From the Pastor's Desk…

This weekend we celebrate the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time. I don't know about how you feel these days, but as far as I'm concerned, these are anything but ordinary times. I think we all might agree on that one. Speaking of the reality we are having to adjust to, I just want to say 'thank you' to all who are making their way back to weekday and weekend Mass attendance. I think it is important that we do so for so many reasons. I also realize that for many of our elderly or those dealing with compromised health conditions, it may take a much longer time to feel comfortable to come back. Not to worry, we will still be here for you!

I also want to thank the over 50 individuals who have stepped up to volunteer in assisting us with our Masses and sacramental celebrations. Your assistance is much needed, and I am so grateful for your commitment and generosity of time. We still need about twenty more volunteers to get to the level we can be comfortable with as we are constantly looking for ways to improve this new process or "new normal", if you will. Regarding attendance at church services, etc. We're getting there one week and one step at a time. I thank you all for your patience and understanding. I know this has not been easy for any of us.

You can still sign-up to volunteer by going to Reopen@st-eugene.org and leave a message that you are willing to help. You will be responded to with information to watch a one-hour training webinar and then you will be informed of our St. Eugene training session here in church. We can really use your help.

With the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1st, you have been able to monitor our parish's financial situation every week in the bulletin. I am grateful to our Business Manager, Anthony Woldeit, for his attention to detail with regard to this important matter. As you might imagine, due to the COVID-19 pandemic and with less members of our community coming to Mass, our weekend church support is seeing a downward trend. If this pattern continues, we should all be concerned about what the future will hold for our parish. I can only ask that all in our parish, who continue to call St. Eugene home, do their best to mail in or drop off their weekly church support, if you're not able to come back to church yet, so that we can get through these difficult days and unplanned circumstances. Our facilities are getting older and older. Maintaining our aging buildings and infrastructure is getting more costly every year and they are requiring attention more frequently now than in the past. We can get through this, but it is going to take each of us to do our part.

So far, with only three weeks into the new fiscal year we are already realizing a deficit of over $5,000. With a community the size of ours of over 2,200 households, we really should not be experiencing this kind of loss. I ask all in our parish to consider the value they place on the future of our parish being here for the next generation and to respond as appropriately and as generously as you can. I also want to be very sensitive with regard to those in our parish whose livelihoods may have been affected by the COVID-19 reality. Please know that if your employment has been impacted by this pandemic, this message is not meant for you.

On a brighter note, I have some really good news to share. As you know, I reported to you recently that our parish did not receive a full-time associate to replace Fr. Greg Wojcik. This was disappointing to say the least, especially as we look to the future and the upcoming time commitments the Renew My Church process will require. The daily and weekly Mass and sacramental services and almost 100 funerals we celebrate here on an annual basis would be a challenge for only one full time priest. I had shared with you that I would do my best to keep my eyes and ears open for a good priest to assist in ministering to our community of faith. I know that many in our community had expressed their concerns as well. I also heard many tell me that they would pray that we get another priest here. Well, your prayers have been answered! Recently, I called Fr. Greg Rom, who is currently the administrator of St. Thecla Parish. I asked if he would be interested in coming to St. Eugene in his retirement. With the merging of St. Thecla, St. Cornelius and St. Tarcissus into the new parish of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, St. Thecla and St. Cornelius will be closing and he was looking for a parish at which to assist. Fortunately, Fr. Greg not only accepted the invitation but was also glad to stay in the area as he has family nearby. You will be hearing more about Fr. Greg in the August 9th bulletin. He will also be assisting with a few weekday and weekend Masses in mid- to late August before his official start here on September 1st. I could not be happier that he will be moving in; both for the sake of our parish as well as personally. So, when you see him, please give him a warm St. Eugene welcome.

Please don't forget about our upcoming Knights of Columbus Blood Drive on Saturday, August 1st. It will be in the Shaunessy Center from 3:00 pm until 8:00 pm. Further in today's bulletin you will find detailed information about how to sign-up and general information about the process of giving blood. It is simple and not complicated at all. By giving the gift of life you will not only save another's life but you also benefit by finding out your updated cholesterol number, your blood pressure and also, if you have the anti-bodies for COVID-19.

Fr. Rich

For the safety of all parishioners, parish bulletins are not to be brought to the pews with you as you enter church.

Please pick up a bulletin as you leave the church.

They can be found at all the exits.

A SHARE IN GOD'S KINGDOM

Today concludes a three-week series of Gospel texts in which we have listened to a total of seven parables about the Kingdom. The believer is asked to consider the request that God made of Solomon in today's first reading: "Ask something of me and I will give it to you" (1 Kings 3:5). Today's parables about the treasure buried in the field and the pearl of great price should prompt us to answer, "A share in your kingdom, O God!" Today we discover that the kingdom of God is beyond value, a priceless treasure. Unfortunately, our culture bombards us with things that it believes are priceless treasures—the bigger and better SUVs, anti-aging and anti-balding creams and salves, miracle diets, and so much more. Having a share in God's kingdom and helping to bring about that kingdom are the greatest treasures that we can ever hope to gain.

We are in desperate need of volunteer parishioners to assist with our Sunday Mass and Sacramental celebrations. We only need about twenty more volunteers to be trained to assist in our staying open for week-end Masses. Please help us!

You can sign up by sending an E-mail to Reopen@st-eugene.org. We will then E-mail you back with training webinar information as well as inform you of our St. Eugene training session.

BLOOD DRIVE

It's been a long time since we've had a Blood Drive here at St. Eugene, yet the need is so great these days. For this reason, on Saturday, August 1st, from 3:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Shaunessy Center, we will all have the opportunity to give the gift of life for the sake of someone who needs it most. I want to thank our Knights of Columbus who are sponsoring this Blood Drive. I am hoping that as many as possible will come out to donate blood on August 1st. What would really be great is if we could get a lot of first-time donors so that you can see how easy and safe it is to do. For those who have never given blood before, please read the following information that will be very helpful to you regarding what you can expect and how to prepare.

When you donate blood, you will help save the life of up to three people! It is one of the easiest ways to contribute to our community and it is free. If you have never donated before you may be feeling a little bit nervous. However, giving blood is safe and simple. It is important to eat iron rich food in the days or weeks before donating blood; this is especially important for women who tend to have lower iron counts. It is also important to have a meal before donating blood and be very well hydrated – drink plenty of water the day before, day of, and after donating. When you arrive here at the Shaunessy Center you will do the following:

Step 1 Registration

- Present your photo ID Card
- Read the information sheet about donating blood

Step 2 Donor Health and Mini Physical

- Provide basic demographic and health information.
- Answer questions about past and present health history (information is kept private)
- Undergo mini exam to determine if you can donate (temperature, blood pressure, heart rate). Give a blood sample (usually from your finger) to determine your hemoglobin level.

Step 3 Drink Fluids

- Drink lots of water prior to your donation. The more hydrated you are, the faster your donation will be and the better you'll feel afterwards.

Step 4 Donation

- Sit in a comfortable donor chair.
- Once the needle is in place, it usually takes less than 10 minutes to draw a unit (about a pint) of blood. You'll squeeze a ball to keep the blood flowing while you relax and let the blood flow.
- Finish your donation, after which the needle will be removed, and a bandage applied – a badge of courage!

Step 5 Visit the Canteen

- Sit, relax and have a snack and drink at the donor bar for a few minutes.
- All Done! Enjoy your day. You're now a lifesaver!

Step 6 After Donation

- Avoid strenuous physical activity or heavy lifting for a few hours. If you feel light-headed, just lie down until you feel better. Have everyone cater to you for the day and do something special for yourself – you deserve it! The entire process from arriving to departing takes about one hour.

Perks of donating blood…along with the fact that you saved three lives:

- You'll receive free wellness screenings, including blood pressures, cholesterol and iron level every time you donate.
- You'll also learn your blood type if you didn't know it already.
- As an added bonus, your completed donation will be tested for COVID-19 antibodies. Confidential test results ("positive " or "negative") will be available in your private, online account approximately 2 weeks after your donation.

St. Eugene Parish Give Central Sign Up Instructions

The following is a list of step-by-step instructions to sign up for Give Central to support St. Eugene Parish. If you have any questions or need some help, feel free to call Business Manager Anthony Woldeit at the rectory 773-775-6659 or email at awoldeit@st-eugene.org.

1. Go to our website www.st-eugene.org and click on the Give Central picture located in the middle of the welcome page. Clicking this link will take you directly to St. Eugene's Give Central page.

2. You will be brought to the page titled "Ways to Support St. Eugene Parish". Select one of the featured collections including Sunday, Social Concerns, and others. If you do not see the collection you want, click "View More" and make your selection(s)

3. After selecting a collection, enter the amount you wish to contribute, the first payment date, the frequency, and whether you would like to have ongoing giving or select an end date. Then select "Add to my Gift Basket".

4. You can then decide to "Add More" collections and follow steps 2 and 3 above or select "Checkout".

5. You will be brought to a screen to review the selections you have made in your gift basket, and if all looks good, you are ready to "Continue"

6. We encourage you to sign up by selecting "Complete Profile". You will be brought to a screen to enter your personal information including address, phone number, email addresses, and your preferred payment method.

7. After filling in the pertinent information, be sure to check the box and select "Register and Confirm Gift"

That's it! You will be brought to your home page where you can add more gifts or simply logout. We sincerely appreciate all your generosity.

SAINT MARTHA (first century)

July 29

Whether you find Martha Stewart admirable or annoying, she has the perfect patron saint. Luke describes Martha—saint, not Stewart—as "burdened with much serving" (Luke 10:40). About Mary, seated, listening to Jesus, Martha complained, "Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?" Jesus' response, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things . . . Mary has chosen the better part" (10:41, 42), suggests to some the superiority of the contemplative life, leaving the rest of us, supporting families, earning livings, (helping others?), as second-class Christians. But Luke introduces Martha and Mary immediately after Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan, whom Jesus recommends as a model of practical compassion, concluding, "Go and do likewise" (10:37). Go and do! Sit and listen! Discipleship is never either/or but both/and. Jesus ministered in prayerful silence and hospitable service. Monastic calendars add Martha's sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, calling all three "hosts of the Lord," recalling their welcome of Jesus to their home in Bethany, reminding us Whom we welcome whenever we extend summertime hospitality!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Most parishes are now aware of the catechumenate and the journey of new faithful in the RCIA, but this form of sacramental initiation disappeared from view in the thirteenth century along with many other ancient practices. Life back then was hard, and often too short, and priests were increasingly insistent about the responsibility of parents to baptize children in danger of death. Since everyone in that society was under unimaginable threat from famine, warfare, and plague, the liturgical rites changed quickly. Everyone was in danger of death all the time. No longer were babies immersed in fonts, being lowered into the water, although the ritual books never backed down from immersion. Infusion was the new way, a simple pouring of a few drops of water on the child's forehead.

The catechumenate collapsed, being reduced to the recitation of the Creed and an Our Father at every baptism. Amazingly, any provision for adult baptism was shelved, so that as late as the 1950s, a person being baptized was presumed to be an infant, unable to answer for him or herself. Questions of creed and commitment were put to the godparents, not to the person being baptized. Even Dorothy Day and Thomas Merton, famous adult converts, remained mute at their baptisms while their sponsors answered for them. In hindsight all this appears strikingly odd, yet it was accepted as the way things were. We have good reason to give thanks for the vigorous reforms of the last fifty years! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

New frontiers

In today's world where the globe has shrunk and explorer's eyes scan the universe instead of the oceans, our children are still born with a love of discovery. Whether we're casually participating in scavenger hunts and Easter egg searches or we're researching the causes and cures of disease, humans are addicted to that sense of exploration. We thrill to the feeling of hunting until we find, seeking new horizons even in our own backyards.

God's word tells us we should seek the Kingdom of heaven with that same ardor. In His parable Jesus likens the Kingdom to buried treasure that believers diligently seek. And then, when we have found that golden reward, we joyously sell all that we have to make the treasure our own. To satisfy our explorer's hearts He daily gives us a new frontier: the Kingdom of Heaven. May we learn to rise each day in eager anticipation of discovering His treasure and making it part of our lives. And may we pass this mission of holy exploration on to each new generation.

To the kingdom

"We can never cling to sin with one hand and grasp Jesus Christ with the other. Until we are content to reckon ourselves dead indeed to every known form of sin, whether great or small, we cannot follow Jesus to the kingdom."

W. H. Aitken

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!
CALL BY 9/30 TO RECEIVE 75% ~~5~~% OFF LABOR*
*Does not include cost of material.
Offer expires 9/30/20.
Receive a $25 Lowe's Gift Card with FREE in-home estimate!
All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID, be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail within 21 days of receipt of the promotion form. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Lowe's and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Expires 9/30/20.
