From the Pastor's Desk…

Hopefully everyone read the letter in June 16th's Bulletin from Bishop Mark Bartosic and Bishop John Manz with regard to the Renew My Church final grouping for the parishes in our area. If you had not read their letter, it stated that our parish of St. Eugene would be grouped with three other parishes around us, namely, St. Monica, Divine Savior and Our Lady Mother of the Church. The hope of this "grouping" is that all of our parishes, by working more closely together, will determine opportunities for us to collaborate with each other to help us build a brighter future "together".

After reviewing the parishes in our area, the Archdiocese felt that among our new grouping, there has been, over the years, a cross-over among parishioners and school families. They had determined that a considerable number of families at St. Eugene School live very near Our Lady Mother of the Church and that from the Renew My Church survey done in 2016, many people from our parishes sometimes attend Mass at the other parishes in our new grouping as opposed to the parishes in our old grouping.

As we begin to look more closely at the Renew My Church process, I would imagine there might be some that might not be in favor of what we will be looking to accomplish. There might even be some who are skeptical at how to all of this is going to work. Fr. Rich LoBianco, pastor of Divine Savior Parish, in his bulletin column of June 16th, wrote something that I thought was so poignant and true and offered much wisdom with regard to what lies in the future for our parishes. He said, "Everyone is talking about the sacrifices involved with the Renew My Church initiative, but a large piece of the conversation is missing. We need to focus as well on the opportunities it will afford us. If we are honest, we have to admit that our parish is missing some real tangibles to be a truly vibrant and vital place of worship, spirituality, and mission. The first is a multi-generational community of believers: young families, teens, and young adult singles together with the rest of our population. The second is the engagement of the majority of our members in ministries and service to one another. Our neighborhood is filled with children, young families, and young adults. Renew My Church will give parish staffs and leaders the tools, formation, and training to engage the surrounding community and grow our members and their engagement in parish life. This will serve to bring wonderful possibilities, new life and energy to our parish mission."

Though he wrote and shared this message to his community of Divine Savior, I believe and feel it also applies to all of our parishes and is something for all of us to think about in the months and years ahead.

Though this new process is scheduled to "officially" begin in 2022, we have been encouraged to focus on building relationships and sharing some activities across our new grouping of parishes so that when we "officially" begin, we will know each other better as we enter the formal RMC process.

For this reason, I have already begun encouraging our Knights of Columbus leadership to begin the process of trying to get to know and work with the Knights of Columbus from Our Lady Mother of the Church and Divine Savior. I have asked our RCIA Director, Angie Cisek, to talk to the RCIA Directors in the three other parishes of our new grouping to see if there can be greater collaboration between our four parishes, as we begin our RCIA Programs this fall. I've asked Lois Feist, our Altar and Rosary President, to see if there are any women's groups that are in existence in our new grouping of parishes and to find out if they can begin to form perhaps a larger and stronger organization of the women from our neighboring parishes. I would also hope that our parishes can now begin to work together rather than individually in planning, for example, a communal Parish Mission, or a communal Divine Mercy Sunday, or even a communal Corpus Christi procession among so many other areas where we can collaborate together. The possibilities are endless.
There will obviously be much more information to follow on this initiative, but the bottom line is that our future will look so much brighter as we grow together rather than as individual parishes.

Next Weekend, we will have the Annual Propagation of the Faith Summer Missionary Appeal. Our speaker will be Fr. Jack Conley, CP. The Mission cause that you will be asked to support will be for the work and ministry of the Passionist Community. Fr. Jack wrote to tell me that he is so pleased and privileged to be able to offer his appeal here, at St. Eugene, because he grew up not far from us at Immaculate Conception Parish on Talcott Ave. He also informed me that his mother taught third grade here in our school for a short time. So, I encourage all in our parish to offer Fr. Jack Conley a warm St. Eugene welcome next weekend.

The 2nd Collection next weekend will be taken up, then, for the Annual Summer Mission Appeal that will support the dedicated ministry of the Passionist Community of the Holy Cross Province. Please be generous.

Fr. Rich

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does. Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us "as a mother comforts her child." The prophet describes us not as the usual "children of God," but as "babies." We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother. Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can "make troubles" for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY FOR MASS

As warm weather is here, we would like to remind everyone that Sunday Mass is the most important and solemn event of the week. It is not an "informal occasion." As a consequence, the appropriate attire for Mass should be characterized by modesty, dignity, and elegance. Clothing suitable for a picnic, or for the beach, can indicate a lack of respect for the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Next Sunday, and on the second Sunday of each month, St. Eugene Parish offers a blessing for expectant mothers, fathers and their unborn children following the 9:30 a.m. Mass. The blessing is given to strengthen mothers and fathers during the time of waiting, and to pray for the health and safe delivery of their child. This blessing may be received monthly throughout the pregnancy.

The Pro-Life Action League invites you to join the upcoming Face the Truth Tour, an annual pro-life public education initiative that reaches tens of thousands of people with the reality of abortion.

From July 12-20, pro-life volunteers will hold signs at major intersection across Chicagoland, depicting the beauty of life in the womb as well as the horrible injustice done to the unborn victims of abortion.

The Face the Truth Tour changes hearts and minds, guides post-abortive women and men to healing and peace and saves babies from abortion. For more information on this powerful pro-life campaign, including the complete Tour schedule, visit ProLifeAction.org or call 773/777-2900

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

A REMINDER

To make sure a Mass Intention is included in the bulletin, it must be made 2 weeks in advance. To make sure a Mass Intention is read at Mass, it must be made at least 1 week in advance of the date requested.

How many times, in prayer, do we limit ourselves to asking for gifts and listing requests, forgetting that the first thing we should do is praise God's name, adore Him, and then go on to acknowledge His living image in our brothers and sisters.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship. For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life.

A lighted world costs more

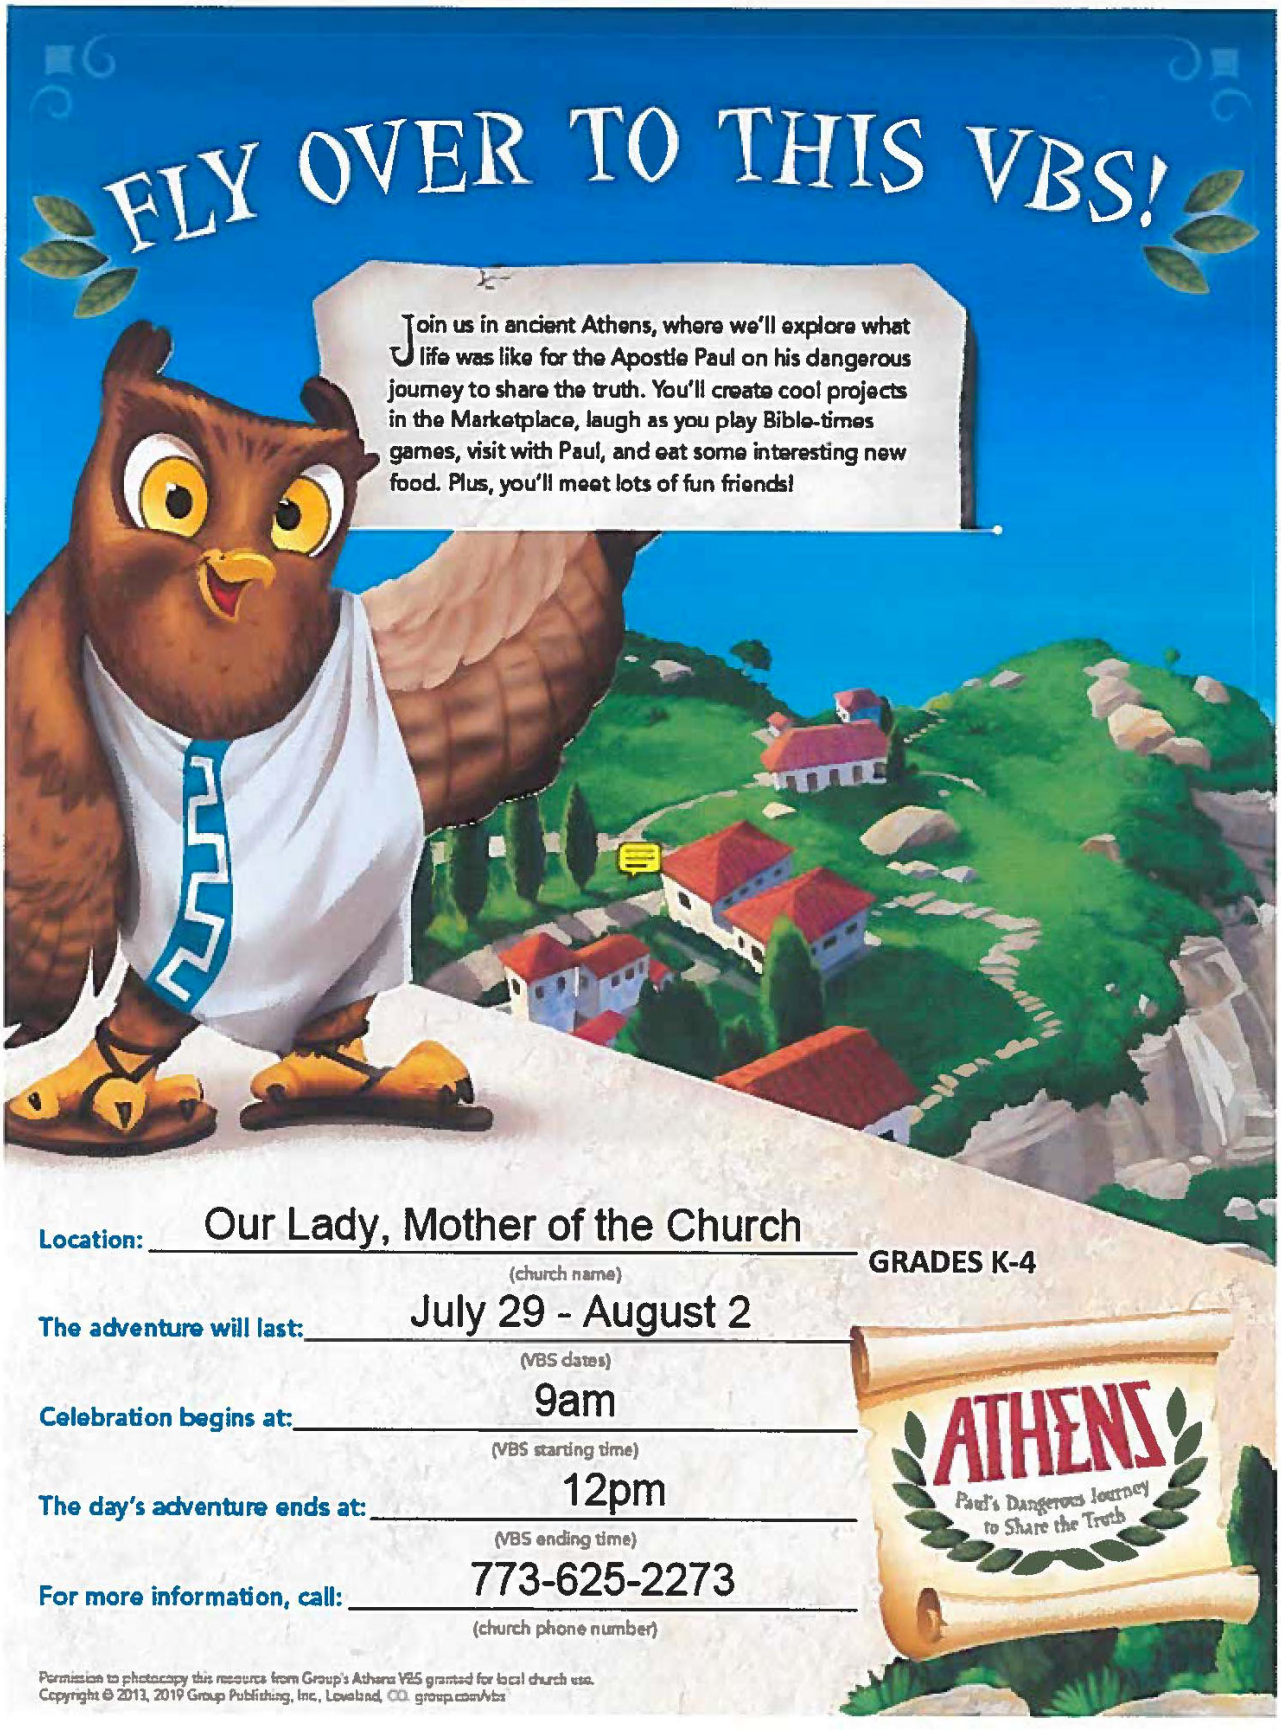

A woman missionary preparing to return to the field wanted to buy a globe of the world. The one she liked best had a light in it. "A "Yes," said the veteran servant of the Lord who had suffered untold hardships as she bore her light in a difficult place. "I know it does." It costs something to be a Christian. And as we try to spread the light of Christ throughout the world many of us will pay a high price. Christ, however, promises us that whatever we do for Him and the Kingdom will be worth the cost. What world are you paying for today?

Love in Action

"Too many people sit in front of warm hearths and full tables, asking God to teach them to love their neighbor. It takes no teaching to carry food to the needy or give shelter to the homeless. Do not sit and ask to be given love, get out and act love first and you will be given all you need."

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
