From the Pastor's Desk…

It goes without saying that praying together as a family and going to church together are the best ways of teaching children about what we believe, and the importance of giving God at least that one hour a week when we gather for the Eucharist on Saturday or Sunday. If a parent, or parents, make it a priority in their lives to pray regularly and worship weekly, their children will quickly perceive its value. And ironically, whether your children and/or teens enjoy going to church or not, they will come secondarily to the fact that they observe mom and/or dad modeling prayer and worship as a priority in their lives. This regular attendance and participation at Mass is crucial and necessary for us all, but especially for children and teens, as it lays the foundation of an important life-long practice of keeping holy the Sabbath Day.

Our school faculty, religious education catechists and parish staff need the support and ongoing involvement of parents, if the faith we and you are teaching is to take root and make a difference in the lives of our youth. Our staff is keenly aware of this reality and is always looking for ways to address these issues and to support the crucial role of parents in helping them to share their faith with their children.

It is also important that in today's day and age we think of family not only as two parents and a child or children, but also as singles, single-parent families and empty nesters as well.

One of the many exciting things that has happened in our parish over the past year is the beginning of a new group called the Italian Catholic Federation (ICF). I am so proud of how this organization began here. It started with a conversation in my office with a request to consider the possibility of starting a new ICF group here at St. Eugene. It was felt that there might be a desire on the part of our parishioners to form such a group. To make a long story short, not only was there an openness but also a willingness on the part of its new membership to take on the positions of leadership and governance that would be required if it was to be successful.

Our new Italian Catholic Federation is now up and running. I am so happy to share with you that they are hosting their first community and parish-wide event in an effort to raise funds to begin their work and ministry here at St. Eugene. This will be their first annual Italian Night. It will be held in the Shaunessy Center on Saturday, November 16th at 6:30 p.m. You will be treated to a delicious Chicken Parmesan and Pasta dinner with salad and bread. There will also be dancing and a DJ. See the ad in today's bulletin for more information. So plan on coming to the Saturday evening Mass on Nov. 16th and head over afterwards for a fun and food-filled night in the Shaunessy Center. By coming and celebrating with us you'll be supporting the start of a new organization here at our parish and also having a great time.

In a little over three weeks our country will be celebrating the Thanksgiving holiday. Without a doubt, there is so much for all of us for which to be grateful. As a way of providing an opportunity for us to offer our thanks to God for the gifts he has bestowed upon us, we will be having a special Mass of Thanksgiving on Thanksgiving Day, November 28th, at 9:00 a.m. This will be the only Mass of the day. There will not be the usual 6:30 a.m. Mass on this day. I encourage everyone in our parish to make a sincere effort to join us for this parish Mass. What better way to start the day off? So pop the turkey in the oven and join us around the Lord's Table here at St. Eugene on Thursday, November 28th. We look forward to celebrating this festive liturgy with you all.

Some of the truly beautiful experiences I have had over the years has been when the parish community gathers together at one Mass to celebrate special civic or national holidays. The days that I am referring to are: Thanksgiving, Memorial Day, the 4th of July, and Labor Day. These are days when our parish community should come together around the Lord's Table to celebrate in common what they signify. The liturgies on these days will be accompanied with festive and joyful music as well. I hope you will make an effort to join us as we come together to give thanks to our God for all he has blessed us with. My hope is that these will be celebrations we will all look forward to being a part of as one community of faith.

Wishing you all a great week ahead!

Fr. Rich

DID YOU SET YOUR CLOCK BACK?

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God.

Prayer with Scripture

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every week, some treasures from our tradition are shared here. Where does all this history come from? The history of God's people of prayer is always coming to light, mostly because scholars have dedicated their lives to research. They translate and ponder prayers and songs; explore the places used for worship; look at the vessels, books, and vestments; and read works from legal documents to letters and diaries. In the 1930s, Hitler's rush to arm Germany closed seminaries as priests and seminarians alike were drafted into service.

One professor, Father Josef Jungman, forced from his classroom, spent the war years in an Austrian library. His careful work disclosed much of what we know of the history of the Mass. His great work, The Mass of the Roman Rite, describes the evolution of Eucharistic celebration and inspired generations of scholars to explore a tradition surprisingly rich and varied. It was said of him that he had a command of the past that cast new light on the present, and opened up a clear direction to the future. His contributions to the Second Vatican Council helped shape the way that we worship today. At the end of his life, in 1975, his studies completed, he told a friend that he was waiting patiently for the Lord's knock at the door to take him to the heavenly banquet. —James Field, Copyright © J. We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

LORD, HOLD OUR TROOPS IN YOUR LOVING HANDS.
PROTECT THEM AS THEY PROTECT US.
BLESS THEM AND THEIR FAMILIES
FOR THE SELFLESS ACTS THEY PERFORM
FOR US IN OUR TIME OF NEED.
WE ASK THIS IN THE NAME OF
JESUS OUR LORD AND SAVIOR. AMEN

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
