From the Pastor's Desk…

As we begin the 2nd week of Lent, today's Gospel brings us to a high mountain where Jesus took his disciples Peter, James and John. Here he was transfigured before them. What an awesome experience this must have been for each of them. Peter especially, is so taken in by the experience, that in his excitement he decides to build three tents; one for Jesus and one each for Moses and Elijah who appeared with the Lord and were conversing with him. There must have been a reason why Jesus chose to have only these three disciples present for this revelation. Whatever reason that may have been, it was clear that they were not ready to hear, nor were they able to fully comprehend, the magnitude of the message of God's voice that came from the clouds proclaiming Jesus as God's beloved Son.

In the chapter that precedes this one, Jesus shares with his disciples the prediction of his suffering and death. Once again, it is clear that Peter does not yet understand what Jesus' role and mission is as the Messiah. This is made clear when Peter pulls Jesus aside and rebukes him saying, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing will ever happen to you."

Reflecting upon this inability of Peter, and often times the other disciples, to comprehend the mission of Christ, I am reminded of how much we are like the disciples of Jesus. Think of the many examples and signs we are given of God's presence among us and yet we so often lack the faith to accept them for what they are.

Perhaps this week's prayer for all of us might be to reflect upon the many ways God is trying to make His presence known to us through our neighbor, stranger, nature, workplace, estranged family member, church, sacraments, etc. We might even take our prayer a step further and ask the next question: What is He trying to say to us?

We are so blessed to have residing in the Convent of our parish campus the Verbum Dei Sisters. I'm not so sure that everyone in our community is aware of the ministry and vocation of Sr. Ann Marie, Sr. Kasia and Sr. Milagros or the particular charism that is theirs. Over the past year we have been in conversation with each other and have been looking for ways in which the sisters could take a more active role in parish life here at St. Eugene. I am so grateful for their presence among us and very much open to their willingness to get more involved in our community. For this reason, next weekend at all of our Masses we will have the opportunity to hear in greater detail more about the ministry of the Verbum Dei Community. We will also hear about the ministry our sisters are currently involved in and what they are hoping to be able to offer to our St. Eugene Community as we look toward the future.

Just a reminder that our combined Parish Mission begins tonight, Sunday, March 8th, at 7:00 p.m. at Our Lady Mother of the Church. This year the Parish Mission presenter is: Friar Johnpaul Cafiero, OFM. and he will be focusing on: "Being Instruments of Peace – Reflections on the Peace Prayer of St. Francis". Again, It will be held at Our Lady Mother of the Church Parish on Lawrence Avenue in Chicago and will begin on Sunday night, March 8th at 7:00 p.m. and continue on Monday, March 9th and Tuesday, March 10th at the same time. Sunday's presentation will focus on "The Beatitudes", Monday's focus will be: "The Trinity" and on Tuesday it will be: "Love of Enemies" You won't want to miss it.

All in our parish are invited to join us in church for an evening Mass as we honor St. Joseph on his feast day, Thursday, March 19th at 7:00 p.m. This Mass is being offered for all those who have generously donated their time and services and are involved with the preparation of our beautiful St. Joseph's Table that will be held on Saturday, March 21st from 3:30 until 7:00 p.m. in the Shaunessy Center. You don't want to miss this opportunity to experience our community coming together for a special cause that also includes a most delicious meal.

Our Parish Communal Lenten Reconciliation Service with individual confessions will take place here at St. Eugene on Tuesday, March 31st, at 7:00 p.m. Confessions will be heard in English and Polish. I invite you to join us in receiving the healing power of Jesus and the gift of God's grace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please plan on joining your parish community on Tuesday, March 31st as you make your personal preparations for Holy Week and Easter. No confessions will be heard on Holy Saturday, April 20th.

****

Have a great week ahead everyone… and don't forget that this Friday, March 13th will be our second Knights of Columbus Fish Fry in the Shaunessy Center beginning at 5:00 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. This is a real Lenten treat that you won't want to miss out on. Bring the entire family.

CHANGE

Lent is all about change and change is usually not easy. In order to change we have to leave something behind. Today we hear about a very old man who decides to answer God's call. Abram experiences a tremendous amount of change when he leaves everything behind, risking it all for God's promise. Jesus changes, is transfigured, right before the eyes of his disciples. The Lenten scriptures issue the call for us to change, to be transfigured, so that we, too, will soon share in the glory of God. What is it that the Lord is asking us to leave behind? Are we willing to take the risk for the promise made by God? These questions are at the heart of the Lenten journey of conversion. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

We invite you to an encounter of prayer where you can stop from the hurry of the moment and listen to God through God's Word, in silence, meditation, adoration and contemplation. In this short but intense time, we listen to a talk that introduces us into the understanding of the Word of God, which later, we reflect on and meditate in an attitude of faith, discovering what God is trying to reveal to us. The prayer is accompanied by the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with songs to help the faithful enter more into prayer.

The Illinois primary election is just around the corner!

It's our civic and our moral duty to carefully and prayerfully choose the local, state, and national leaders of our country.

So, to help you get prepared for voting day on March 17th, you can go to www.VoteProLifeIllinois.com right now to download and print a pro-life voter guide.

The people we place in power literally make life or death decisions.

In order to assemble this guide, all state and federal candidates were invited to share their stance on prolife issues by answering a series of questions in a comprehensive survey. It's our belief that through this rating system, we have effectively assessed exactly how pro-life each individual candidate is.

We hope that this guide empowers you to choose candidates whose values align with your own!

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
