From the Pastor's Desk…

As we begin the 2nd week of Lent, today's Gospel brings us to a high mountain where Jesus took his disciples Peter, James, and John. Here he was transfigured before them. What an awesome experience this must have been for each of them. Peter especially, is so taken in by the experience, that in his excitement he decides to build three tents; one for Jesus and one each for Moses and Elijah who appeared with the Lord and were conversing with him. There must have been a reason why Jesus chose to have only these three disciples present for this revelation. Whatever reason that may have been, it was clear that they were not ready to hear, nor were they able to fully comprehend, the magnitude of the message of God's voice that came from the clouds proclaiming Jesus as God's beloved Son.

In the chapter that precedes this one, Jesus shares with his disciples the prediction of his suffering and death. Once again it is clear that Peter does not yet understand what Jesus' role and mission is as the Messiah. This is made clear when Peter pulls Jesus aside and rebukes him saying, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing will ever happen to you."

Reflecting upon this inability of Peter, and often times the other disciples, to comprehend the mission of Christ, I am reminded of how much we are like the disciples of Jesus. Think of the many examples and signs we are given of God's presence among us and yet we so often lack the faith to accept them for what they are.

Perhaps this week's prayer for all of us might be to reflect upon the many ways God is trying to make His presence known to us through our neighbor, stranger, nature, workplace, estranged family member, church, sacraments, etc. We might even take our prayer a step further and ask the next question: What is He trying to say to us?

Stations of the Cross will be offered each Friday throughout Lent at 7:00 p.m. in church except for Friday, March 19th, St. Joseph's Day. All in our parish are invited to join us in church for a special evening Mass as we honor St. Joseph on his feast day, Friday, March 19th at 7:00 p.m.

In the vestibule of church, you will find cards with the pictures of all our Chicago seminarians with a little history and biography of each of these men on the back sides. Please feel free to take one of these cards home with you so that you can pray for them and their journey toward the priesthood and hopefully their ordinations. The road to the priesthood is not easy today and your prayers for these seminarians might really make a difference for each of them.

Have a great week ahead everyone and don't forget that this Friday, March 5th will be our third Knights of Columbus Fish Fry. You can pre-order your delicious dinner selections for carry-out beginning at 3:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. by calling 312-340-9362 or by simply stopping by the Shaunessy Center to put your order in personally. This is a real Lenten treat that you won't want to miss out on. You will find the menu in today's bulletin.

Good Grief

Dealing with Loss in the Midst of a Pandemic.
This workshop will help you to understand what grief is, how to identify grief in yourself and in others, and how to handle grief in difficult times. COVID—19 has changed the world. People are more lonely, frightened, and shut in than ever before. Some have experienced tremendous loss. Understanding the various loss that leads to grief and how grief manifests in our daily lives will be important to getting through these tough times.

Dr. Cobb is a consultant that brings permanent and revolutionary change to individuals and organizations. The kind of change that promotes a healthy work environment and that will help your community bring about growth and prosperity. A Motivational Speaker, Educator, and Chaplain who engages others through a Ministry of Hospitality, welcoming everyone from where they are, and inviting them into community. He focuses on leadership development, self-regulation, compassion, DEI, grief, fartherhood and building the beloved community.

A NEW IDEA

Everybody thinks of changing humanity; nobody thinks of changing themselves.

—Leo Tolstoy

Second Sunday of Lent

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The basis of Abraham's test in the first reading is the fact that his neighbors followed a religious system that demanded human sacrifice. In offering Isaac's life on an altar of sacrifice, he is following long-accustomed religious practice. Ancient people accepted this because they thought that life was an ever-renewing circle: what had been lost would be restored in time. But here, God springs this trap and gives Abraham, Isaac, and you and me, a future. From now on, God will provide the sacrifice. From this point on, our lives have a direction, a purpose, a goal.

The faithful following of Lent and its consoling, challenging scriptures strengthens and prepares us to remember the Lord's passion and resurrection. Today, many parishes welcome home the elect, men and women chosen on the First Sunday of Lent for the Easter sacraments, from a celebration with the bishop. The scriptures today are chosen with them in mind, to steady their steps, to clear their vision, to strengthen their resolve: "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31).

FEAST OF FAITH

The Opening Prayer

At the conclusion of the Introductory Rites of the Mass, the presider says or chants the words "Let us pray," followed by the Opening Prayer. This prayer is also called a "collect" because it gathers or "collects" the prayers of the entire assembly into one. The Roman collects that we pray in our liturgy—noted for the brevity, clarity, and conciseness of the Latin originals—date from a variety of periods. Some are quite new; others reach back more than a thousand years. They are truly treasures of our tradition.

The Opening Prayer can be divided into four main parts: 1) the invitation, or "Let us pray"; 2) the silence that follows, during which each member of the assembly lifts up before God his or her own prayers; 3) the collect itself, spoken or sung by the priest; 4) and finally the Amen, by which the assembly says, "yes," "may it be so," making the prayer their own.

The collect itself almost always follows the same pattern. It begins with an invocation to God. A petition follows, usually very general. We ask for health, strength, wisdom, grace, forgiveness, faith, awareness. Every collect concludes by offering the prayer to God through Jesus Christ. With the Amen of the assembly, the Introductory Rites of the Mass come to an end.

ST. EUGENE YOUNG ADULTS

The St. Eugene Parish Young Adults group will be participating in the Archdiocese of Chicago's Lenten Life Groups program! Lenten Life Groups are faith-based small groups that are centered in Christ and in community. They offer a safe space for young adults ages 21-39 to grow in their faith and seek deeper relationship with Christ.

Our group will meet on Tuesday nights from 8:00 PM-9:00 PM via Zoom. The first session began on February 23, 2021, and we will meet for six weeks during Lent.

We will reflect on the Sunday Gospels and discuss the 7 deadly sins and corresponding virtues. All are welcome! No prep work is needed, and no need to attend all sessions! Come experience the season of Lent with a young adults community!

To register, please visit https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc4-oyNpkeXxsLbpBwuNold-nHYrm_qyrmz7i_TClsVykyzA/viewform?fbclid=IwAR31564qAycOymIfRv4U66hjlHtgahJMYAro05FVKid8bTlpeFumb6NM1gc or email youngadults@st-eugene.org.

St. Eugene Parish Give Central Sign Up Instructions

The following is a list of step-by-step instructions to sign up for Give Central to support St. Eugene Parish. If you have any questions or need some help, feel free to call Business Manager Anthony Woldeit at the rectory 773-775-6659 or email at awoldeit@st-eugene.org.

1. Go to our website www.st-eugene.org and click on the Give Central picture located in the middle of the welcome page. Clicking this link will take you directly to St. Eugene's Give Central page.

2. You will be brought to the page titled "Ways to Support St. Eugene Parish". Select one of the featured collections including Sunday, Social Concerns, and others. If you do not see the collection you want, click "View More" and make your selection(s)

3. After selecting a collection, enter the amount you wish to contribute, the first payment date, the frequency, and whether you would like to have ongoing giving or select an end date. Then select "Add to my Gift Basket".

4. You can then decide to "Add More" collections and follow steps 2 and 3 above or select "Checkout".

5. You will be brought to a screen to review the selections you have made in your gift basket, and if all looks good, you are ready to "Continue"

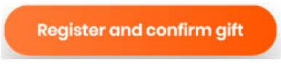

6. We encourage you to sign up by selecting "Complete Profile". You will be brought to a screen to enter your personal information including address, phone number, email addresses, and your preferred payment method.

7. After filling in the pertinent information, be sure to check the box and select "Register and Confirm Gift"

That's it! You will be brought to your home page where you can add more gifts or simply logout. We sincerely appreciate all your generosity.

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families
for the selfless acts they perform
for us in our time of need.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen

We pray for our loved ones who are serving in any branch of the Armed Forces during this time of conflict.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.

Thank You

Thank you for advertising in our church bulletin.
I am patronizing your business because of it!

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
