A LITTLE BACKGROUND ON THE HISTORY & BEGINNINGS OF ST. EUGENE PARISH

Now that I've started my third year as pastor here at St. Eugene's, I have had the opportunity to hear some very interesting stories from parishioners who have been members for many years. Believe it or not there are still some of the charter members of our community with us today – almost 72 years after the founding of our parish. For this reason, I thought that you might be interested in hearing about how our parish came to be. For our newer, more recent members this will be information to help you better understand our humble beginnings. For our long-time parishioners it will be a trip down memory lane. Enjoy!

St. Eugene Church at Foster and Canfield Ave. on the far northwest side of Chicago was established in 1948 on a five-acre tract of land which had been purchased by Samuel Cardinal Stritch. On September 3, 1948, The New World announced that Chicago's newest parish – St. Eugene's – has been named for His Holiness Pope Pius XII known before his elevation to the Papacy as Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli.

Rev. John M. Ryan, a former assistant at St. Leo Church, was appointed pastor of the new parish. At the time Fr. Ryan began taking a census of Catholic families who lived in this, then, sparsely-settled district. Rev. John A. McCabe was organizing St. Monica parish in the territory east of Harlem Ave. This section of the northwest side of Chicago and the area now known as Norridge, Ill. grew rapidly in the 1950's as families moved away from older neighborhoods to the new housing developments which were being constructed at the city's edge.

A residence at 5330 N. Canfield Ave. was purchased for use as a rectory and Fr. Ryan offered Mass here on weekdays. Sunday services were held temporarily in the assembly hall of the Oriole public school, 5424 N. Oketo Ave. By early fall 1948, about 200 families belonged to St. Eugene parish.

On November 21, 1948, Mass was celebrated in a Quonset hut which had been erected on the parish property. This structure remained in use as the parish church for more than 20 years. The immediate goal for members of this parish was the construction of a school and on October 9, 1949, ground at 7930 W. Foster Ave. was broken for a brick structure. On September 18, 1950, the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary opened St. Eugene School with an enrollment of 200 children.

The parish was growing so rapidly that before long, larger school quarters were needed. A school addition, completed in 1952, contained a hall which subsequently became the center of the community's varied social activities. To relieve overcrowding in the Quonset church, additional Masses were celebrated in the school hall.

By 1952, the parish membership had doubled and enrollment in the school numbered nearly 300 children. The BVM Sisters resided in an old farmhouse at 7958 W. Foster Ave. until 1955, when the present convent was completed at 7920 W. Foster Ave. Fr. Ryan and his assistants then moved into the old convent building.

Eight new classrooms were added to the main school building in 1956 and in 1957, the Quonset church was enlarged. On November 3, 1957, Cardinal Stritch dedicated the school addition and convent. Enrollment in the school continued to increase, from 1,032 students in 1958 to 1,666 students by 1965.

In 1966, Our Lady Mother of the Church parish was formed in the territory west of Cumberland Ave. Since that time, St. Eugene has been bounded by the Kennedy expressway on the north; Lawrence Ave. on the south; Cumberland Ave. on the west; and Oketo Ave. on the east. The parish includes a small portion of Harwood Heights, Ill, Norridge, Ill, and Chicago.

Assured that the children of the parish had been provided for, Fr. Ryan and his parishioners made plans for a permanent church and for a new rectory to replace the old farmhouse at 7958 W. Foster Ave. In November 1967, ground for a new church was broken at Foster and Canfield Ave. Members of the parish watched with interest as the modern edifice took shape according to the plans drawn up by architect Frank Serpico. On December 14, 1969, Mass was celebrated in the new St. Eugene Church for the first time.

Due to illness, Fr. Ryan requested that an administrator be appointed. In January 1972, Rev. Francis W. Shaunessy, former pastor of St. Raphael Church, began his work in this parish.

John Cardinal Cody dedicated St. Eugene Church on October 1, 1972. On October 4, 1972, Fr. Ryan was named pastor emeritus and Fr. Shaunessy was appointed pastor. Fr. Ryan died on March 16, 1973 at the age of 67.

The silver jubilee of the founding of St. Eugene parish was celebrated on October 7, 1973. At the time, approximately 2,400 families belonged to the parish with 940 children enrolled in the school. A special Mass was celebrated on March 14, 1976 to commemorate the 25th anniversary of our parish school.

In 1978, approximately 2,800 families belonged to the parish and 780 children were enrolled in the school under the direction of three BVM nuns and 29 lay teachers. The parish membership was predominantly Polish and Italian, with some Irish and German families.

In December 1978, Fr. Shaunessy and Sr. Elaine Campbell, BVM, school principal, broke ground at 5220 N. Canfield Ave. for a multi-purpose building which would contain a gym, stage, meeting rooms, and kitchen. Cardinal Cody was scheduled to dedicate the $700,000 Parish Center on April 20, 1980. This building eventually was named the Shaunessy Center.

This little bit of the history of our parish was taken from a book written in 1980, entitled, "A History of the Parishes of the Archdiocese of Chicago on the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of the Archdiocese of Chicago" and was compiled and edited by Rev. Msgr. Harry C. Koenig, S.T.D.

Obviously, much has taken place over the next 40 years since this last page of this history of our parish was written. Certainly, the buildings that were erected those many years ago are all now beginning to show their wear and tear and the demographics of our area have also changed. What will the next pages of our history look like? Only time will tell, however, each of us has an important part to play in what our future will hold. I hoped you enjoyed this little bit of nostalgic history.

Wealth can force us to build walls. Jesus, instead, invites His disciples to transform goods and riches into relationships, because people are worth more than things, they are more valuable than any riches we possess.

TRUST

Keys hold great significance for those who carry them. They represent the trust and authority of the owner when given to another person. We may give our house key to a trusted friend to take care of our matters while we are away. We may give keys to someone responsible for maintaining or working in a particular building. Keys to vehicles are given to people who have proven themselves responsible drivers. The readings today focus on this kind of trust—the trust that conveys authority and responsibility. In the first reading, the symbol is specifically that of a key; but the second reading and the Gospel also speak of trust and leadership as they refer to the earthly church that Jesus established.

Knowing where you stand

Opinions are easy to come by. People today are all too ready to share their theories, no matter how bizarre, with anyone willing to listen. And in this barrage of "new age" concepts Christians can easily get confused. Trendy theories will interfere with our personal faith if we spend too much time paying heed.

Jesus knew what that was like. When He spoke to the disciples He first asked them, "who do people say that I am?" and listened calmly to all the theories. Then Jesus quietly asked, "but who do you say that I am?" His simple question called to the disciples' hearts, urging them to step away from popular theories and rumor, relying instead on the His teachings. It's a matter of knowing where you stand. When you stand firmly in God's house, relying on His doctrines, you won't be swayed by the latest religious fad. Ask yourself today, who do I say Jesus is? Do my answers come from scripture and the church's teachings or have I found them in the latest bestseller?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the most memorable images from the pontificate of Pope John Paul II is not his shocked expression as he is hit by a bullet, but rather his tender meeting with his assailant, and his forgiveness. It is far more compelling because, although people are struck by bullets every day, true reconciliation is in relatively short supply. An outside observer might list attempting to kill the pope as an unforgiveable sin, but of course we know that forgiveness of sin is woven deeply into our tradition of living as Christ did.

Interestingly enough, the Church took a hard line on these matters early on. Until the second century, people expected Christ's return in the near future, so they deferred judgment to him. Soon, however, bishops began to grant forgiveness for sin after baptism, but only once. What we know as the sacrament of penance takes its life from Jesus' work of reconciliation, but just as scripture shows Jesus forgiving people in one life-changing encounter, so the church granted one chance only. Great sins were the target, such as idolatry, adultery, and murder. Penance was lengthy, difficult, and public, and the bishop was in charge of the process. For the next several weeks, we'll look at subsequent creative and helpful changes in the celebration of this sacrament.

SAINT MONICA (332-387)
August 27

She had smiles for the neighbors, though her husband found her religion and the charity it inspired annoying. She made tearful prayers in private for a son, outwardly self-assured but, as his mother knew, inwardly restless, and whose girlfriend of a dozen years had borne his child out of wedlock. Though not the first or last such mother and son, Monica and Augustine are the Church's most famous, so we keep their feast days back to back, with Monica's, fittingly, first. To Rome she followed Augustine, then to Milan, where years of prayer—and nagging—finally bore fruit in his conversion by Saint Ambrose. For six months, mother and son enjoyed the blessing of rediscovering each other. Just in time! On the way home to North Africa, Monica took sick and died near Rome. No child who has mourned a parent can read, unmoved, Augustine's tender account, in his Confessions, of Monica's last days. At this time of the year, when parents watch apprehensively as children leave for school, may Monica's perseverance and Augustine's long-prayed-for conversion ease anxiety and kindle hope. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J.
