From the Pastor's Desk…

As we celebrate the Feast of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph this weekend, I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of you, our parish members, as well as all of your family and friends a truly happy, holy and peaceful Christmas season. For those who have lost significant loved ones in your life, especially if their loss was the result of COVID-19 complications, I pray that the memories you hold of good times spent with each other may be a source of comfort and peace.

There are so many individuals who do so much for our parish that many times go unnoticed or unnamed. In a special way I would like to personally thank my brother priests, fellow staff members, our school principal and faculty - who also happen to be our religious education catechists, parish secretaries, maintenance personnel, Liturgy and Environment and Art Committee members, Commission and ministry heads and members, sacristans, musicians and all others who enable our parish to run as smoothly, efficiently and effectively as it does in the service of those who grace us with their presence. Merry Christmas to you all and my sincerest thanks for all that you do.

This past Friday and throughout the Christmas Season we as Christians continue to celebrate the great event of Christ's birth. There were among us many family members, friends and relatives of our parish members. There was also the return of many in our parish who join us only a few times during the year. There were also many who ventured out of their homes for the first time since this pandemic began. To each of you I say welcome! And we are glad that you were and are here with us. The journey of faith is not an easy one. I encourage you to open your hearts and to accept the invitation of taking another look at your faith and its practice in the context of the larger Christian community that gathers weekly here at St. Eugene. Perhaps this might mean looking at your church from a different perspective. Maybe it might mean asking yourself what you can better do to bring about Christ's presence among us, rather than solely expecting the Church to do this for you. After all, WE, together, are Christ's Body, the Church here on earth.

Talk to any fully participating and worshipping member here at St. Eugene and they will tell you of the great gift Church membership is to them.

I also want to express my gratitude to all in our parish for instilling something so important in me. HOPE! Especially with all the challenges that we are facing these days. This in fact was one of the significant themes of the past Advent Season. Your willingness to take on the daily challenges of parish life, your enthusiasm and desire to meet the growing needs of our community, and the time, energy and support you give to not only our parish, but to one another, gives me and our staff reason to keep on looking toward a brighter future for our parish. I have always believed in the old adage that a parish and church are only what we are willing to make it, and how much we are willing to give of ourselves to better serve God's people. We are truly blessed here at St. Eugene as we see all the great things God is accomplishing here through our community, one person at a time. Thank you for helping us here to continue to be hope-filled.

On behalf of our entire staff here at St. Eugene, I want to wish each of you a very Merry Christmas Season and a peaceful and COVID free New Year 2021.

Fr. Rich Yanos

Christmas Season 2020

The Sacrament of Reconciliation -

Due to this year's COVID-19 health concerns and under Cardinal Cupich's direction, if you have concerns about your health and safety in going to confession all the faithful are asked to make an Act of Contrition before receiving Holy Communion during this Christmas season's Masses. You do not need to go to formal Confession until further notice.

WE ARE GOD'S HOLY FAMILY

The scriptures of Israel are filled with many stories of barren couples who were miraculously granted the gift of children by God. Surely the best known among these is the first reading from today, from which Luke took inspiration when he recounted the miraculous birth of John the Baptist to Zechariah and Elizabeth, and the more miraculous birth of Jesus to Mary and Joseph. In each instance, we are given examples or role models of those who trusted in God. More than examples of those who trust, they are models of self-surrender. They abandoned their own presuppositions and prejudices about the workings of the world and turned their lives over to belief in a God who can make life grow where none ought to; a God who can turn death around into a new and unimagined life; a God who can, today, take a tiny child of humble parents in an insignificant town and make him into a light for all the world. This is what we, as God's holy family, are called to do each day: to trust not in ourselves and the way we think things should be, but to open ourselves and surrender ourselves in faith to a God of endless promise. PLEASE COME — VISIT JESUS

To pray is to light a candle in the darkness. Prayer rouses us from the tepidness of a purely horizontal existence, lifts our gaze to higher things, makes us attuned to the Lord, allows God to be close to us; it frees us from our solitude and gives us hope.

CHILDREN OF ETERNITY

You are children of eternity. Your immortal crown awaits you, to reward your duty and love. You may indeed sow here in tears, but you may be sure there to reap in joy.

—St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Is yours a holy family?

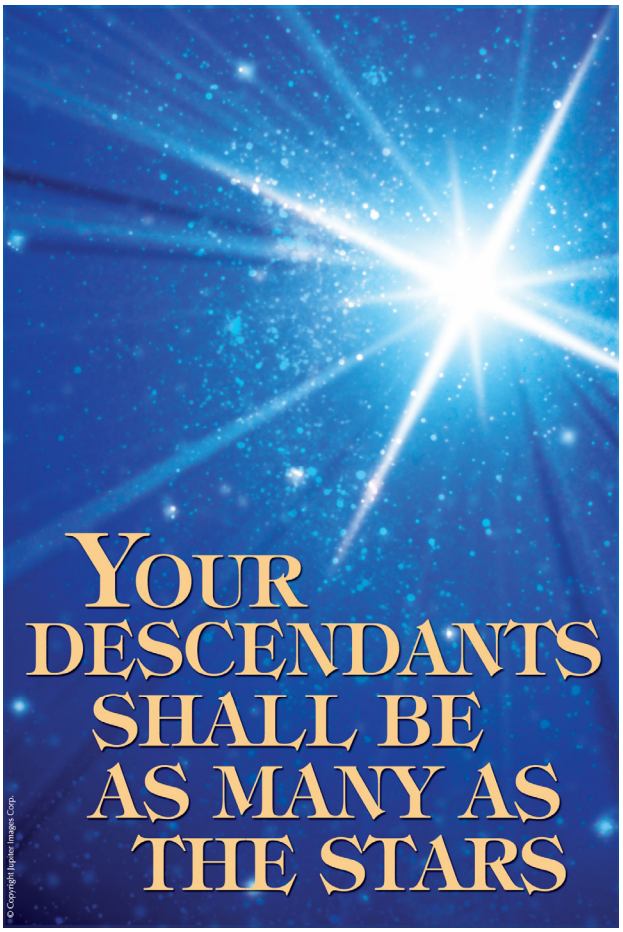

When the Bible says holy it means 'separate' or 'different.' The word implies being healthy and whole in a world where much is un-healthy and fragmented.

Family holiness includes humor and laughter, compassion and understanding, and the capacity to forgive and be forgiven, to love and be loved. That's holiness.

Holy families are not free from conflict, nor are they free from pain. Holiness in families, rather, comes from learning to forgive and to be reconciled, and learning to face our problems and do something about them.

In family life, holy means striving to surrender to God's light within us when the darkness around us seems overwhelming. It means struggling day after day to bring creative order - if only a bit of it - to the chaos in our lives. When we work at cultivating forgiveness, reconciliation, and community, we embody God's holy will in the context of family life.

Consider it with prayer and hope this week. Is your family a holy family?

PLEASE PRAY

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the last century, a few new feasts were blended into the Church year, including today's. After World War I, the chaos of daily life in Europe made its impact felt on the family structure. Partly to offer Christians an image of hope and holiness in married family life, and also to promote the welfare of children, today's feast was "invented" in 1921. In 1969, it became a feast of Christmas.

The prayers today remind us not only of family life, but of life in the community of faith. We ponder the mystery of a God who loves us dearly enough to embrace the struggles, joys, and daily sorrows of family life. The message of Christmas shines through: God-with-us is available to us in the ordinary patterns of our lives and commitments. The lives of people who raise their children in difficult circumstances, and of people who remain faithful to life in the Church in spite of some of their own family struggles, occupy a special place in our hearts today in prayer.

FEAST OF FAITH
Processions

Why does the liturgy begin with a procession? It is not just a practical matter of getting the ministers of the liturgy from the sacristy to the sanctuary. The procession is a powerful sign of who we are as Christian people. We are not static, staying in one place. We are going somewhere. Our procession leads us to the altar, sign of Christ's presence in our midst. We move, we process, because we recognize our need for what Christ is preparing for us at that table. We go forward eagerly, because we are hungry for that heavenly food.

This procession is an orderly one: servers, deacon, priest presider. Each is set apart by distinctive vesture: albs for the altar servers, dalmatic for the deacon, chasuble for the priest. The procession is an image of the hierarchical structure of the Church. On a deeper level it is an image of unity in diversity. We are all on a journey to the heavenly city, but each of us is clothed with different gifts. We all receive the call to service, but not in the same way. Only by coming together in all our wonderful variety can we achieve the work of the kingdom.

—Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

What is the Ministry of Prayer?

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the church, community, and world. The goal of this ministry is to provide us with the opportunity to pray "together while apart." Although this ministry was originally directed to those who are homebound, it has expanded to include any of us who would like to pray as a group, even though we never formally get together, using the prayer intentions provided for us, while in our favorite place to pray. The prayers can be as simple as an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, or it can be a simple conversation with Our Lord, or it could be taking a few minutes to meditate on the prayer intention. Whatever prayer method is used is the best prayer.

With Covid forcing us to spend more time at home, perhaps this would be a good time to begin a new habit, especially since we are now in the season of Advent.

If you would like to join the Ministry of Prayer, simply fill out the form below and you will receive the prayer intentions for the months of December, January, and February. There is no fee; there are no meetings to attend. Every three months, you will receive the prayer intentions for the next 3 months. All you are asked to do is to pray for the intention of that day — that's it! There is power in prayer, especially when we pray together — even if we are all in our own homes! Won't you join us?

Please fill in the form below; drop it off at the rectory office; drop it in the collection basket; mail it in; or email the information to us.

St. Eugene Parish Give Central Sign Up Instructions

The following is a list of step-by-step instructions to sign up for Give Central to support St. Eugene Parish. If you have any questions or need some help, feel free to call Business Manager Anthony Woldeit at the rectory 773-775-6659 or email at awoldeit@st-eugene.org.

1. Go to our website www.st-eugene.org and click on the Give Central picture located in the middle of the welcome page. Clicking this link will take you directly to St. Eugene's Give Central page.

2. You will be brought to the page titled "Ways to Support St. Eugene Parish". Select one of the featured collections including Sunday, Social Concerns, and others. If you do not see the collection you want, click "View More" and make your selection(s)

3. After selecting a collection, enter the amount you wish to contribute, the first payment date, the frequency, and whether you would like to have ongoing giving or select an end date. Then select "Add to my Gift Basket".

4. You can then decide to "Add More" collections and follow steps 2 and 3 above or select "Checkout".

5. You will be brought to a screen to review the selections you have made in your gift basket, and if all looks good, you are ready to "Continue"

6. We encourage you to sign up by selecting "Complete Profile". You will be brought to a screen to enter your personal information including address, phone number, email addresses, and your preferred payment method.

7. After filling in the pertinent information, be sure to check the box and select "Register and Confirm Gift"

That's it! You will be brought to your home page where you can add more gifts or simply logout. We sincerely appreciate all your generosity.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.

All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID, be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail within 21 days of receipt of the promotion form. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Lowe's and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Expires 9/30/20.
