From the Pastor's Desk…

Today, the Church celebrates the last Sunday of the liturgical year with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Our attention is drawn to that time when life as we experience it here on earth, ends, and eternal life begins. The first reading from Ezekiel and the Gospel of Matthew make clear the certainty of a final judgment where all people will hear their eternal destiny. The second reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians assures the baptized that Christ is truly alive and reigning and that the divine plan for humans to enjoy God's life forever is moving towards its fulfilment.

This is certainly good news for each of us trying our best to make our way to the Kingdom. Throughout our lives we may stray from the teachings of God and His Church. We may wander from what we know is the right path to take in life for a myriad of reasons. We may even consciously choose to abandon the will of God by not putting our faith into practice by keeping holy the sabbath day and by not providing for the needs of our most needy brothers and sisters. Fortunately, as Ezekiel reminds us today, as a shepherd tends his flock so too, will God tend his lost sheep. He will seek out the lost, the strayed he will bring back, the injured he will bind up and the sick he will heal.

But we must also never forget how Ezekiel says God will deal with the sleek and the strong. These, he says, the Lord will destroy "with justice." The meaning of this final phrase, which is translated as "shepherding them rightly" is that the Lord will tend to the well being of all the members of the flock, seeing that they get what they need and deserve.

Still we are all reminded that God's people, like their leaders, will be judged for their faithfulness to Him. Something we might all be thinking about as we make our upcoming Advent journey to Christmas and our earthly journey to God's Kingdom.

Now that I'm back to the parish and to work, I just wanted to express my sincere gratitude and thanks to everyone in our parish who called, sent a note or card, an email, or text while I was recuperating. For those who may not be aware, on November 5th I had a heart attack. Not something I ever thought would or could have happened to me. It was on one of those beautiful 70 + degree days as I was raking leaves that I experienced horrible chest pains. I thought I would go inside and perhaps the pain would diminish and I would come back and finish the job I started outside. Well, when the chest pain did not go away and was followed with breaking into a cold sweat, I knew it was time to get to the ER. Upon arrival at the ER and after a team of technicians were all over me, it was confirmed that I was in the midst of a heart attack. I was told they could not assist me in that location and was taken a half-an-hour away to a larger hospital where I was immediately brought to a Cath Lab and the doctor and team went up into the arteries of my heart with balloons (angioplasty). He found that one of the main arteries that feeds the heart (the LAD) was 100% blocked and put in a permanent stent. I understand now, that I was very fortunate in that I was told, 50% of patients do not survive this particular heart attack and that had I waited an hour longer, the lack of oxygen to the heart would have had fatal results.

I am so grateful to the doctors, nurses, technicians and assistants for all they did to save my life. I have also learned how important it is to listen to what your body is telling you. If something doesn't look or feel right/ normal get it checked out!

I had always felt good about never having to take any sort of pills or medications for the past 63 years... Now, it's 6 pills a day, definite changes with my diet as well as exercise routine. These are all manageable, however. The alternative would not have been so good. It's good to be back in action. I thank God and all of you who offered your prayers, calls and concerns.

Just a reminder…. This Thursday, November 26th is Thanksgiving Day. I hope all in our parish are planning to come out to celebrate this day of thanks by joining us for our St. Eugene Community Mass at 9:00 a.m. Thanksgiving morning. Remember there will not be a 6:30 a.m. Mass this morning as this will be the only Mass of the day so that we can all give thanks together for what our God and this beautiful country of ours provides us. We have much to be thankful for! Hope to see you there.

****

Also, as soon as our 2021 Parish calendars are available you will be able to pick them up on your way out of church at the exit doors. Please be sure to pick one up. They will then be available at the doors in the weeks following until all are taken.

THE SHEPHERD KING

The job of shepherd and the job of king couldn't be more different from each other. Shepherds are on the lowest rung of society, kings are at the top. But God says, through the prophet Ezekiel, that the Messiah will lead in a way very different from earthly authorities who lord it over their people and cause harm with their poor leadership.

Our King takes on the job himself. Christ, like a shepherd, will give rest, seek out the lost, bring back the strayed and scattered ones. He will heal the wounded and bind up the injured. He does not delegate, but will "shepherd them rightly." We have a king who cares for us and who is not afraid to "judge between one sheep and another" (Ezekiel 34:17). Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Putting faith into action

The story of the Last Judgment as told in Matthew's gospel is familiar to anyone who has been exposed to the New Testament. We have heard many times of the sheep and the goats. We know; at least somewhere in the back of our minds, that Jesus identifies with the hungry and the thirsty, with the stranger, the prisoner and the naked. It is no news to us that he calls them his sisters and his brothers. We can probably even quote scriptures that tell us to care for the sick and needy.

The problem is: what are we doing with that knowledge? If we know what's right, and do nothing, it's the same as not knowing at all. Today's reading calls us to action, not contemplation. Are you making a difference in the lives of those around you? Are you helping the poor and hungry in your community with your time and money? Stop. Don't offer an excuse. We're all busy, we all have obligations. Jesus still calls us to help the needy, now, no excuses accepted.

Where do you stand today, with the sheep or the goats? Maybe you're trying to straddle the fence, seeing how little you can do and still qualify for a place among the sheep. Consider today's reading a warning. It's time for us all to put our faith into action.

A NOTE FROM SOCIAL CONCERNS

Within the next few weeks we will welcome the season of Thanksgiving, followed by Advent. While not wanting to wish time away, I can't say that the end of 2020 will not come as a blessing.

This is the time of year that we usually have our Thanksgiving Food Drive. Like almost everything this year, Covid19 has altered our plans. We will be collecting monetary donations, but no food products are being accepted. The Funds will be turned over to Santa Maria Addolorata to purchase whatever is most needed in that parish.

Advent is the season of family and friends and sharing with those less fortunate. It is also the time we usually take names for the children of Our Lady of Mercy. Again, the increase in the recent spread of Covid19 has caused this tradition to be cancelled for this year.

Here again, we will be collecting monetary donations on December 5 & 6 and December 12 & 13. We will have envelopes available for you. Funds will be forwarded to Our Lady of Mercy for whatever need is greatest. Thank you for your understanding and your continued support.

Sincerely, Social Concerns Ministry

P.S. We will not be able to have a Mitten Tree this year either.

Decorating for Advent/Christmas

The Liturgical Decorating Committee will be meeting on Friday, November 27, at 6:30 pm. We need some "extra hands" to help change the sanctuary from Ordinary Time to the season of Advent. This will require putting away the autumn decorations, ironing and changing banners, setting up the Advent Wreath, and putting up 2 small Christmas trees. It should take us about 1 – 1 ½ hours to finish. The more help we receive, the faster things will get done!

Please call the rectory to leave your name and phone number and we will get back to you!

Even a smile that we can share with the poor is a source of love. An outstretched hand can always be enriched by the smile of those who quietly and unassumingly offer to help, inspired only by the joy of living as one of Christ's disciples.

Prayer for Christ the King Sunday

O God who has set before us the great hope that Your kingdom shall be established on earth, so rule our lives by Your Spirit that all Our thoughts, desires, and acts being made obedient unto You, Your power, Your glory and the mightiness of Your kingdom may be made known unto men. Grant this O merciful Father for Jesus Christ's sake, Your son, our Lord. Amen

Count your blessings

At times its seems difficult to be thankful. But once you stop to think about what you have and who you are, being grateful seems the most natural thing in the world. Most of us simply don't take time to count our blessings. If we did, our hearts would daily sing in gratitude. And, how much more grateful must we feel for our spiritual riches. We are by adoption children of God. We are sons and daughters of the Maker of the Universe! How can we for even one fleeting moment grouse ungratefully? We can not. We must be grateful always and everywhere.

BLESSED MIGUEL AGUSTÍN PRO (1891-1927)
November 23

Graham Greene's classic The Power and the Glory immortalized Mexico's persecuted Church of the 1920s. But photographs of Father Pro — arms outstretched to image Christ Crucified, kneeling in prayer before the firing squad, crumpled dead on the ground — vividly, visually remind us that not long ago, not far away, the faith we take for granted cost everything! Born to a mining family, Miguel became a Jesuit and was sent to study Catholic labor movements in Belgium in preparation for evangelizing Mexico's workers. But he returned to find a Mexico determined to annihilate Catholicism, and, like priests before him during Roman persecutions, England's Reformation, and in China today, ministered secretly to an "underground Church" until apprehended and sentenced to the firing squad. In his final moments, Father Pro blessed his executioners, forgave his enemies, and shouted: "Viva el Cristo Rey! — Long Live Christ the King!" — his defiant, dying proclamation of ultimate, transcendent loyalty. Father Pro's martyrdom reinvigorated that beleaguered Church, whose countless faithful, never again afraid, would throng John Paul II when he visited Pro's beloved Mexico fifty-two years later.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Today we have a modern feast, less than a century old, and placed at the very end of the liturgical cycle of Sundays only in 1969. In 1925, the world was in a sorry state from the vantage point of Pope Pius XI. The winds of war had swept the map of Europe raw, and ancient Christian dynasties had fallen in Russia and Spain. Although the Great War had ended, wars were breaking out everywhere. Fascism was already in control in Italy, and Nazism was on the horizon for Germany. The disorder making its claim on the human race was, the pope felt, an insult to the Divine Order. Pius XI designated the last Sunday in October as a day of universal recognition of the kingship of Christ. Creating this feast was an act of bravery by the pope, who was standing up against idolatry of the state and the dehumanizing forces of the modern world, things that are not hard to detect in today's world as well. In 1969 it seemed fitting to move the feast to a place of honor at the end of the year, a way of summing up the whole movement of the liturgical year toward the perfection of the Kingdom of God. In recent decades, many Protestant churches have adopted this day from the new Roman calendar, so it is shared now with the Church of England, the Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Lutheran churches, and others.

A GREATER MIRACLE

God creates out of nothing. Wonderful you say! Yes, but He does what is still more wonderful: He makes saints out of sinners.

S. Kirkegaard

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
