From the Pastor's Desk...

Today we celebrate the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Gospel of John this weekend is a continuation of last week's story of the miracle of the loaves and fishes. It begins with the crowd once again seeking Jesus. They were so intent upon finding him that they secured their own boats and crossed over to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. Of course, their only reason to find him was to have their stomachs fed. Jesus sees this and reminds them, as well as each of us, to "not work for the food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life", which only the Son of Man can give. Their disbelief in Jesus still persists and they ask what they can do to accomplish the work of God? In no uncertain terms, Jesus tells them that believing in the one God sent (Jesus himself) is, in fact, doing the work of God. The crowd still refuses to believe and now wants Jesus to perform more signs for them. They back up their conversation with a reference to the manna that was given to the Israelites in the desert, and they dare Jesus to perform a sign greater than that of Moses in the desert. Jesus reminds them that it was not Moses that gave them this bread (manna) from heaven but rather His Father who gives them true bread from heaven. For Jesus says, "The bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." The crowd in turn says to Jesus, "Sir, give us this bread always." Then Jesus speaks some of his most compelling words…"I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." The question each of us must ask ourselves is quite frankly…Do we believe this to be true?

Renew My Church: The Journey of Renewal

At the heart of our Renew My Church efforts is the renewal of vital, sustainable parishes that have the leadership, resources, and vision necessary to create an effective culture of evangelization that makes disciples, builds communities and inspires witness. This requires prayerful discernment and challenging conversations on our part. It also necessitates great trust that Jesus, our Good Shepherd, will lead us to where He wants us to go.

As I've shared, our parish is working with St. Monica, St. Rosalie, Our Lady Mother of the Church and Divine Savior as one group to discern and provide input into how we can best structure our parishes and ministries to make disciples, build community, and inspire witness. Together, we are working through three stages on a shared journey of renewal:

1. Discernment & Decisions: This is the phase we are in now. The Grouping Feedback and Discernment Team (GFDT) will reflect upon potential scenarios of how our local parishes and schools may be organized differently in the future and develop potential ideas to achieve the mission imperatives. This stage concludes when Cardinal Cupich makes his final decisions regarding any structural changes affecting the grouping.

2. Organizational Transition: Once decisions are made that result in structural/organizational changes to the grouping, a dedicated support team from the Archdiocese works on-site to help pastors manage the transition - both the pastoral accompaniment to walk with people through this time of change and operational transition to ensure new parishes have strong, sustainable operational foundations, upon which the great work of ministry can be built to achieve our mission imperatives.

3. Building the New Reality: At this point in the process, with the structural, operational, financial, and personnel foundations in place, the grouping will focus its efforts on vibrantly living out the three imperatives. At the core will be a culture of evangelization that supports the work of making disciples, building community, and inspiring witness. This will be a journey over the next several years in our parish.

Along this journey, our Good Shepherd guides our steps. He is with us always and assures us in the Gospel, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." (Jn 10:27-30). It's on us to keep our ears open and to listen with our hearts throughout this process.

As always, for more information, visit RenewMyChurch.org, or ask me and/or Sal Sparacino, Jackie Gregorio, Cyndi Schu, Tom Swiderski, and Anthony Woldeit, members of our GFDT Team.

I have some good news to share with all in our community. Beginning on Monday, August 9th and continuing through the 13th all our parking lots will be patched, sealed and re-striped. This is a job that has been long overdue and will help to not only preserve our lots but also more clearly delineate each of our over 300 parking spaces as well as enhance the overall look of our parking areas. There will definitely be some adjusting that the daily Mass crowd will have to do such as moving to a new location for Mass but that will be shared when we have more detailed instructions from our contractor.

Have a great week ahead everyone.

SECOND COLLECTION
FOR OUR SHARING PARISH

THE BREAD OF LIFE

Today's Gospel has the crowd asking Jesus three questions. First, "When did you get here," to which Jesus responds by rebuking them for their failure to grasp his miracle as a "sign," an occasion to put faith in him. Their second question about accomplishing the "works of God" has Jesus respond that faith is the "work" that God wishes. Many scholars believe this is John's answer to the faith-works dichotomy emerging in the early Christian community. Faith is the work of God in the believer, John would have us understand. The third question asked by the crowd is a request for a "sign" that would allow them to put faith in Jesus, as the manna in the desert allowed the Israelites to put faith in the Lord God. Jesus answers by revealing himself as the "bread of life" that "comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If the alb is the premier baptismal garment, then why are there so many other styles of vesture in evidence in our parishes? In some places, altar servers and other ministers might wear a garment, usually black, called a cassock. Over that is normally worn a white garment (a "surplice"), reminiscent of the alb but much shorter, often of starched linen and trimmed with lace. The cassock is not a liturgical garment, but a clerical robe. Its origins lie in the religious habit of monks. By the late Middle Ages, diocesan priests and clerics increasingly were encouraged to emulate religious priests. Very small boys were often apprenticed to monasteries, especially for music education, and would be invested with a cassock and sometimes even inducted into the ranks of clerics.

For centuries before the Reformation, it was required that all men entering higher education be clerics, and so the cassock and its variations became familiar academic garb. At the Reformation, many ministers retained a form of the cassock as ordinary dress, rejecting liturgical garments. In the seventeenth century, the English Civil War was in part provoked by the Archbishop of Canterbury's insistence that ministers wear surplices. Although the Episcopal Church now retains "cassock and surplice" as the normal dress for lay men and women assisting at liturgy, Catholics are increasingly attentive to the deeply traditional treasure of the alb, our baptismal robe, when special liturgical vesture is needed.

Changing for the better: Transfiguration

Is it possible for you to picture yourself beholding the face of Christ transfigured, atop the mountain? Behold Him, adore Him: your brother, your God, your Savior, your friend! As you look at that face in adoration and worship, God's grace transforms you from a separated sinner to a beloved son or daughter. That is the way it is with all who dare to come close to Christ, with hearts open to accept the brilliant warmth of His love. He changes lives. But like those three disciples, we can't always remain in cozy and inspiring worship. We must leave the mountain to go into the valley of our work and home. Go boldly from that mountain top knowing that coming close to Christ changes your life. He has set you free, made you His friend. He is at every moment changing you into His likeness.

What are you working for?

At the end of your week, what brings you a sense of accomplishment? Maybe it was a special family event, a big work project or a successful school exam. This week's gospel asks you to stop and think about the value of what you've worked so hard to complete. Jesus said, "do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life." Did any of your work this week include God? Would He value your completed tasks as much as you do? Before you schedule next week's to dos, consider prayerfully what God would like to see on the list - and add a little "eternal food" to the perishable kind.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Preface: Thanksgiving

The preface of the Mass has been called "a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth" (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, MN, 1992, p. 70). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God's gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. "By his birth we are reborn," we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. "By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life." Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
