From the Pastor's Desk…

If there is anything that the COVID-19 pandemic has forced us all to accept it would be CHANGE. For many of us our entire world seems to have been altered in a relatively short period of time. The sad reality, however, is that the changes we have all had to make do not look like they are going to go away soon. It has been said many times that one of the only guarantees in life is change. How true this is. Speaking of a major change for all of us here at St. Eugene with Fr. Greg's departure, I had hoped we would be getting a replacement for him as the size of our 2200 family parish would definitely warrant an additional associate pastor. Now that the Associate Change Process is officially ended, and, after interviewing three possible candidates during this period, I was informed that we would not be getting an associate at this time. Although I was dismayed and disappointed, we all need to be aware that this is one of the realities facing our Church. The shortage of priests and the decline in vocations is now hitting home for our parish.

As you should be aware, we now have only one full-time, priest serving our large parish. A little over two years ago, we had five priests living in the rectory. Over that period of time, we lost three priests who were actively serving our parish and celebrating Masses and sacraments here. Fr. Grib sadly passed away, and Frs. John Hetland's and Greg Wojcik's terms expired. Due to this loss of priests, our parish was forced to alter its daily and Sunday Mass schedule. Though none of us liked these changes, hopefully, you can understand one full-time priest is not physically able to maintain the schedule and volume of work that four of us once did. A couple of weeks ago, we had 11 funerals over a two-week period. Without a Bereavement Ministry here at St. Eugene's, the volume of funerals alone here could (excuse the pun) kill you.

We should all be very grateful for the assistance and help that Fr. Ed Pacocha has and continues to provide our parish. I know that I am extremely grateful for his willingness to assist us here. You may also see a little bit more of Fr. Jim O'Brien as well in the weeks ahead. One thing that we all need to be aware of, however, is that both of these men are RETIRED. For this reason, they are not able to provide the assistance of a full-time associate.

I also want to let all in our parish know that I have been working on trying to secure the assistance of another retired priest who would be living here in the rectory, if all of this works out. He would also be able to assist with Masses and funerals etc. I am hoping and praying that we will be able to work this out for both him and our parish. Say an extra prayer that this might be the case. I will keep you all abreast of any updates in this situation.

****

Tomorrow, Monday, July 13, we will be resuming weekday morning Mass on a modified schedule. We will start with three daily Masses on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays beginning Monday, July 13th. Daily Mass on Mondays and Wednesdays will be at 9:00 am and on Tuesdays at 6:30 am. Confessions will also resume on the last Saturday of the month at the usual time of 4:00 p.m.

Thanks to all who are slowly but surely returning to Mass. It was great to see so many of our parishioners again at Mass last weekend. Hopefully, we are on the path to discovering what our "new-normal" will be. Though our experience of coming back to church is very different than what we were used to, it is still great to be back in our church again worshipping with one another. As you may have noticed, it takes a little longer to get into your seat in church and it may not have necessarily been where you usually sat or wanted to be seated. There is a reason for this seating process, and it has everything to do with the necessity of cleaning and disinfecting the areas/sections where people sit after each Mass and Service. We seat people by section, so that we do not make more work for our maintenance/cleaning crew than is necessary, especially if we didn't need to use all the areas of our church. We ask that you assist us in this process by following the directions of our volunteers that will be directing you to your seats. PLEASE DO NOT TAKE A SEAT UNTIL YOU ARE DIRECTED BY OUR VOLUNTEERS. You are also given the opportunity to disinfect your hands upon entering and requested to wear your own face mask. If you do not have one, one will be provided. Please try and follow the directions that will be given at Mass by either the trained volunteers or the celebrant of the Mass.

Speaking of volunteers. We are in desperate need of 30 – 50 more volunteers to assist with upcoming weekend and daily masses as well as some of our sacramental services down the line. What is keeping us from going back to the celebration of daily mass, confessions, adoration, etc. is our shortage of trained volunteers that need to be present at each of these celebrations. If we do not get more volunteers, we will burn out the few that have already graciously signed-up to help as they cannot be expected to be at every Mass and sacramental celebration every day and week. Please consider signing up by emailing Reopen@st-eugene.org and leaving a message that you are willing to help. You will then be responded to with the information to watch a one-hour training webinar and then will have a St. Eugene training session in our church. WE NEED OUR PARISHIONERS TO SIGN-UP ASAP – ESPECIALLY OUR YOUNGER MEMBERS 18 AND OLDER. If we do not get these volunteers, I fear we will have to cut back our weekend Mass schedule and limit the potential of resuming daily Mass and other sacramental celebrations. I would hate to see that happen, especially since we've gotten this far. Please go to Reopen@st-eugene.org and join our reopening effort. WE NEED YOU! Thanks so much.

Have a great week everyone!

Fr. Rich

GOD'S WORDS

Each day we are bombarded with thousands of words. From the moment our clock radios click on in the morning, until the last moment of the day when the television is turned off or someone bids us "good-night," our life is filled with words. Some words that we hear bring news that leaves us feeling low. Some words lift our spirits. Many of the words we hear are trying to get us to buy something. Some words are hurtful. Today the Church focuses our attention on hearing the word of God. Are God's words just more of the same—part of the endless stream of words that flow into our ears each day? The challenge today is to allow God's word to inspire us in new ways so that our outlook and attitudes align themselves more closely with the heart and mind of Christ Jesus.
Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Faith makes us walk with Jesus on the roads of this world, in the certainty that the power of His Spirit will bend the forces of evil, subjecting them to the power of God's love.

We are in desperate need of volunteer parishioners to assist with our Sunday Mass and Sacramental celebrations. We need thirty to fifty more volunteers to be trained to assist in our staying open for week-end Masses. If we do not get these volunteers, we will not be able to keep our doors open for Sunday Mass. Please help us!

You can sign up by sending an E-mail to Reopen@st-eugene.org. We will then E-mail you back with training webinar information as well as inform you of our St. Eugene training session.

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA (1656-1680)
July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville—Ossernon to Native Americans—in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of "Christian" traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young "Lily of the Mohawks" drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does "the aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel?

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
