From the Pastor's Desk…

On this Second Sunday of Easter we hear the Gospel of John. He tells us that the disciples, fearful and panicked, were gathered together on the evening of that first day of the week. Jesus came to them, stood in their midst, offered them peace, showed them his hands and side, breathed on them giving them the Holy Spirit and gave them the power and gift of forgiving sins. Thomas, however, was not with them at this time. Because he was not -- he doubted. Doubt can be a very debilitating reality for each of us. For the Gospel writer, John, the most important requirement for discipleship is belief in Jesus. One of, if not, the most important purpose of the Gospels is to lead its audience to belief. Belief does not simply consist in believing that Jesus is the Christ, or the Son of Man, but rather in believing that Jesus was sent as the Father's unique envoy and exclusive mediator. With this understanding the exclusivity of Jesus' role is clear. Do you believe this to be true? Or are you at times like a doubting Thomas?

Today is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. The Sunday after Easter was set aside by Saint Pope John Paul II as Divine Mercy Sunday in honor of Saint Faustina Kowalska, who was a young nun of the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Cracow, Poland. On February 22, 1931, our Lord was said to have appeared to this simple nun, bringing with him a message of Mercy for all humankind. For this reason, many pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy that utilizes the Rosary as the way of keeping this prayer. This year there will not be a formal prayer time set aside for the Divine Mercy Devotion, however, our church will be left open from 1:00 p.m. until 2:30 p.m. today, Sunday, April 11, for anyone who might wish to come in and pray the Divine Mercy prayers privately.

I sincerely want to thank all those who, in the midst of the COVID-19 reality, came back to church this past Lenten season and Holy Week and especially the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. (If you recall, last year our churches were all closed for Holy Week and Easter). Your presence and participation enabled our community to prayerfully celebrate the Paschal Mystery. May we always be a grateful people giving thanks to our loving God for the gift of His only Son who not only suffered and died for us but has given each of us the opportunity of attaining eternal life. May this Easter Season be a time of thanksgiving and gratitude for us all.

In that same spirit of gratitude, I would also like to thank all of our parishioners who generously gave of their time to help us accommodate the over 2,000 worshippers who were here with us last week. My sincerest thanks to all of our Liturgical Ministers, Eucharistic Ministers, Registration Table Workers, Lectors, Seaters, Sacristans and Sprayers, as well as our Music Department Director – Lydia Hilado and her brother, Vince for enhancing our liturgies with a rich sound and beautiful music. A special note of gratitude to Victor Hilado for faithfully videoing our weekend and Holy Week liturgies for our online viewing community. Thanks also to Terri Swiderski and our entire Church Decorating Committee, to Antonio Lara, Romulo Jara, Steve D'Agostino and John Lemus – our Maintenance Staff - for making sure everything needed to accommodate all who were here to worship was in place, sanitized and ready for use. Thanks to our dedicated team of Collection Counters under the direction of Don Feist who has faithfully made sure this task was meticulously carried out throughout the many months of the pandemic. Thanks to our dedicated secretaries for all the behind-the-scenes work they do on a daily basis. Thanks to Frs. Greg Rom, Ed Pacocha and Jim O'Brien for their ministry here at St. Eugene. Their passion and willingness to help wherever needed as well as their love for our community of faith truly helps to make the awesome task of pastoring our community so much more manageable. If I have forgotten anyone, please know that it was not intentional and that our parish is better served because of you. How blessed we are here!

We have become accustomed in our parish to using the "Little Blue and Little Black Books" for our Advent and Lenten personal prayer and reflections. We are also making available to you the "Little White Books" to enhance your prayer life during the fifty days of the Easter Season. These books will be available at the entrance of church as you enter to register as well as at all the exits when you leave until all copies have been distributed. Please take a copy for yourself and enjoy our Catholic traditions, customs, Saint of the day, historical facts and informational pieces that are contained within to enhance your spiritual life.

Finally, I'd like to let all in our parish know that as we are slowly returning to our normal schedules and routines, we will again be offering the Sacrament of Reconciliation on a weekly basis immediately. Beginning this week confessions will be available every Saturday at 4:00 p.m. until all those present are heard.

As an aside many ask the question, "How often should I go to confession?" The Church's Code of Canon Law reads this way: "After having reached the age of discretion, each member of the faithful is obliged to confess faithfully his or her grave sins at least once a year" (Canon 989) (Canon 916 explains that anyone who is conscious of grave sin may not receive the Eucharist without first having gone to confession.)

But is it a good idea for Catholics to stay away from confession for years on end, even if they have no mortal sins to confess? Probably not. Over and over, spiritual writers encourage the faithful to use the sacrament of penance perhaps monthly, as a path not only to pardon, but to spiritual progress and inner peace.

Have a Happy Easter Season everyone!

Fr. Rich Yanos

DOUBT

The desire to be able to prove the existence of a divinity has troubled humanity since human consciousness first became aware of the divine. To this very day we are fond of saying that any number of things—from sunsets to hot fudge sundaes—are "proof that there is a God." We get so caught up in the story of "doubting Thomas" that we fail to notice that today's Gospel gives us John's account of Pentecost, the bestowing of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples following the Resurrection. Thomas, evidently, missed out not only on seeing the Risen Christ, but receiving the Holy Spirit as well. This is not to be taken lightly and, perhaps, makes Thomas' disbelief a bit easier to comprehend. It also makes his professing that Jesus is his Lord and God—the only time the New Testament explicitly refers to Jesus Christ as "God"—more remarkable.

Doing His works of mercy

On this Sunday celebrating God's Divine Mercy, let us remember that we are His Hands here on earth, serving Him by serving His children in need. How long has it been since you contemplated those Works of Mercy you were taught as a child?

1. To feed the hungry
2. To give drink to the thirsty
3. To clothe the naked
4. To shelter the homeless
5. To visit the imprisoned
6. To visit the sick and infirm
7. To bury the dead.

Let us all pray to have not just a spirit of Mercy, but hands that are busy showing His mercy to those less fortunate.

Prayer for Mercy

O Lord, You who are everlasting mercy, give me a tender heart today towards those to whom the morning light brings less joy than it brings to me: Those in whom the pulse of life grows weak; Those who must lie abed through all the sunny hours; The blind, who are shut off from the light of day; The overworked, who have no Joy of leisure; The unemployed who have no joy of labor; The bereaved, whose hearts and home are desolate; and grant Your mercy on them all.

Tax Season is approaching!!!

We hope that the new year is off to a great start for all of you. TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today was once called in Latin "Dominica in albis," or "Sunday in White," because the church was full of newly baptized Christians wearing their white baptismal garments. Another old title, best forgotten, is "Low Sunday." There's nothing low about this festive Sunday in Easter, the eighth day since the first "Alleluia" rang out. In Christian tradition, the number eight is a symbol of fulfillment, transition, breaking through the seven-day rhythm of life to a new way of being. That is why many baptismal fonts have eight sides. The greatest feasts of our calendar are always extended for eight days, called an "octave." In a way, this means that this first week of Easter is really considered to be one great day. This octave day of Easter sees the best features of Easter still vibrant: joyful alleluias, lush spring flowers everywhere, sprinkling with water, and a lavish table where the Lord gives us himself as bread and wine.

For Orthodox Christians, today is the Easter feast, since their tradition requires that the Christian Passover cannot begin until the days of the Jewish Passover are ended. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Psalms in the Liturgy

The book of Psalms is a prayer book, hymnal, and anthology of verse all rolled into one. It contains one hundred fifty ancient songs—poem-prayers that express the joys and sorrows of the Hebrew people and their longing for God. The psalms are incredibly varied in tone. Some are solemn anthems of praise that once accompanied processions of great multitudes to the temple; others record the lonely cries of a faithful soul who feels abandoned by God.

This ancient prayer book of the Hebrew people is our principal prayer book as well. The psalms are everywhere in the liturgy—in the antiphons and acclamations of the Mass, and most particularly in the responsorial psalm that follows the first reading. The psalm that is sung at Mass usually echoes the themes of the first reading, and sometimes even comments on it. On this Third Sunday of Lent, we listen to the Exodus account of the stubbornness of God's people in the desert, and then the psalm comes to remind us: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts" (Psalm 95:8). In their wonderful variety, the psalms teach us how to pray.

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly
to listen to each other attentively
to imagine our future boldly
to discern your direction wisely
to persevere in your holy will courageously
to stay together in charity
to surrender our own plans readily
to embrace the greater good
to hand on your gifts to future generations.
May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence
inspire us with patient confidence
in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God,
forever and ever. Amen

Thank You

Thank you for advertising in our church bulletin.
I am patronizing your business because of it!

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress
and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas
bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap
puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup
of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
