From the Pastor's Desk…

Today we celebrate with Catholics and many other Christian churches throughout the world the First Sunday of Advent and the beginning of a four-week season of preparation for Christmas. This season has always been a difficult and at the same time good one for many of us because it is constantly reminding us of the value and importance of patience and waiting. One of the biggest obstacles we face during Advent is that we do not like to wait. If we have to stand too long at the checkout counter or if our popcorn takes too long to pop in the microwave or if we're still operating from a dial-up connection as opposed to having a digital line we get frustrated and become impatient. Deep down we all know there is a value in waiting. It teaches us patience. More importantly, it helps us to realize we are not in total control of our lives, as much as we would like to think that we are. This season reminds us that there are things in life worth waiting for. When we get good at waiting, we might even realize that waiting can be half the fun. It makes the event for which we have waited even more pleasurable.

We are so programmed in our society to jump from one season to the next without ever stopping to pause and reflect upon what we've just done or even been through. The Halloween decorations are put away and without a breath the Christmas decorations are put in their place. I've even heard Christmas songs on the radio already. All this frenzy of activity short circuits our spiritual preparations for Christmas. We jump from Thanksgiving to Christmas without a pause. Somehow, we must reclaim this holy season, and not just because this is what is expected of us. We need to do it for ourselves in order to give some sacred space so that our season of Advent prepares us for a season of joy.

If you might be looking for ways to use the Season of Advent to seriously prepare for Christmas, then consider the following:

- keep the season at home with your own Advent wreath (we all need visual reminders to remain faithful to our ideals

- make all of your Christmas preparation activities like shopping, baking, card writing, decorating etc.… opportunities for prayer. You've heard the words of the song, "Whistle while you work", well try the same thing by praying while you work.

- make it a point to become more active and to participate more in daily or weekly mass.

- take another look at your bible at home…read it! Pick up some good Catholic meditation books to help you make the most of the season.
- get more involved in our St. Eugene charitable activities.
- finally, don't get trapped into celebrating Christmas before Christmas arrives; this way Christmas won't already be over for you before it truly arrives.

By now every one of us have had to make both minor and major adjustments to our daily routines due to the current COVID-19 world we are living in as well as its resulting safety protocols and concerns. It goes without saying that this has been so evident in our church practices as well. Never did I ever imagine a time when our churches would be closed for a period of time as they were this past spring. Nor did I ever imagine a day when our church attendance and participation would be so affected as is the case presently. What were once regular practices for us have now had to be modified, drastically changed and even abandoned. Hopefully, temporarily.

As we now begin the Advent season and approach the Christmas season, we might all be thinking that what were once our regular practices of going to confession and attending Christmas Masses will be the same. Unfortunately, they will not be this year. The Archdiocese has mandated that individual confessions within the context of our usual Advent Penance Services are not permitted due to the logistical difficulty in maintaining privacy, the need to be physically distanced while in the pews, and cleaning, sanitizing and other safety and health requirements. We had hoped that the option of offering General absolution would be permitted this year in the context of an Advent Reconciliation Service, however, it has not been granted. For this reason, there will be no Advent Reconciliation Service this year as well as into the future if COVID health concerns remain a reality. For this reason, all are encouraged to make an Act of Contrition before receiving Holy Communion before attending Christmas Masses or any Mass, for that matter during these days of COVID-19, and, if you are in a state of sin that would have prompted you to normally come to confession. These are extenuating circumstances that have warranted extenuating responses. Confessions will be at our regular time which is the last Saturday of the month at 4:00 p.m. and, of course, by appointment.

Regarding attending Christmas Masses this year… While secular society begins Christmas the day after Halloween and concludes it on the 25th of December, we know that the Solemnity of Christmas is not a Hallmark holiday or simply a 24-hour celebration. We are reminded that Christmas is an eight-day liturgical moment, with two of the days of the octave falling on the weekend of December 26 and 27. For this reason, and for the sake of all those that might be planning on attending Masses this Christmas, we ask that you consider making your Christmas Duty throughout the 8 day octave that is the Christmas Season. In this way, our Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses will not be overcrowded where people will have to be turned away. Remember, we can only safely allow our maximum of 275 people for each Mass. We also must leave enough time between Masses for the church to be sanitized and cleaned in preparation for the next Mass. This year everyone planning on attending Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses will have to register on-line by going to our parish website beginning December 1st. If you do not have a computer, you can call the parish office during regular business hours and one of our secretaries will be able to sign you up if there is space available. Because of the potential for larger crowds for Christmas, walk-ins will unfortunately need to be limited.

All parishioners will be receiving a mailing by December 1st with the complete Advent and Christmas Season schedule of Services and Masses as well as other important information regarding information we want everyone in our parish to be aware of. This is because many are not able to get to church, pick up a parish bulletin or have the means to access a computer.

We ask for your understanding, patience, good will and generosity during these very challenging and unprecedented days.

Also, as soon as our 2020 Parish calendars are available, you will be able to pick them up on your way out of church at the exit doors. Please be sure to pick one up. They will then be available at the doors in the weeks following until all are taken.

MARK'S JESUS

Mark's Gospel is the shortest and tersest of all four. The discourses of Jesus tend to be terser as well. Mark's portrayal of Jesus has none of the poetry of the Sermon on the Mount or the Sermon on the Plain as in Matthew or Luke, nor the extensive, reflective "I Am" discourses as in John. Mark's Jesus "cuts to the chase," we would say today. This is reflected quite well in today's passage.

It is no accident that the dialogue of Jesus at this point in the Gospel according to Mark —t he concluding words about the end of the world — immediately before his passion, is riddled with exclamation points and an overall sense of urgency. We would do well to re-tool our own way of living this Advent, for we live in a world urgently in need of hearing the message of Jesus proclaimed. It's time for us to "wake up!" and get out into the world to do it.

A NOTE FROM SOCIAL CONCERNS

This is the time of year that we usually have our Toy Drive. Like almost everything this year, Covid19 has altered our plans. We will be collecting monetary donations, but no Toys. The Funds will be turned over to Our Lady of Mercy to purchase whatever is most needed in that parish.

We will be collecting monetary donations on December 5 & 6 and December 12 & 13. We will have envelopes available for you.

Thank you for your understanding and your continued support.

Sincerely, Social Concerns Ministry

P.S. We will not be able to have a Mitten Tree this year either.

First Sunday of Advent

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Long ago in northern Europe, the growing dark and winter weather in Advent forced people to remove the wheels from their carts and replace them with snow runners. The wheels were hung high in the rafters of the house, fitted out with lanterns, and wound tightly with evergreen boughs. The first wreaths were windows into heaven, a source of light, a comforting sign of the victory of the light of Christ over our world's dark wildernesses, its mountainous obstacles, its valleys of need.

The Advent wreath started in the home, and only later appeared in church. Its four candles represent the four Sundays of our journey: typically three purple, one rose. Why not set a wreath in your own home as a place for Advent prayer? Don't let a shortage of purple candles discourage you: some use a deep blue, others have white candles and weave blue and purple flowers, seashells, and pine cones into the green. When the sun sets tonight, light a single candle, sing a verse of a well-loved Advent hymn, and name a mountain to be leveled, a valley to be filled.

The earth and its poor urgently demand a sound economy and a sustainable development. Therefore, we are called to rethink our mental and moral priorities so that they are in conformity with God's commandments and the common good.

Make ready His room

Advent is the perfect time to clear and prepare the Way for the coming Messiah, a bit of winter cleaning for all of us who desire peace. Through reflection and prayer, by reading and meditation, we can make our hearts a place where a blessing of peace would desire to abide and where the birth of the Prince of Peace might take place. Daily try to make an Advent examination of your heart. Are there feelings of discrimination toward race, sex, or religion? Is there a lingering resentment, an unforgiven injury living in our hearts? Do we look down upon others of lesser social standing or educational achievement? Are we generous with the gifts that have been given to us, seeing ourselves as their stewards and not their owners? Are we reverent of others, their ideas and needs, and of creation? These and other questions become an Advent "broom" sweeping the darkness of sin out of our hearts to make room for Jesus' blessed manger.

FEAST OF FAITH

What Is the Mass?

What is the Mass? There is no simple answer to that question. The Church uses many different images and terms to describe our most important prayer. The Mass is the celebration of the Eucharist, a Greek word that means "thanksgiving." It is the Lord's Supper. It is the Breaking of the Bread. It is the memorial of the Lord's passion, death, and resurrection. It is the Holy Sacrifice, in which the sacrifice of Christ on the cross is perpetuated. It is the holy and divine liturgy, the sacred mysteries. It is the source and summit of our Christian lives, the new covenant, the work of the Holy Spirit, the paschal mystery. The many different words and images that we use when we speak of the Mass are not signs of confusion, but of wonder at what the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1328) calls the "inexhaustible richness" of the Eucharist. The Mass, our greatest prayer and our deepest mystery, is celebrated every day, many times a day, the world over. The Eucharist is both "bread from heaven" and "daily bread." The Mass is our everyday miracle.
