From the Pastor's Desk…

Today we celebrate the 5th Sunday of Lent. How different our lives and routines have become as the result of the Coronavirus reality we are having to respond to as well as Governor Pritzker's decision to have us all stay at home and away from one another. This week's gospel begins with the story of Lazarus' illness, followed by his death and culminating with his being brought back to life and all the human emotions that come with these realities. This gospel story could not be more appropriate given the reality we are presently facing as we attempt to ward off the effects that this virus has been having on so many people's lives in our world. When this is all over and behind us we too will, in a way, experience a sort of resurrection and newness of life. Something that I know we are all looking forward to.

My brother priests and I have been praying for all in our parish and the world's population that are weathering the storm of this pandemic. As we are celebrating Mass daily to remember the mass intentions that our parish members have requested know that this, too, shall pass and our lives will eventually get back to some level of normalcy.

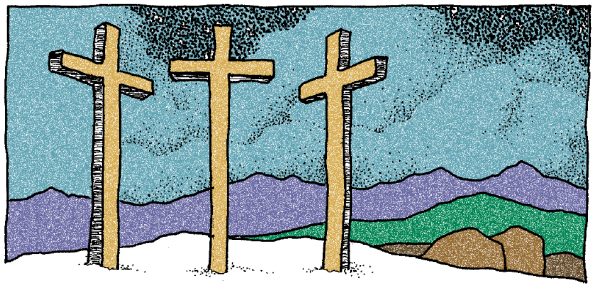

With our church, school and rectory facilities closed for at least a couple more weeks, I realize it is difficult to communicate with our community through our parish bulletin. I am presuming if you are reading this bulletin article you have found it online at our parish website and that's great. Know that you can also find out the latest updates on either our parish website at www.st-eugene.org or on our parish Facebook page.

Hopefully by now you are sadly already aware that this social distancing protocol we are required to follow will prevent us from celebrating our parish Reconciliation Service, Holy Week and Easter Services and Masses as a parish community this year. I know that this is really hard for all of us to have to embrace, but there is nothing we can do about it except to make the best of this reality. You can, however, attend daily and weekly Mass by the Archdiocese of Chicago's YouTube Channel or Mercy Home of Chicago at: https://www.mercyhome.org/sunday-mass/. I also am told that Mass will be celebrated from Holy Name Cathedral on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. on Channel 7.

While it seems incongruent to be asking for your continued financial support of our Church and School, the reality is that we must continue to meet our operating expenses and pay our bills during this unprecedented time. We ask that you please continue to send in your weekly Church support by either mailing your contribution to the rectory, dropping it off in the rectory mail slot, or by signing up for electronic giving at https://www.givecentral.org/ . After going to their website, simply click "Find Your Charity" at the top right of the screen. Then, type in "St. Eugene Parish" in the fill-in box in the middle of the screen. Finally, select the picture of our Church and follow the subsequent steps. Thank you so much for your conscientiousness in helping our parish fulfill our financial obligations.

What a wonderful celebration it will be when we are able to come together again as a community of faith. Stay healthy, everyone!!

Fr. Rich

GIVE GLORY TO GOD

On the Fifth Sunday of Lent, just before we begin to enter Holy Week, we are summoned to Bethany. If we had been friends of Mary, Lazarus, and Martha, and found out that Lazarus was gravely ill, we probably would have dropped everything to be with them. This was what was so surprising about the behavior of Jesus. Although he was their close friend, he chose to stay away, that God's glory would be manifested. This is a persistent theme in John's Gospel. Right to the very end, Jesus' works were meant to give glory to the Father. As our Lenten journey reaches a crescendo, let us be mindful that, as people who have "put on Christ" in baptism, we are also called, by our attitudes and actions, to give glory to God. MARCH FOOD DRIVE

CANCELLED

THANK YOU AGAIN to those of you who contributed food and monetary donations to our Food Drive in February. Your generous donations put food on many tables and provide aid to the poor in other ways. There are so many in need.

Online Giving with give central

It's easy to participate in online giving!

GiveCentral was created with input from parishes as a customized online giving program.

GiveCentral is a secure online system where parishioners can create individual giving profiles with payment options ranging from direct debit (ACH) to credit cards.

Benefits for YOU

- Increased options and accessibility for giving
- Review your giving history in real time 24/7
- Keeps your gifts secure
- Giving summary saves time at tax season

Benefits for St. Eugene

- Saves money on envelopes and postage
- Helps predict cash flow for budgeting
- Cost-effective solution for online payments
- Better collection of payment history for tax purposes

Here's how to get setup:

1. Visit www.St-Eugene.org and click the 'GiveCentral' button at the top left. This will take you to our GiveCentral page.
2. Either select from one of the featured collections on our page, or click 'View More' to see all of our collections.
3. Select the fund(s) to which you would like to donate, and then specify the amount, frequency, start date, and end date.
4. Click 'Add to my Gift Basket'.
5. Review your donations in the Gift Basket, and then click 'Continue'.
6. Select the 'Complete Profile' option to setup an account, and fill out the form to complete your donations.

SAINT POLYCARP (died 155)
February 23

"Eighty-six years I have served Christ, and he never did me any wrong. How can I blaspheme my King and Savior?" Boldly answering the official who demanded he worship pagan gods, Polycarp, today's "Senior Citizen Saint," demonstrates that courage, far from being the preserve of the young, is a virtue cultivated through lifelong fidelity and crowned by final perseverance. A disciple of Saint John, who is said to have consecrated him bishop of Smyrna in modern-day Turkey, Polycarp witnesses to the truth that, whatever time and space may separate us, Jesus' gift of the Eucharist unites us. Polycarp's final words, preserved by the Church of Smyrna, sound like a Eucharistic Prayer in which the saint offers himself: "Lord, almighty God, Father of your beloved and blessed Son Jesus Christ, through whom we have come to the knowledge of yourself . . . may I be received among the martyrs as a rich and pleasing sacrifice . . . through the eternal priest of heaven, Jesus Christ . . . through him be glory to you, together with him and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen."

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

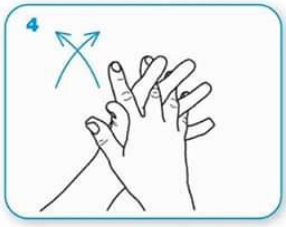

Thy Kingdom come.
Thy Will be done,
on earth as it is in Heaven.

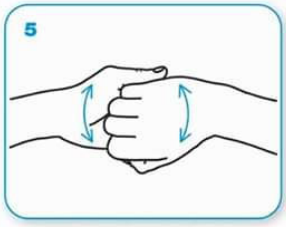

Give us this day our daily bread.

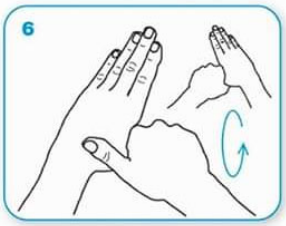

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us
from evil. Amen.

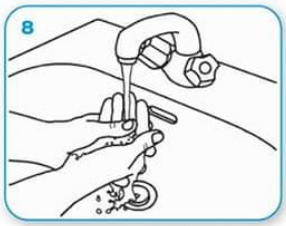

Hail Mary, Full of Grace,
The Lord is with thee.

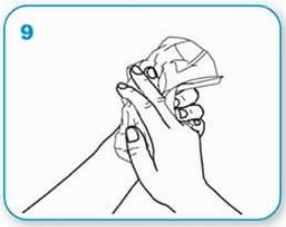

Blessed art thou among women,

Fifth Sunday of Lent

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, we know more about the beginnings of Lent than our ancestors did. We know that Lent is first of all about baptism, and secondly that it is about the desire of all the baptized to renew the power and potential of that sacrament at Easter. For centuries, this deep truth was largely obscured, but today documents have come to light to reshape the Church's thinking and practice.

One source, discovered in the 1880s, is the pilgrim diary of a Spanish nun, Egeria, writing her sisters a detailed travelogue of a fourth-century sojourn in Jerusalem during Holy Week. She describes in vivid detail her participation in liturgies that are close cousins of our own Holy Week prayer, from a festive procession with palms to a procession to the cross. Her greatest delight is in the huge number of elect: men, women, and children who experience a time of deep retreat and identification with Christ's cross, guided by the bishop and supported by their godparents' constant nurture. The discovery of Egeria's diary proved to be a moment of grace for the Church; after a long period of "ecclesial amnesia," we know at last that baptism is really the work of a whole community of faith, convened by God.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
