From the Pastor's Desk…

Today we celebrate the Sixth Sunday of Easter. The Gospel we hear today is a continuation of last Sunday's reading from the Gospel of John. It is part of the "vine and the branches" section of the farewell discourse that Jesus delivers to his disciples before his arrest and crucifixion. In the section that follows today's reading, he warns them about the world's hate, and he tells them that they should not be surprised that they will be persecuted just as he was persecuted.

And what is the antidote to the world's hate? Amazingly, it is love. Jesus tries to raise his disciples out of deep despair by telling them to love one another as he loves them, but this is no casual or superficial love. Rather, it is rooted in the love that the Father and Son have for each other. It is the kind of love that changes the disciples' status from slaves to friends; it brings them into an intimacy with Christ such that only his dearest friends know what the Father shares with him. What have the disciples done to earn this special status? Nothing! They did not choose Jesus. Rather, Jesus chose them, and now they must go out and bear fruit by loving one another.

As disciples of the Lord, we, too, then are told to do the same – to bear much fruit by loving all who we encounter. We all know the challenges and difficulties in doing so, yet, as followers of Christ, we know that it is the right thing to do.

Today is also Mother's Day. A Happy Mother's Day to all the women in our parish and in our lives who have taken on the significant role of motherhood. There is no person on earth who knows us better or who loves us more completely than our mothers. Having gone through the struggles, pains and joys of pregnancy, labor, and delivery, they deserve our utmost respect and love. It is fitting that in our country we honor these courageous women, who, with the help of our fathers, brought each of us into this world. God bless you all on this special day.

Whether living or deceased, hopefully, a prayer of thanksgiving will be said for your mom. If you might wish to have your mother remembered in a special way at all of our Mother's Day Masses, as well as having their name on our altar throughout the year, you can do so by writing in your mother's names on the special Mother's Day envelope provided in your May packet of your Sunday offering envelopes including also your Mass offerings for this purpose. They can be placed in the collection basket and their names will be added to the memorial page that will be included in our parish bulletin as well as placed on the altar for an entire year. It's not too late as we usually wait one or two weeks before we print the final memorial page in our bulletin due to late submissions.

Mother's Day weekend is also the traditional weekend that Catholic Charities asks and encourages all Catholics to support its Annual Mother's Day Appeal.

The number of calls to Catholic Charities is increasing daily from people who have nowhere else to turn. People in every parish and every neighborhood are struggling to make ends meet. More families face unemployment or the loss of a home.

Please give generously to the Catholic Charities Mother's Day Appeal. Your support of this collection gets transformed into the compassion that Catholic Charities has become known for that protects the poor and gives the precious gift of a fulfilling and dignified life to those less fortunate than we. Please be generous and remember that as you mail in or drop your offering off at church or at the rectory, you become the only source of hope to those who seem to not matter in the eyes of so many in our world.

Your donations also support programs for emergency food and shelter, affordable housing for seniors, teen parenting services, employment, and job training and so many other services that Catholic Charities provides. You can also contribute online at www.catholiccharities.net or by texting HOPE to 878787 or you can mail your check directly to Catholic Charities at 721 N. LaSalle St., Chicago, IL 60454.

I'd like to congratulate our 8th graders who will be receiving their "Ribbons" after the 9:00 a.m. Mass this coming Wednesday. Last Wednesday, May 5th, we also had our school's May Crowing Ceremony, which was both a tribute to Our Blessed Mother and an honor for our eighth graders that participated in the May Crowning Court of Honor. These events are all part of the end-of-the-school-year transition process for them as they prepare to take leave from grammar school while making their transition to high school – a time we all remember fondly. It won't be long now before they will be celebrating their 8th Grade Dinner Dance and then Graduation. Congratulations, Class of 2021!

Next weekend we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. Have a great week ahead everyone!

PLEASE DEPOIST YOUR CATHOLIC CHARITIES DONATION IN THE BASKET ON THE SIGN IN TABLE

THE PRESENCE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

We have a unique episode in the Acts of the Apostles today. A whole roomful of people are baptized with the Holy Spirit before they are baptized with water! The verb used—"the Holy Spirit 'fell' on them" (Acts 10:44)—is characteristic of the way the Spirit works throughout the book of Acts: powerful and surprising. Though this "baptism" is not the normative way the New Testament describes baptism, it is still a good reminder today that the Holy Spirit is not controlled by whether or not we pour water, but rather that our sacramental signs reveal the presence of the Spirit at work among us. And we have a double reinforcement of how this work is accomplished from a Letter and a Gospel bearing John's name. It is love, self-sacrificing and self-giving love, that manifests the Spirit of Jesus in our midst. It is love that is the greatest of commandments. The Spirit is manifested equally through those who live in that love. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

From Letters to a Brother Priest:
"There are five graces we receive each time we visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. By His glorious wounds we are the ones who are transfigured and changed through His healing love. Restoration, sanctification, transformation, reparation, and salvation are the graces being poured out graciously upon us with each hourly hour we make. Like Peter, this is why we should exclaim in His Divine Presence 'Lord, how good it is for us to be here!'"

My Mother kept a garden

My Mother kept a garden,
a garden of the heart,
She planted all the good things
that gave my life its start.
She turned me to the sunshine
and encouraged me to dream,
Fostering and nurturing
the seeds of self-esteem.
And when the winds and rain came,
she protected me enough--
But not too much because she knew
I'd need to be a little tough.
Her constant good example
always taught me right from wrong-- Markers for my pathway
that will last a lifetime long.
I am my Mother's garden.
I am her legacy-
And I hope today she feels her love reflected back from me.

The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland

Dear Fr. Richard:

Thank you so much for the generous donation of $2,332.00 in the 2021 Virtual Baby Bottle collection raised by your parishioners.

We are incredibly grateful to you and the kindness of your parishioners for their sacrifices in making their donations during this pandemic. It is wonderful that your parish continues to believe in our Life Saving Mission and that your parishioners are so charitable.

We very much appreciate your help with the Baby Bottle Project. Since the Baby Bottle Project is an essential part of our organization's fundraising, it is an incredible blessing to us and the women and babies we serve that we can count on your support year after year.

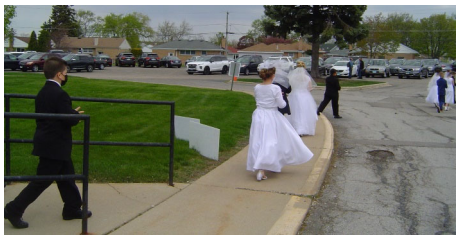

These funds allow us to provide real, practical assistance to women in crisis pregnancies. Not only do we help them choose life for their babies, but then we are able to provide them with much needed material assistance and emotional support. We have over 3,500 appointments with women and their children every year and give away over $500,000 in material goods.

May God bless you and thank you so much for continuing to support the lifesaving work at TWC!

Sincerely,

Janet Black
Manager of Fundraising.

Crowned with blossoms

Bring flowers of the fairest,
Bring flowers of the rarest,
From garden and woodland
And hillside and vale;
Our full hearts are swelling,
Our glad voices telling
The praise of the loveliest
Rose of the vale.
O Mary! we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May,
O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Creed

Following the readings and the homily, we stand together and say or sing the Creed, our profession of faith. The Creed is a solemn statement of belief, a "rule of faith" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 67). It states the core of what we believe about God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The language of the Creed is knotty and difficult at times, precisely because its purpose is to express with precision what we believe about God. The Creed that we pray most often, the Nicene Creed, came out of the earliest ecumenical councils: Nicea in 325 and Constantinople in 381. It originated in a time of great controversy about the divinity of Christ, and thus the longest section of the Creed relates to Christ, truly human and truly God.

The Creed is both communal and personal: it is "we," but it is also "I." In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, it is only after listening to the teaching of the Church and professing faith in the Holy Trinity that the candidate is admitted to the sacraments. So it is every Sunday. We listen to the word, we profess our faith, and then we come to the altar.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Just as the origins of Lent have to do with accompanying people in the final stages of preparation for baptism at Eastertime, so does the structure of the Easter season help the newly received Catholics take root in the community. This is the season of "mystagogy," which means "reflection on the mysteries." This means that new Catholics are remembering the sacraments by which they become one with us, and are sorting out the implications for their everyday life. They can understand the excitement of Cornelius and his family in the first reading, filled with the Holy Spirit, and so eager to begin their new life that they overwhelm St. Peter. The second reading and the Gospel today likewise help our new brothers and sisters explore their new life as an experience of God's tender love.

Long ago, our tradition named these newly baptized adults and children the "neophytes," from Greek words meaning "newly planted." Newly planted in the garden of faith, they look to us to provide the fertile soil in which their new life can take root and grow. You can help. If you have "neophytes" in your parish, a card or note of welcome, or warm words of congratulation, are still timely. It's Easter!

That's it! You will be brought to your home page where you can add more gifts or simply logout. We sincerely appreciate all your generosity.

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly
to listen to each other attentively
to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely
to persevere in your holy will courageously
to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good
to hand on your gifts to future generations.
May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

We ask all of our parishioners, if you have a loved one serving in the military, to please contact the rectory office to give us the name of the soldier, so the whole parish can pray for your loved one. A book in the church vestibule is available for inscribing the names of all military personnel. This book will be part of the offertory procession from now until the war is over.

A PRAYER

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission as Catholics united in faith at St. Eugene Parish is to help bring God to people and people to God. Through evangelization, education and being of service to each other, we strive to make our parish community a holistic community in body, mind and spirit. It is our goal to develop, support, encourage and empower one another in our parish ministries, so that each person can reach their human and Christian potential. We are enthused about the future of St. Eugene and the whole Catholic Church and we pledge our participation in that future. We seek dialogue and open communication with all parishioners in fulfilling the needs of our parish. While recognizing the cultural diversities in our community, we will strive to bring all people together in Christ under a common bond of faith, hope and love.
