From the Pastor's Desk…

Its been a log time since we've had a Blood Drive here at St. Eugene, yet the need is so great these days. For this reason, on Saturday, August 1st, from 3:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Shaunessy Center we will all have the opportunity to give the gift of life for the sake of someone who needs it most. I want to thank our Knights of Columbus who are sponsoring this Blood Drive. I am hoping that as many as possible will come out to donate blood on August 1st. What would really be great is if we could get a lot of first-time donors so that you can see how easy and safe it is to do so. For those who have never given blood before, please read the following information that will be very helpful to you regarding what you can expect and how to prepare.

When you donate blood, you will help save the life of up to three people! It is one of the easiest ways to contribute to our community and it is free. If you have never donated before you may be feeling a little bit nervous. However, giving blood is safe and simple. It is important to eat iron rich food in the days or weeks before donating blood; this is especially important for women who tend to have lower iron counts. It is also important to have a meal before donating blood and be very well hydrated – drink plenty of water the day before, day of, and after donating. When you arrive here at the Shaunessy Center you will do the following:

Step 1 Registration

- Present your photo ID Card
- Read information sheet about donating blood

Step 2 Donor Health and Mini Physical

- Provide basic demographic and health information.
- Answer questions about past and present health history (information is kept private)
- Undergo mini exam to determine if you can donate (temperature, blood pressure, heart rate). Give a blood sample (usually from your finger) to determine your hemoglobin level.

Step 3 Drink Fluids

- Drink lots of water prior to your donation. The more hydrated you are, the faster your donation will be and the better you'll feel afterwards.

Step 4 Donation

- Sit in a comfortable donor chair.
- Once the needle is in place, it usually takes less than 10 minutes to draw a unit (about a pint) of blood. You'll squeeze a ball to keep the blood flowing while you relax and let the blood flow.
- Finish your donation, after which the needle will be removed, and a bandage applied – a badge of courage!

Step 5 Visit the Canteen

- Sit, relax and have a snack and drink at the donor bar for a few minutes.
- All Done! Enjoy your day. You're now a lifesaver!

Step 6 After Donation

- Avoid strenuous physical activity or heavy lifting for a few hours. If you feel light-headed, just lie down until you feel better. Have everyone cater to you for the day and do something special for yourself – you deserve it! The entire process from arriving to departing takes about one hour.

Perks of donating blood…along with the fact that you saved three lives:

- You'll receive free wellness screenings, including blood pressures, cholesterol and iron level every time you donate.
- You'll also learn your blood type if you didn't know it already.
- As an added bonus, your completed donation will be tested for COVID-19 antibodies. Confidential test results ("positive " or "negative") will be available in your private, online account approximately 2 weeks after your donation.

GOOD SEEDS

Today Jesus continues to speak to his followers using parables. What a rich treasure we are given today in three parables about the kingdom of heaven! The kingdom is likened to a man sowing good seed in his field, a mustard seed, and yeast mixed with flour. As they did last week, today the disciples press Jesus for an interpretation of one of the parables—the parable of the man sowing good seed. Lest we think that these parables are simply amusing little anecdotes, Jesus' interpretation should be seen for what it is—a warning. Wailing and grinding of teeth in a fiery furnace await those who are children of the evil one. This parable points to the struggle for today's believer. Sometimes, through sin, we sow weeds and prevent the love of Christ from blossoming. Let today's Gospel help put us back on track. Let us recommit ourselves to preparing for the last days, the harvest, by blossoming as the good seeds we were created in love to be.

We are in desperate need of volunteer parishioners to assist with our Sunday Mass and Sacramental celebrations. We need thirty to fifty more volunteers to be trained to assist in our staying open for week-end Masses. If we do not get these volunteers, we will not be able to keep our doors open for Sunday Mass. Please help us!

You can sign up by sending an E-mail to Reopen@st-eugene.org. We will then E-mail you back with training webinar information as well as inform you of our St. Eugene training session.

Prayer to Overcome Racism

MARY, FRIEND AND MOTHER TO ALL,
through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people,
sisters and brothers to each other.

We ask for your help in calling on your Son,
seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son
the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son,
so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects
the dignity of each person.

Mother of the Church,
the Spirit of your Son Jesus
warms our hearts:
pray for us.

Amen.

WORDS AND WEEDS

A man of words and not of deeds
Is like a garden full of weeds.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By the dawn of the fourteenth century, the sacrament of confirmation was ripe for a rescue, since vast numbers of the faithful never received it, and when it was celebrated, it was done so in isolation from baptism and Eucharist. A bishop named William Durandus set out to reclaim this liturgy, but he had a creative touch and added some things into the mix that had never been thought of before. One was a slap. Oddly, he replaced the kiss of peace at the end of confirmation with a slap on the cheek that endured to modern times. This "wake-up call" was related in his imagination to a custom in the military, wherein ceremonies of knighthood and investiture involved a symbolic wound as a sign of willingness to suffer.

Within every congregation today there are people who have memories of fretting through their confirmation liturgies, anxious to know how enthusiastic a slap the bishop would bestow. Durandus loved symbolism and had a reason for every ritual and practice, but his creative spin on the celebration shows how sadly adrift confirmation was from its anchorage in baptism, how far off-course from its home port of the eucharistic community.

SAINT SHARBEL MAKHLŪF (1828-1898)
July 24

The convenience store owner chatted animatedly in Arabic with coworkers, but hardly at all with his American clientele. So soon after 9/11, he probably figured, with my accent, the less said, the better. That changed when an American customer recognized Saint Sharbel's portrait on the wall: "So you're Lebanese Maronites!" The owner was happily incredulous: "You know our saint?" "Not at first," the customer admitted. "But we help the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and their magazine published that picture and called Sharbel the 'Paradoxical Artisan of Peace.' " "Everyone thinks we're Muslims," said the owner, "and some of my workers are. Saint Sharbel helps us live together in peace!" A hermit for twenty-three years, little is known of Sharbel's life. He died after suffering a stroke while celebrating the liturgy. Miracles attributed to his intercession number in the thousands, and in war-torn Lebanon, Catholics, Orthodox, and Muslims pray together where his incorrupt body is entombed. How lovely if after our passing, we too could be remembered for having brought very different people to the one God, together in peace.
