From the Pastor's Desk…

As we find ourselves now in the midst of a summer navigating our way through these unprecedented times and celebrating the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time, little by little parishes in the Archdiocese are trying to get back to life and ministry as close to normal as we can. We at St. Eugene's are catching up with all the baptisms that had to be postponed because of the closing of our churches due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Any weddings that were scheduled this past spring have also now been re-scheduled. Daily Masses have returned Mondays thru Wednesdays. Confessions are now back on the last Saturday of the month at 4:00 until all are heard. After meeting with our principal, we have also made plans to re-schedule the First Communion Mass that was cancelled due to the pandemic. This day has been moved to Saturday, September 19th.

Some have also been asking about the re-starting of Adoration and the opening of our church for individuals to just come in and pray. All of these will be possible when we are able to get parishioners who are willing to give of their time to be in church when it will be open to monitor and ensure that the proper health and safety protocols are being practiced. Our dedicated Adoration team are all in the age group that are concerned about their own health issues and the challenges of COVIV-19. I am so grateful for all the years these dedicated parishioners have given to keep Adoration going here in our parish. For this reason, if we are to resume Adoration once again, we are going to need some younger parishioners to step up and fill the shoes of the generation before them. If anyone is interested in getting a team together to coordinate the re-start of Adoration, please let me know of your willingness and interest.

We will be having an important and mandatory meeting for all Ministers of Care on Saturday, August 22nd from 1:00 - 2:00 pm in the church. We now have the OK from the Archdiocese to resume the bringing of Holy Communion to our shut-ins. However, in order for this to happen all Ministers of Care must be informed of the new protocols that are now in place for your safety as well as those you will be visiting. You will all be receiving a letter in the mail shortly, if you haven't already, informing you of this meeting and your need to RSVP. I look forward to seeing you all again for this very important gathering. We will be social distancing.

In case you missed reading my article in last week's bulletin I wanted to repeat it because it is really good news to share. As you know, I reported to you recently that our parish did not receive a full-time associate to replace Fr. Greg Wojcik. This was disappointing to say the least, and truly a growing concern as we look to the future and the upcoming time commitment the Renew My Church process will require. The daily and weekly Mass and sacramental services and almost 100 funerals we celebrate here on an annual basis would be a challenge for only one full-time priest. I had shared with you that I would do my best to keep my eyes and ears open for a good priest to assist in ministering to our community of faith. I know that many in our community had expressed their concerns as well. I also heard many tell me that they would pray that we get another priest here. Well, your prayers have been answered! Recently, I called Fr. Greg Rom, who is currently the administrator of St. Thecla Parish. I asked if he would be interested in coming to St. Eugene in his retirement. With the merging of St. Thecla, St. Cornelius and St. Tarcissus into the new parish of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, St. Thecla and St. Cornelius will be closing and he was looking for a parish at which to assist. Fortunately, Fr. Greg not only accepted the invitation but was also glad to stay in the area as he has family nearby. You will be hearing more about Fr. Greg in the August 9th bulletin. He will also be assisting with a few weekday and weekend Masses in mid to late August before his official start here on September 1st. I could not be happier that he will be moving in; both for the sake of our parish as well as personally. So, when you see him, please give him a warm St. Eugene welcome.

Have a great week ahead everyone!

Fr. Rich

For the safety of all parishioners, parish bulletins are not to be brought to the pews with you as you enter church.

Please pick up a bulletin as you leave the church.

They can be found at all the exits.

OUR DEEPEST NEEDS

The word of God serves up a tremendous feast for us today. Isaiah beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord for satisfaction. The psalmist cries out, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs" (Psalm 145:16). Saint Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of God. Finally, in the Gospel, we hear the story of the miraculous feeding of over five thousand people from a mere five loaves and two fish. Most of us have our material needs met on a day-to-day basis. These scriptures, nevertheless, have much to say to the contemporary believer. We must ask ourselves, "Where are my deepest hungers? Where are my thirsts?" After material needs are satisfied and, in some cases, over-satisfied, many people still experience a deep longing for spiritual balance and well-being. As the loaves and fish are multiplied in today's Gospel, perhaps our prayer can be a longing for the satisfaction of the deepest needs that only God can fill.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the last several weeks, the history of confirmation has been set out as a rite following baptism and preceding First Communion. Eucharist was a sacrament of spiritual maturity, attuned to the legal age of majority, which was considered to be fourteen years or so. Medieval bishops were often generous, if not especially pious, in seeing to it that children were confirmed before adulthood.

A pattern more familiar to us surfaced in the Diocese of Toulon in France in 1748, where it was decreed that "children are to be confirmed only after receiving First Communion." This was an amazing shift in practice that undermined centuries of theology and tradition by which confirmation was seen as a bridge between font and table. The innovation swept through France and across Europe, despite constant complaints from Rome. French-trained bishops like Cheverus of Boston and Carroll of Baltimore, founders of the American church, established the practice here. The order of the sacraments was thus disrupted in France and in the United States, and remained an eccentric exception to the rule until big developments in 1910.

CRISIS PREGNANCY HELPLINE

The Crisis Pregnancy Helpline is sponsored by the Women's Center. They provide counseling, food, clothing, baby furniture, referral services, etc. to those experiencing a difficult pregnancy. 1-800-400-4205

When someone offers us a service, we should not think that we deserve everything. Gratitude, appreciation is, first of all, good manners, but it is also a characteristic of a Christian. It is a simple but genuine sign of the Kingdom of God.

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859)

August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."
