my heart forever!

God bless you and your family,
Frank Adamo

February 23 & 24, 2019

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform
for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of
Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
