From the Pastor's Desk…

Today we celebrate the 4th Sunday of Easter. This past week we all received news that the stay-at-home order has been extended until May 30th and that our children would not be returning to complete the end of this school year. This was news none of us wanted to hear, yet for the health and well-being of us all we have no choice but to accept.

Had we been living in pre-coronavirus pandemic days this weekend we would be celebrating First Communions with the young boys and girls of our parish. Even though we may not be able to gather with each other to celebrate this very special moment as we have been accustomed, due to circumstances beyond our control, our congratulations still go out to you all. What wonderful days these have always been as we welcomed our youngest members to the Lord's Table for the first time! I want to assure you all that we will be celebrating First Communions when we are able to return to church again. When we do, celebrating this sacrament may be done a little differently than in the past but celebrate we will!

I often hear how children have a unique way of influencing their parents; this is always evident at this time of year, as many of our parents are brought back to the practice of their faith because of their children's reception of the sacraments. How powerful it is to hear a parent tell me that they've come back to Mass or Reconciliation because they've realized how important it is to model their faith now for their young son or daughter. How true this is!

If only each of us realized the impact this role of modeling our faith has on our children. When your children see that on Saturday or Sunday – no matter what – God comes first before any other activity, and you affirm this by giving priority to God and coming to church through your participation at Mass, there is no doubt that what you are teaching them will leave a deep impression and that they will take this example with them into their adulthood. This is truly when parents have fulfilled their promises that were made at their children's baptisms to raise them to the best of their ability in the ways of our faith. To you who are taking this commitment seriously, our deepest gratitude and support.

As parents and teachers are engaged in e-learning at this time I encourage you to also talk to your children about the significance and importance of their First Communion and why we go to church. Talk to your children about how special it is and what it means to receive the Body of Christ into their hearts even though this moment may be temporarily delayed.

I would also like to express a sincere "thank you" to Cathie Scotkovsky, our School Principal and Director of Religious Education, as well as all our dedicated Religious Education teachers/catechists. This has not been an ideal or easy situation that they, our children and their families are finding themselves in. Thank you for a job well done during all the challenges we are presently facing.

Next weekend we celebrate Mother's Day – a day when we in America remember and honor the special women who were instrumental in providing each of us with the life we enjoy, whether by birth, adoption or their "fostering" of us. We celebrate all those women who cared, nurtured, fed, loved and even sacrificed for us because of their deep maternal love for us. So don't forget to remember your moms next week whether they are still with you here on earth or waiting for us in heaven.

Here in our country we also set aside this special day to remember and celebrate these special women in each of our lives who, with our fathers, have been instrumental in not only bringing each of us into this world, but have also helped to provide loving homes that are much needed in today's society.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your mom. If you might wish to have your mother remembered in a special way at all of our Mother's Day Masses, as well as having their name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your mother's names on the special Mother's Day envelope provided in your May packet of your Sunday offering envelopes including also your Mass offerings for this purpose. They can be placed in the collection basket and their names will be added to the memorial page that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on the altar for an entire year.

Here in our archdiocese we will also be asked to participate in the annual Mother's Day Catholic Charities parish collection. This is one effort our parish always responds so generously to. The reason being…your support of this worthwhile endeavor feeds the hungry, houses the homeless, cares for children, strengthens families and helps to keep seniors independent. Your support of this collection gets transformed into the compassion that Catholic Charities has become known for that protects the poor and gives the precious gift of a fulfilling and dignified life to those less fortunate than we. Please be generous and remember that as you mail in or drop your offering off at the rectory, you become the only source of hope to those who seem to not matter in the eyes of so many in our world.

Wishing all in our parish peace, good health and strength today, and in the weeks ahead. We will get through this one day at a time. Hang in there!

Fr. Rich

JUST A REMINDER:

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY OF YOUR ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD
OUR PASTOR
FATHER RICHARD M. YANOS
MAY 7
37 YEARS

At times in life we distance ourselves from the Lord and lose the freshness of the first call. Let us ask for the grace to always go back to that first encounter, in which He looked at us, spoke to us, and placed in us the desire to follow Him.

IN NEED OF A SHEPHERD

For a while it was very fashionable to own pigs as pets. The publicity surrounding these creatures informed us that they were—contrary to their popular image—very clean animals, and also quite smart. Sad to say, sheep will most likely never enjoy this sort of domestic vogue. They are neither clean nor smart and are largely defenseless when left on their own, even in large numbers. The biblical image of us as the flock of sheep is not a particularly flattering one. Sheep without a shepherd are truly sad, because they most likely will perish either from their inability to fend for themselves or from their lack of defenses against predators. Placing ourselves in the heart of this unflattering image can reinforce our faith. Until we come to a profound realization of how much we need a shepherd, we cannot appreciate how deeply blessed we are to have been given a Shepherd, one who laid down his life for us and was raised to life eternal in the Spirit, so he might guide us and we might follow him in faith forever.

ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT SUSPENDED UNTIL FURTHUR NOTICE

By His Eucharistic presence, Christ dwells in our mist. Out of love He has enriched the Church with His unceasing presence. As God in former days dwelt in the temple of Jerusalem, He now lives in our churches and chapels. He invites us to remain in close contact with Him. Through Eucharist Adoration we concentrate our attention on Him as we yield to the fascination of His invisible gaze. Opening our hearts, we entrust all our petitions to Him.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
