From the Pastor's Desk…

With the celebration of Easter still fresh in our thoughts, I want to offer all in our community of faith my heart-felt thanks and appreciation for your generosity this Easter. We all know this has been a difficult year especially as so many of our parishioners have not yet returned to church. Watching our bulletin from week to week you can see how this has affected our church's financial situation. Our deficit is now over $105,000 since July 1st. With that being the reality, however, this past Easter our parish has responded so generously to our need. Thanks to your generosity we not only met our Easter budget this year but surpassed it. The last time we saw this was in 2013! Thank you so much for all those who continue to mail in or drop off their Sunday and Easter church support. You are truly making a difference here at St. Eugene.

We have become accustomed in our parish to using the "Little Blue and Little Black Books" for our Advent and Lenten personal prayer and reflections. We are also making available to you the "Little White Books" to enhance your prayer life during the fifty days of the Easter Season. These books will be available at the entrance of church as you enter to register as well as at all the exits when you leave until all copies have been distributed. Please take a copy for yourself and enjoy our Catholic traditions, customs, Saint of the day, historical facts and informational pieces that are contained within to enhance your spiritual life.

I'd like to let all in our parish know that as we are slowly but surely returning to our normal schedules and routines, we will again be offering the Sacrament of Reconciliation on a weekly basis. Beginning with the month of April, confessions will be available every Saturday at 4:00 p.m. until all those present are heard.

As an aside, many ask the question, "How often should I go to confession?" The Church's Code of Canon Law reads this way: "After having reached the age of discretion, each member of the faithful is obliged to confess faithfully his or her grave sins at least once a year" (Canon 989) (Canon 916 explains that anyone who is conscious of grave sin may not receive the Eucharist without first having gone to confession.)

But is it a good idea for Catholics to stay away from confession for years on end, even if they have no mortal sins to confess? Probably not. Over and over, spiritual writers encourage the faithful to use the sacrament of penance perhaps monthly, as a path not only to pardon, but to spiritual progress and inner peace.

It's that time of year when most priests and deacons in the Archdiocese celebrate their ordination anniversaries. Our Ordination Day anniversary, like a wedding anniversary, is a significant reminder to us of the commitment we made to serve you, our parish families. I ask that you keep all of us in your prayers, as you always hold a special place in ours. For those of you who may wish to know these dates and the anniversary years being celebrated, they are:

April 28	Fr. Ed Pacocha	59 years ordained
May 3	Fr. Jim O'Brien	61 years ordained
May 7	Fr. Rich Yanos	38 years ordained
May 14	Fr. Greg Rom	46 years ordained

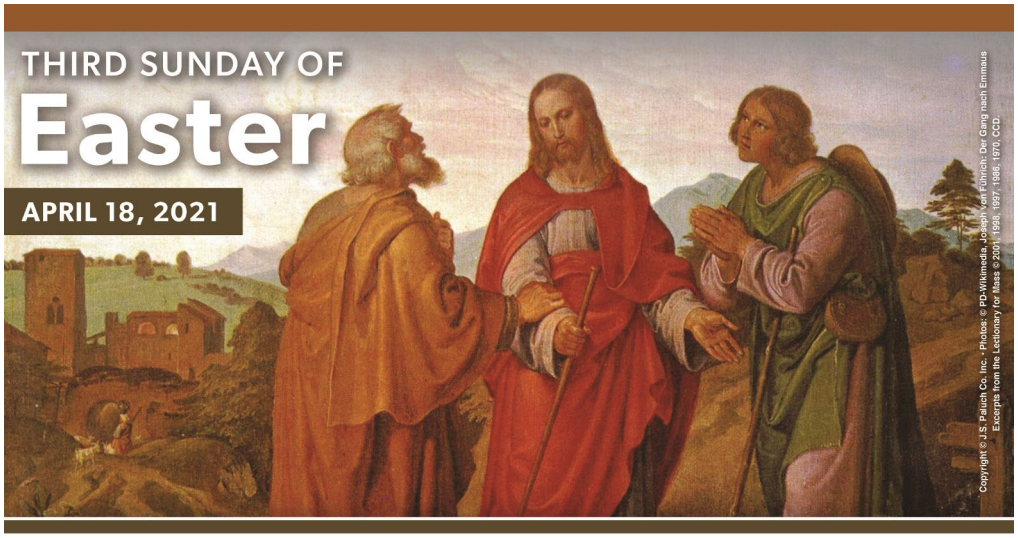

Due to Fr. O'Brien's health issues as well as COVID-19 restrictions, the planning committee has decided to CANCEL the 60th Anniversary Mass and reception scheduled for Sunday, May 2nd. Fr. O'Brien has been advised by his doctors not to attend large gatherings. Please feel free to send Fr. O'Brien a card to congratulate and thank him for his dedication and service throughout his over 60 years of priestly ministry.

Cards can be sent to: Rev. James O'Brien
St. Eugene Rectory
7958 W. Foster Ave.

Have a beautiful week ahead everyone!

FULFILLMENT

It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true today. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." (Acts 3:13). It likewise contains the potent phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets" (3:14, 18). Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus himself in the Gospel passage, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, from which our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ. Dear Parishioners,

Thank you all so much for your generosity during this Easter season. Despite the Covid-19 pandemic and restrictions on the number of worshippers allowed at mass, we had our largest Easter collection since 2013. We appreciate all of you that dropped your offering off at the rectory or mailed it in, as well as those of you that joined us for our Holy Week Liturgies. May God bless you in celebration of the Risen Lord. Alleluia!!!

Third Sunday of Easter

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The month of May has not only good weather, but an interesting pedigree. It is named after the Roman goddess Maia, said to be the mother of Hermes, or Mercury. The Romans saw it as "love's month," while in England, more practical farmers called it "Three Milks," since the cows grazing on springtime's bounty could produce at a phenomenal rate. Old customs die hard, and Christians have never made peace with Maytime frolics. No wonder that popular tradition dedicated the month's prayers and devotions to Mary, although we cannot lose sight of the fact that the liturgy always has Easter at the center of celebration. Recent developments have enriched Mary's place in a cycle of feast days woven through the whole year, dedicated Saturday as a weekly day for devotion, and highlighted Mary's role in the Advent story. In fact, every day of the year Evening Prayer centers on the singing of Mary's Canticle of Praise. The fifty days of Easter culminate on Pentecost with Mary, present of course for Christ's birth, waiting in the upper room for the birth of the church.

Jesus is the Risen One, the Lord who passed through death in order to lead us to safety. Even before we begin to seek Him, He is present beside us. He lifts us back up after our falls. He helps us grow in faith.

FEAST OF FAITH — The Second Reading

The Liturgy of the Word generally follows a consistent pattern of three readings and a psalm. The second reading is always taken from one of the New Testament epistles or the book of Revelation, and generally is not intentionally aligned with either the Gospel or the first reading.

Where would we be without these letters in which great saints and apostles like Paul, Peter, James, and John share their wisdom and pastoral good sense with the early Christian communities? It is in these letters, even more than in the Gospel narratives, that we learn what it means to be church: to live with each other, in the world yet not of the world, in these days after the Lord's resurrection. Each New Testament letter was written by a particular leader for a particular community at a particular time. We are reminded of this at the beginning of the proclamation—"A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians," or the Corinthians, or the Thessalonians. These texts were shaped by their particular historical and cultural context, but at the same time, through the liturgy, these letters are written to us, here, today. They speak to the realities of Christian living no matter where—or when—we live. They are truly "the word of the Lord" for us.

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly
to listen to each other attentively
to imagine our future boldly
to discern your direction wisely
to persevere in your holy will courageously
to stay together in charity
to surrender our own plans readily
to embrace the greater good
to hand on your gifts to future generations.
May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence
inspire us with patient confidence
in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God,
forever and ever. Amen

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.

Thank You

Thank you for advertising in our church bulletin.
I am patronizing your business because of it!

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress
and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas
bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap
puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup
of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
