From the Pastor's Desk…

Happy Easter to all in our parish family! After a seemingly long and very unusual Lenten season and Holy Week, and with a real glimpse of spring in the air, somehow Easter has a way of reassuring us that no matter how difficult life may seem at times, there is reason to believe things do change and they can and will get better.

For many in our cities, nation and world who have contracted COVID-19 or have lost loved ones as a result of the current coronavirus pandemic, this has turned out to be a very painful and challenging time in our world's history. Today, however, we are reminded that not even death can ultimately separate us from the love of our God and each other. What a glorious message to hear and what a reality to put our faith in!

I personally find comfort these days when I reflect upon what Jesus' friends and disciples must have felt after witnessing the trial, suffering, pain and crucifixion of Jesus, only to find after coming to His tomb, that He was not there. At first, they must have been confused and perhaps even upset that someone may have taken His body. Remember, however, Jesus had prepared them for these events so many times and in so many ways, but because of their state of mind, they were unable (at least for the moment) to put it all together. Even the last line of the gospel today tells us that… "they did not yet understand the scripture that He had to rise from the dead".

Despite this confusion, I can't help but believe that in the back of their minds, there was some glimmer of HOPE, that just maybe, their friend had risen just as He told them He would. Of course, we all know the rest of the story. If it isn't really clear to you, continue to join us throughout the rest of the Easter season and beyond and you will hear this GOOD NEWS unfold.

The comfort I spoke of earlier, that I find in the events that led up to and that followed Jesus' death and resurrection is in this: each of us can relate to pain, anxiety, anguish and suffering in our lives; especially, now, as we have been witnessing the sickness and loss of lives as a result of this worldwide pandemic. Whether we experience the loss of a job, the news of a life-threatening illness of a loved one, being the victim of racism or bigotry, worry about your teenage son or daughter and the crowd they're hanging with, alienation by your family, etc., the list goes on and on. In all of these life experiences, without the HOPE that they are not ends in themselves, we can get stuck, feel trapped in a seemingly bottomless pit with no way out. It is the victory over these realities that Jesus won for us. His resurrection is a real reminder to us that these little deaths and even our ultimate earthly death, are not ends in themselves, but opportunities for new beginnings. This is hard to accept, though, when you are in the midst of situations and circumstances that seem to be so painful and with no way out of them.

Look at Christ's disciples, however. It took them months and I'm sure, for some of them, even years to put Jesus' words and final days into perspective. Enough at least to bring some sense of comfort and HOPE to continue living in spite of their personal losses and pain. Enough to continue on the journey of life with all of its twists and bends.

This is what Easter is all about – FAITH, HOPE and LOVE -- Faith to trust that somehow God has a plan for us much like He had for His own beloved Son. Hope that despite the challenges and obstacles life puts before us, God walks with us to embrace them and overcome them. And love, that the depth of love Jesus had for us, to ultimately give His life for the salvation of all, is still ours today.

From all your priests and staff here at St. Eugene, we wish you a happy, blessed, healthy and Christ-centered Easter season.

REJOICE AND BE GLAD

During the first three or four centuries of Christianity, if you asked a Christian to name the feast days of the church, your answer would have been a puzzled stare, for there was only one feast: the Resurrection of the Lord. Every Sunday was a feast celebrating the one great feast. Even though our calendar now has many beautiful and holy feasts, we must continually be called back to the fact that all these other feasts exist because of the feast of Christ's passover from death to life. The psalm today proclaims this message well: "This is the day." It is not one of many days, but it is the day of all days, the one that gives all the others their origin, purpose, meaning, and destiny. Listen carefully to Peter's speech in Acts with its recollection of the Passion, to the words of the apostle Paul, and to the account of Mary Magdalene, John, and Peter finding the empty tomb, and you will hear the many wonderful works that God has done for us through Christ. Rejoice and be glad! Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

with Benediction at 5:45 pm

"The Church beseeches that we may venerate Christ in the Eucharist. We show this "veneration" by going to visit Christ in the tabernacle. He dwells there, really present, he who was present in the crib, at Nazareth, upon the mountains of Judea, in the supper-room, upon the cross."

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It has been said that the most convincing sign of the Risen Christ is the Risen Christian. Today, in parishes around the world, new life is drawn from the waters of baptism, and new Christians are thrilled to see the crowds pour in to join in the feast. On Easter, we do not say the Creed, but rather renew our baptismal promises with hearty responses. We are taking the first joyful steps on a fifty-day-long celebration. In the southern hemisphere, the world is slipping into winter, but for us in North America, the earth itself seems to sing hymns to Christ's victory. Look this morning for the fresh paschal candle standing near the baptismal waters. It was consecrated in the hours of the night, will burn brightly for fifty days whenever we gather for prayer, and will glow again at every baptism and every funeral in the year ahead. Even though we may be gathered around the candle someday in sadness, today's joy at Christ's victory over death will shine through.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Eucharist: Food for Resurrection

How do we celebrate Easter, the greatest of our Christian feasts? By doing what we do every Sunday and every day: celebrating the Mass. On the first Easter, as the heartbroken disciples walked the road to Emmaus, the Lord was with them but they did not realize it. They only recognized him “in the breaking of the bread” (Luke 22:35).

It is the same for us. In the Mass—the breaking of the bread—we meet the risen Lord together. We meet him in each other—for by our baptism into his death and resurrection, we have become members of one body, the Body of Christ. We meet him in his word—in the liturgy the scriptures are proclaimed to us, that they might take root and grow in us. And we meet him in a special way in the Eucharist, the sacrament of his Body and Blood, which is food for resurrection: “whoever eats this bread will live forever” (John 6:51). The Lord is risen indeed, and it is the Risen One who truly presides at this and every Eucharist.

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly
to listen to each other attentively
to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely
to persevere in your holy will courageously
to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good
to hand on your gifts to future generations.
May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God,
forever and ever. Amen

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
