From the Pastor's Desk…

Today we celebrate the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The new school year is now underway. As you are aware, our principal, faculty and staff are making every effort to keep the learning environment for our children and families as safe and as close to normal as possible. On the church end of things, we are also slowly resuming our parish meetings, Mass schedules, devotional and sacramental services as well. For this reason, I am happy to let all in our parish know that starting in September, (which is this Tuesday) we will be resuming our former/regular daily Mass schedule. This means that daily Mass will once again be celebrated on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9:00 a.m. and on Tuesday and Thursday at 6:30 a.m. This is great news for those who regularly came together each day for Mass. It has been wonderful to see you all returning slowly.

Beginning Monday, September 21st, we will also be resuming Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. with Benediction beginning at 5:45 p.m. Adoration will then continue on Mondays as it always has. Those attending will be asked if this time period works best for them and will have the opportunity to suggest an alternative time period that might be better able to be attended. I am so grateful to our Adoration Team of parishioners for meeting together recently to discuss how we could resume this beautiful devotion once again. In today's bulletin you will find more detailed information about Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Please take the time to read it. Also, please be assured that we will be following all the same health and safety protocols that we do for weekend Masses.

Speaking of weekend Masses…we have been seeing a slow but definite growth in attendees. When we get closer to filling our socially-distanced pews, we will be adding another Sunday Mass to accommodate these increasing numbers. Please know that it is very safe to return to church here in our parish. Let's not get too comfortable going to Mass in our pajamas sitting on our couches.

I also want to reiterate my sincere thanks to all those in our parish who are doing their best to offer their weekly stewardship and financial support to your parish. As you can see in our weekly bulletin, we are not reaching our necessary budgeted income to sustain the operation of our parish. Temporarily, we will be able to weather this loss of revenue, however, in the long term it is going to catch up with us and serious decisions will ultimately have to be made if this trend does not improve. Even though we have a dispensation to not attend in-person Mass during this COVID-19 Pandemic, we are not dispensed from fulfilling our obligation to offer our financial support to sustain the operation of our parish. For this reason, I and our Finance Council ask all in our parish to do their part in dropping off or mailing in your church offerings to help keep us operational for the future, even when you are not here for weekend Mass.

PLEASE BEWARE AND BE LEARY of online scams that may be coming your way using my identity and/or other church/school personnel to solicit money in the form of gift cards. Hackers are getting very sophisticated with their attempts to impersonate church personnel, leaders and pastors. They are sending out emails and/or texts that look like they could easily come from a pastor or other church staff. I have already been informed that my picture was even incorporated into the message that was sent to a parishioner. I have to say it really looked genuine, however, I or other staff members would never do this! Please contact me or the person you think might be being impersonated, if you are unsure if an email or text message really came from me or others. Remember, if it looks suspicious or feels not right, it probably is.

Finally, just a reminder that Monday, September 7th, is Labor Day. From its origin as a federal holiday in 1894, Labor Day has celebrated the economic and social contributions of our country's workers. This day has also come to be celebrated by most Americans as the symbolic end of the summer.

This Labor Day, our country continues to struggle with a broken economy that has been further damaged by the COVID-19 Pandemic. As a result, our country and our economy have not been able to produce enough decent jobs for its workforce. Millions of Americans are suffering from unemployment, underemployment or are living in poverty as their basic needs all too often are going unmet. Sadly, this represents a serious economic and moral failure for our nation. However, as a people of faith, we are called to stand with those left behind, to offer our solidarity, and to join forces with "the least of these" to offer our help in meeting their basic needs. Let's pray together that our nation and its leaders will do their best to seek economic renewal that places working people and their families at the center of our country's economic life.

I wish all in our parish community a happy Labor Day. May it be a day spent enjoying the company of your family and friends as best as you can and thanking God for the many blessings that each of us has been given.

Our parish will celebrate this day with a community Mass at 9:00 a.m. Please plan on starting your holiday with your parish community on Labor Day morning.

Have a safe and enjoyable week ahead everyone!

Fr. Rich

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Eucharistic Adoration at St. Eugene Parish will resume on Monday, September 21 from 4pm to 6pm with Benediction starting at 5:45pm.

"GOD and MAN reaching out for each other….at the same time!"

Around 1979, the late Pope St. John Paul II asked for a renewal of the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction throughout the Catholic world. Eucharistic Exposition is a practice in the Catholic Church in which the Blessed Sacrament is exposed and adored by the faithful outside of Mass. This method of adoration can be traced back as far as the middle of the third century. In the Catholic tradition, at the moment of consecration the elements (bread and wine) are transformed into the actual Body and Blood of Christ. Catholic doctrine holds that the elements are not only spiritually transformed but actually (substantially) transformed into His body and blood. Jesus is truly present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Eucharist. In this belief lies the origin of Eucharistic Adoration. This devotion offers a time to pray for a greater intimacy with Jesus and to open ourselves to His graces which flow from the Eucharist. The Rite concludes with Benediction in which an ordained minister blesses the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament. Pope Benedict XVI said, "Eucharistic Adoration is an affirmation of our faith. Through this vigil of prayer, we give witness to our belief that God is truly dwelling with His people. In its fullest essence, it is God and man reaching out for each other at the same time."

What do you actually do during Eucharistic Adoration? The host is displayed in a monstrance placed on the altar. In the practice of Adoration you remain silent in His presence. In the silence you can recite your favorite prayers, meditate using scripture, pray the psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Offer prayers of thanksgiving, reparation, or petition, pray the rosary, or whatever type of prayerful devotion suits you. You can just sit and say nothing simply keeping Him company just as you would a dear friend. Enjoy just being in His presence and take time to listen to what Jesus wants to say to you.

Be assured that the Coved-19 guidelines will be followed for this vigil as provided by Church authorities, government officials, and health care professionals. Anyone with an illness or noticeable symptoms will be asked not to enter the church. There will be only one entrance to come into the church using the main door under the canopy. You will then be greeted by a member of the Adoration committee in the vestibule who will ask you to sign in before you enter church and to sanitize your hands using the wall mounted hand sanitizers. Protective masks must be worn for the entire time the participants are attending the service. A volunteer will guide participants to seating that will be clearly marked. Worshippers may not sit together unless they are domiciled together. Please do not change seats or move around the church. The need for this seating process comes from the necessity to clean and disinfect every area/section after Adoration where participants were seated. Please maintain social distancing while leaving church.

THE CROSS OF JESUS

The perception of a cross changed dramatically after Jesus' crucifixion. Before that event, death on a cross was not only horrible, it was degrading. It was a penalty reserved only for the most wretched of criminals. The word "glory" would not have found its way into the same sentence containing the word "cross." But all that changed with Jesus. Over time, believers began to venerate and honor the cross. They painted, sculpted, and carved images of it. Many lost their own lives for their association with it. Today our reverence for and relationship with the cross recalls little of the contempt originally associated with it. As it has been through the ages, it is our perception of the cross that determines how we follow Jesus.

It has come to our attention that some parishioners are not receiving their envelopes.
The envelopes are sent from the envelope company not from the rectory.
Please speak to your postal carrier and/or call your local post office if you have not received yours.
So you can get credit for your donation, please use a plain white envelope for your donation and include your name, address, and envelope number.
You may also call the rectory at: 773/775-6659.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We know for certain that the sacrament of penance was a fairly rare event in the life of a Christian in the early centuries, but that everyone had a duty to admit their sins and ask forgiveness before giving thanks in the Sunday Eucharist and receiving Christ's Body and Blood at the table. Everyone today is familiar with this same ancient pattern. We also know about Lent and its journey of renewal, and even those who are returning from summer vacations may speak of a fresh perspective on life and a resolve to do better. Saint Augustine spoke of a third kind of penance, beyond the turning of the catechumens to a different life, beyond the normal everyday fresh starts, to a form that is severe and serious. Certain sins broke faith with the community: the sinners were obliged to give their names to the bishop and were barred from participation in the Eucharist. Augustine mentioned sacrilege, adultery, and murder as the culprits, great wounds for the perpetrator, wounds that were serious, deadly, mortal. Penance was such a frightening prospect that many people delayed their baptism for fear that they would sin, a practice with which Augustine was well acquainted. Pastoral need would eventually call the church to reconsider its practice.

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT (540-604)
September 3

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, Gregorian chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory's legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory's administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the church's material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the "Gregorian Canon" (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated "the Great," a fitting epitaph. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
