From the Pastor's Desk…

Wishing all in our parish a Happy Easter season! My hope is that we are all finding ways to creatively survive and manage this time in our lives that has been thrust upon us by the coronavirus reality. My prayers have been with you as well. Watching the news everyday has become something that I have now chosen to manage differently from when this crisis began. I've come to realize, at least for myself, that I was becoming overloaded, depressed and overwhelmed by the daily reports of how many more new cases of coronavirus have arisen in our city, state, country and world and sadly, how many more coronavirus related deaths have been reported. My heart, however, goes out to those who have lost loved ones as well as all those who are currently suffering mentally, emotionally and physically from this virus. Let's also not forget the doctors, nurses, firefighters, paramedics, police and all first responders, etc. who are daily putting themselves in harm's way to serve their fellow human beings. You're the best!

What brings me great comfort, joy and peace in the midst of this pandemic are all of the creative ways humanity is finding to come together and connect with each other. During this time of "stay-at-home" restrictions and "six-foot distancing" it is wonderful to see individuals and neighbors creatively finding more and more ways to affirm our innate need to be there for one another especially when the going gets tough. These are the stories on television that are now grabbing my attention. There is much to be said with regard to the creative desire of the human spirit. Hang in there St. Eugene family! We will get through this. Together we will hopefully be stronger because of what we are enduring and learning along the way.

I hope you are all aware by now that Easter Mass was celebrated here at St. Eugene for all in our parish. You can find this Mass on YouTube by going to our parish website at www.st-eugene.org . Simply click the link that can be found in my Easter message to our parish and it will take you to a video entitled "Easter Mass – April 12, 2020". Choose it and share in Easter Mass here at your parish. I am amazed that as of this writing over 470 people have tuned in.

Today is the Second Sunday of Easter also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. The Sunday after Easter was set aside by Saint Pope John Paul II as Divine Mercy Sunday in honor of Saint Faustina Kowalska, who was a young nun of the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Krakow, Poland. On February 22, 1931, our Lord was said to have appeared to this simple nun, bringing with him a message of Mercy for all humankind. For this reason, many pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy that utilizes the Rosary as the way of keeping this prayer. Here at St. Eugene the Divine Mercy Devotion will be celebrated and live-streamed beginning at 3:00 p.m., today (Sunday). Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the Divine Chaplet and Benediction will be celebrated. All are welcome to join us by going to our St. Eugene YouTube channel.

Sunday's Mass will also be live streamed at 10:00 a.m. You can go to our St. Eugene YouTube channel to participate and join us.

Mother's Day is only three weeks away. Here in our country we set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special women in each of our lives who, with our fathers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide loving homes that are much needed in today's society. We honor these women who have cared, nurtured, fed, and even sacrificed for us because of their deep maternal love for us.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your mom. If you might wish to have your mother remembered in a special way at all of our Mother's Day Masses, as well as having their name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your mother's names on the special Mother's Day envelope provided in your April/May packet of your Sunday offering envelopes including also your Mass offerings for this purpose. They can be placed in the collection basket (if we're back in church), dropped off or mailed to the parish office and their names will be added to the memorial page that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on our altar for an entire year. In addition, all our living and deceased mothers will be remembered at all of the Masses on Mother's Day.

**********

It's that time of year when most priests and deacons in the Archdiocese celebrate their ordination anniversaries. Our Ordination Day anniversary, like a wedding anniversary, is a significant reminder to us of the commitment we made to serve you, our parish families. I ask that you keep all of us in your prayers, as you always hold a special place in ours. For those of you who may wish to know these dates and the anniversary years being celebrated, they are:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| April 28 | Fr. Ed Pacocha | 58 years ordained |
| May 3 | Fr. Jim O'Brien | 60 years ordained |
| May 7 | Fr. Rich Yanos | 37 years ordained |
| May 17 | Fr. Greg Wojcik | 12 years ordained |

Peace and God's Blessings to you all,

Fr. Rich

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
