From the Pastor's Desk…

In today's Gospel from Matthew the Pharisees attempt again to test Jesus. They want to know how Jesus would answer the question, "Which commandment in the law is the greatest?" This question would not be an unusual one for the Jewish people of Jesus' day. There were 613 laws that they followed that were contained in the Torah, but they wanted Jesus' specific answer as to which of them He saw as the greatest. As one might guess, Jesus was probably very savvy and knowledgeable when it came to the Torah. His response combines two Old Testament laws. The first is a passage from Deuteronomy, one that Jews pray several times a day to remind them to love the Lord their God "with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." The second comes from the Book of Leviticus which links the love of God with love of neighbor. Those who obey this command go into action to meet the needs of their neighbor as they do their own.

Jesus makes it very clear that all the laws of the Jewish people and tradition are based on these two simple commandments. Don't we all know, however, that as simple as this may sound, putting these two commandments into practice in our daily lives is a lot more difficult and challenging than it looks. Wouldn't you agree?

Next Weekend, November 1st, is All Saint's Day – A Holy Day of Obligation. This means that all Catholics are obliged to attend Mass on this day. On this day we celebrate and honor those men and women of days gone by, that have led and modeled for us, exemplary lives of faithfulness and solid Christian living. Though the obligation to attend Mass has been lifted at this time for those concerned with contracting COVID-19, still, all are encouraged to return to Mass where safety protocols are being fully followed. There will be three Masses offered on All Saint's Day - Saturday, October 31st, at 5:30 p.m. and on Sunday, November 1st at 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m.

On Monday, November 2nd, we will celebrate the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed with ALL SOUL'S DAY. Because this day falls on a Monday this year there will be one Mass celebrated at our usual 9:00 a.m. Mass time and an additional evening Mass celebrated at 7:00 p.m. to remember all those whose funerals were celebrated here at St. Eugene over the past year, in addition to all of your departed loved ones. All in our parish are invited and encouraged to attend this special evening Mass to honor and remember your deceased loved ones. Everyone is encouraged to sign-up for this evening Mass as we do for our Sunday Masses by going on-line to do so. If you are not able to, you can call the parish office to sign up as well. There will also be room for some walk-ins. This Mass will be a powerful expression of remembrance for those who have gone before us, not only in our parish community but within your own families as well. At this Mass, the opportunity will be given to acknowledge your deceased loved ones by filling out the form on page 5 in today's bulletin.

In addition, if you would like to remember your deceased loved ones in a more permanent way, you may write their names in the spaces provided on the special All Soul's Day envelope that was included in your October/November Sunday envelope packet. The envelopes, along with your Mass contributions, can be placed in the regular Sunday offering basket at the registration tables of church and can also be mailed in or brought to the parish office throughout the week. The names that you submit will then be published in our parish bulletin within one or two weeks after All Soul's Day (this is so we can gather all the names submitted that will come in late after All Soul's Day) and placed upon the altar during the month of November and throughout the next year.

****

Don't forget that next weekend, November 1st, we gain an extra hour of sleep because we turn our clocks back one hour as Daylight Savings Time ends. Have an enjoyable week ahead!

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES October 28

Saint Jude, apostle and . . . Hollywood success story? Indeed! Beyond Simon's being a " Zealot" for Israel's liberation and Jude's question about Jesus revealing himself (John 14:22), no historic facts are known about either saint. But Saint Jude's well-known patronage of lost causes and hopeless cases is largely due to a desperate vow made just before World War II by a struggling entertainer, the son of Arab-American immigrants, Danny Thomas. Unemployed, his wife about to give birth, Danny, attending Mass, impulsively donated his last seven dollars to the collection, promising: "Saint Jude, if you help me find my way in life, I will build a shrine in your honor!" Older Americans remember well Danny's long, successful movie and television career. Grateful parents worldwide know the miracles that have taken place for fifty years at his Saint Jude Children's Research Hospital, where needy children are cared for regardless of race, religion, or financial resources, and monumental advances continue in healing and preventing pediatric cancers and catastrophic childhood diseases. A living, life-giving partnership is this "Communion of Saints": Simon, Jude, Danny Thomas—us!

NO ACTIVITIES

LIVING JUSTLY

"You give that back right now!" How many of us have heard that line, probably more than once, as we were growing up? We come home with the trophy of what we thought was a really sweet deal, only to have our parents undo our profits by making us return the spoils. They had a different idea of what constituted a "fair trade agreement." Justice in our dealings with others continues to be an important measure of our character, and like a good parent, God cares very much about how we treat each other and about how others treat us. God hears the cry of the poor, and answers the call of the oppressed. God's beloved children are not to behave like bullies. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

On "All Souls Day," the Church commemorates and intercedes for those who have died. We invite the entire parish to remember our dearly departed, especially those who have died in the past year.

YOUR LOVED ONES WHO HAVE BEEN BURIED FROM ST. EUGENE CHURCH SINCE LAST NOVEMBER WILL HAVE THEIR NAMES INSCRIBED IN THE "BOOK OF THE DEAD" which will be placed in front of the altar for this Mass.

As we do each year, we will honor the dead in a special way at the Mass of Remembrance on November 2nd. Please fill out the attached form and return it to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket by Tuesday, October 27th. The names submitted will be read at Mass, as we have done in the past. This year, due to Covid19 restrictions, carnations will not be brought up individually. Rather, the names that are submitted will be printed on a label and attached to a carnation beforehand. It will be part of the bouquet placed in front of the altar for the Mass. Please PRINT the name you would like remembered LEGIBLY so they can be read accurately. Please be aware that additional names will NOT be added to the list of names to be read at Mass or added to a carnation after this date.

When casting a vote, it is important for Catholics to make an informed decision rooted in Catholic church teachings and natural moral law. Voting is one of the most moral actions you can make. The quotes below are taken directly from party platforms and contrasted with the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

ABORTION

The Catechism (2270): Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception.

Republican Party: The unborn child has a fundamental individual right to life which cannot be infringed. We call for a permanent ban on federal funding and subsidies for abortion and health care plans that include abortion coverage.

Democratic Party: We strongly and unequivocally support Roe v. Wade and a woman's right to choose a safe and legal abortion, regardless of ability to pay, and we oppose any and all efforts to weaken or undermine that right.

IMMIGRATION

The Catechism (2241): Political authorities, for the sake of the common good for which they are responsible, may make the exercise of the right to immigrate subject to various juridical conditions, especially with regard to the immigrants' duties toward their country of adoption.

Republican Party: We need an immigration system that secures our borders, upholds the law and boosts our economy.

Democratic Party: We know the importance of our country's history as a nation of immigrants. We honor our fundamental values by treating all people who come to the United States with dignity and respect, and we always seek to embrace — not attack — immigrants.

EDUCATION

The Catechism (2223): Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity and disinterested service are the rule. The home is well-suited for education in the virtues.

Republican Party: Every child should have an equal opportunity to get a great education; no parent should be forced to send their child to a failing school.

Democratic Party: We're dedicated to ensuring the next generation has access to a quality education and the tools to drive our economy forward.

UNIVERSAL HEALTH CARE

The Catechism (1908): Certainly, it is the proper function of authority to arbitrate, in the name of the common good, between various particular interests; but it should make accessible to each what is needed to lead a truly human life: food, clothing, health, work, education and culture, suitable information, the right to establish a family and so on.
Republican Party: Government regulations have largely been responsible for the high costs associated with health care. We want to roll back regulations that have prevented market competition, allow patients to buy insurance across state lines, and shut the revolving door of lawsuits that have driven up the price of drugs.
Democratic Party: We have been fighting to secure universal health care for the American people for generations, and we are proud to be the party that passed Medicare, Medicaid and the Affordable Care Act.

ECONOMY

The Catechism (2431): A task of the state is that of overseeing and directing the exercise of human rights in the economic sector. However, primary responsibility in this area belongs not to the state but to individuals and to the various groups and associations which make up society.
Republican Party: We need to start growing America's economy instead of Washington's economy so that hardworking Americans see better wages and more opportunity.
Democratic Party: We are committed to helping all Americans meet the challenges of the 21st century by spurring job creation, rebuilding our infrastructure, investing in clean-energy technologies and small businesses, and making sure corporations, the wealthy and Wall Street pay their fair share.

TAXES

The Catechism (2240): Submission to authority and co-responsibility for the common good make it morally obligatory to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote and to defend one's country. Pay to all of them their dues: taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.
Republican Party: We condemn attempts by activist judges at any level of government to seize the power of the purse from the people's elected representatives by ordering higher taxes. We oppose tax policies that deliberately divide Americans or promote class warfare.
Democratic Party: We cut taxes for working families, provided help for small businesses and homeowners and strengthened consumer protections.

ENVIRONMENT

The Catechism (339): Man must therefore respect the particular goodness of every creature, to avoid any disordered use of things which would be in contempt of the Creator and would bring disastrous consequences for human beings and their environment.
Republican Party: Conservation is inherent in conservatism. As the pioneer of environmentalism a century ago, the Republican Party reaffirms the moral obligation to be good stewards of the God-given natural beauty and resources of our country.
Democratic Party: We are committed to curbing the effects of climate change, protecting America's natural resources and ensuring the quality of our air, water and land for current and future generations.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There is a show on public television in which people search their attics for heirlooms, dust them off, and trek them downtown for ruthless evaluation by teams of antique experts. Occasionally the owners are surprised to learn they have been harboring priceless artifacts: a Tiffany bowl used to catch the car keys, a Van Gogh in the downstairs bathroom. What they lugged downtown in a paper bag, they carry home in bubble wrap and receiving blankets.

It's the same way with treasures in Church life. Lots of things were lugged up into the attic years ago, and it was inevitable that some treasures ended up in the trash. Many Catholics tucked the sacrament of penance away in a dusty corner. We know it's there if we need it, but it is not the weekly routine it once was, like the Saturday bath "whether I need it or not." Today, especially in Lent and Advent or as part of personal preparation for marriage, ordination, or other life transitions, the sacrament of penance is a treasure of the Christian life waiting to be discovered. What's in your attic?

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
