State of the Parish

Hello St. Eugene Parishioners! For those of you that do not know me, my name is Anthony J. Woldeit and I am the Business Manager here at St. Eugene Parish. I have served in this role for the past two years, and am excited to be back home. I graduated from St. Eugene School in 2005 and was very involved with the Music Ministry and Theatre Programs under the direction of former Music Director Dr. Jim Bergman. He taught me the piano and organ, and I have also been at St. Francis Borgia Parish as the Director of Music since 2009.

I wanted to take this opportunity to update everyone on happenings at the parish, especially during the difficult COVID times we have been dealing with. First and foremost, thank you all so much for your support during these unprecedented times. Without your support, we would find ourselves in a very burdensome and trying situation.

As you can see as you entered the Church today, the parking lots have been crack-filled, seal-coated, and restriped. This was a long overdue process, but we are happy to begin regular maintenance of the parking lots to keep our school children, parishioners, and guests safe.

Also, the boilers in the rectory went out in March; we have purchased new boilers and will be installing them in September in preparation for this winter. This was an unexpected but necessary expense.

Later this month, some minor tuckpointing will occur on our school building's two chimneys. One of them is in very bad shape, and we want to make sure they are solid for years to come.

St. Eugene School is preparing for another great year, and already has over 230 students enrolled for this upcoming school year (a number not reached since 2016). A special shoutout to Principal, Mrs. Margaret Kinel, and all of the teachers and staff who work so hard and tirelessly to make St. Eugene School a special place for all. The school has also hired a Director of Admissions, Ms. Dawn Swanson, to continue building on the success of St. Eugene School and ensure it will be open for generations to come.

The rectory has also experienced some changes and we wanted to make sure everyone is aware of them. The first, Fr. Jacek Dada (Fr. Jack) began his assignment as Associate Pastor July 1, coming to us from St. Francis Borgia Parish. We are very excited to have him join the team here at St. Eugene and looking forward to the energy he brings. Fr. Jim O'Brien has moved from St. Eugene to Presence St. Benedict Nursing and Rehabilitation Center as of August 1. More information can be found in this week's bulletin if you would like to send any correspondence. Finally, Ms. Lydia Hilado started another position here at St. Eugene Parish as Director of Communications. Lydia will be responsible for our social media presence, website upkeep, facility reservations etc. We are excited to have someone fill this very important position for us at St. Eugene.

Feel free to call the rectory or email me at any time with questions, comments or concerns.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

"I have come that you might have life, life to the fullness . . . " (John 10:10)

T. S. Eliot wrote: "We had the experience but missed the meaning." Do you find that your very experience of Life -- of relationships, work, play -- is asking you some significant questions? Do you have a sense that Life is larger than your immediate experience? Are you searching for something "more" in your life? For a church? Or a people of faith? Or a God? Come check us out.

If you are married to a Catholic or are marrying a Catholic, and are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church, come and join us. If you have been Baptized but did not make your Communion or Confirmation we can help with that.

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is the a process by which one enters the Catholic Church through prayer, study, and discussion.

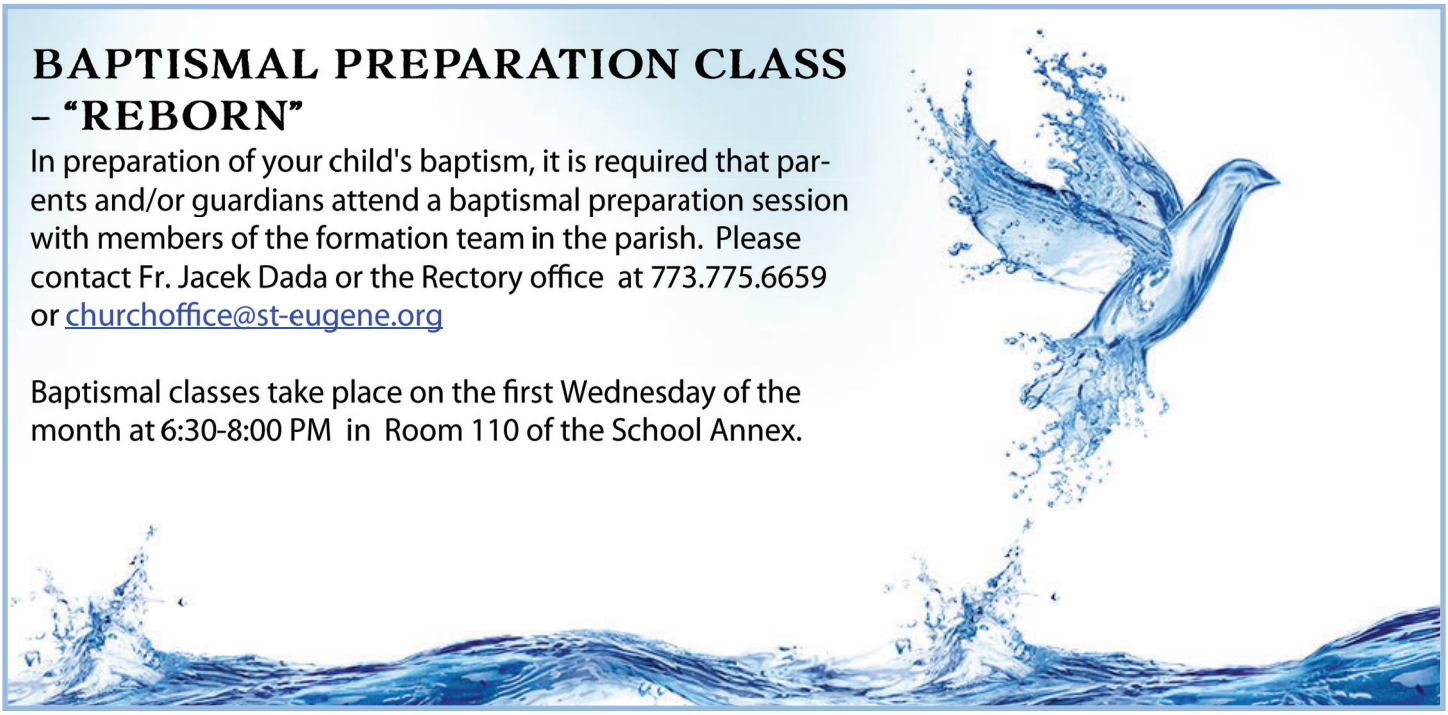

We will meet on Thursdays after Labor Day in Room 110 of the School Annex Annex from 6:30pm-8:00pm.

If you have any questions please contact Fr. Jacek Dada or Angie Cisek or call the Rectory 773.775.6659

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION CLASS – "REBORN"

In preparation of your child's baptism, it is required that parents and/or guardians attend a baptismal preparation session with members of the formation team in the parish. Please contact Fr. Jacek Dada or the Rectory office at 773.775.6659 or churchoffice@st-eugene.org

Baptismal classes take place on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:30-8:00 PM in Room 110 of the School Annex.

THIS WEEKEND
SECOND COLLECTION
ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRIGIN MARY

THE DESTINY OF ALL MORTAL FLESH

The celebration of today's feast on a Sunday is unusual on our Roman Catholic calendar. Our observance of the Lord's Day is held in such high esteem that few other feasts replace it. Occasionally there is a feast—usually of one of the saints—in which the saving power of God in Christ is so uniquely focused that the Roman rite deems it worthy of celebration on the Lord's Day. Today is such a feast. Yet some are surprised at the brevity of the dogma in its entirety: "We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." The Roman Catholic Church never defined any specifics or particulars about the event itself. It is not in the scriptures. There are no verifiable eyewitness accounts. At its core, the dogma reveals in Mary the destiny of all mortal flesh, and reinforces our creedal belief in resurrection of the body. This feast strengthens our faith, defined last week in Hebrews as the realization of things hoped for. We find, in Mary, that realization of what we all hope for, what Paul today affirms: "In Christ shall all be brought to life" (1 Corinthians 15:22).

FR. JAMES J. O'BRIEN

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

It was for me a sad occasion: my last Mass at St. Eugene Parish. My home for many years. As I try to settle in and adjust to a new environment please be assured I will pray for all of you. Please accept this as my personal thanks to everyone. I will not be sending individual "thank-yous".

The rain of Saturday evening July 24th sure was a factor for many of you getting to the church. Thank God it did clear during the Mass and allowed those who wanted to walk to the reception in the Shaunessy Center to do so.

My most grateful thanks to all who made it to the Mass. My family, my many friends, some from my childhood years, some went to grammar school with me, those from various parishes where I served, and of course the people of St. Eugene Parish and all who came to pray and enjoy fellowship with each other.

My thanks to my fellow Priests who concelebrated the Mass, to Lydia and the choir for the beautiful music, to the committee who arranged the reception, to all who served, baked, set up and cleaned up. The baked goods were delicious. My thanks to all who gave or sent cards (they are still coming), those who gave a monetary donation, cookies, puzzle and word find books and items for my new home. To those who took photos of the Mass and during the reception, I am so appreciative of each of you. I especially liked the beautiful photo in the bulletin leading up to the event and those the following week.

I will remember you in my Masses and daily prayers. You have my address and you are welcome to visit, Please call before you come to make sure I am at home

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The roots of today's feast of the Assumption can be traced back at least to the fifth century, when it is noted in the Armenian lectionary. Celebrated in Jerusalem, the feast in honor of the Theotokos, the Mother of God, became the principal feast of Mary throughout the Christian world. The place of celebration was at the tomb of Mary in Gethsemane and was therefore known as the "Dormition of Mary." In some cultures this feast is celebrated today with a resting statue of Mary, much like a wake service of modern times.

The liturgy of this feast provides images of "the place of your rest" in Psalm 132, and reverence for the Ark of the Covenant that held the signs of the Promise. Like that Ark, Mary is for us the ark of the Savior, the one who bore the Son of God. When the doctrine of the Assumption was defined in 1950 the Gospel reading for the feast was changed to include the verses of Mary's song, the Magnificat. The scripture readings for both the vigil Mass and the Mass of the day speak to us of life after death as well as the path to be followed in order to reach it. The key to this promised immortality is found as we take to heart the words of the vigil's Gospel, "Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it."

Patron of Police - St. Michael Defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Prayer for the soul of Chicago Police Officer Ella French

Lord our God,
You are faithful and quick to show mercy.
Our sister, Chicago Police Officer Ella French,
was suddenly and violently taken from us.
Come swiftly to her aid,
have mercy on her,
and comfort her family and friends.
and all of our Chicago Police Officers
by the power and protection of the cross.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Catholic Book Publishing Company 1998]

Prayer for Blessing a Victim of Crime

Lord God,
Your own Son was delivered into the hands of the wicked,
yet He prayed for His persecutors
and overcame hatred with the blood of the cross.
Relieve the suffering of the Chicago Police Officer who was violently harmed;
grant him peace of mind
and healing of body and soul.
Comfort his family and fellow Officers.
Protect all of us from the violence of others,
keep us safe from weapons of hate,
and restore to us tranquility and peace.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Mary's Assumption: Our Example

In celebrating the Feast of Mary's Assumption into heaven, we have a tendency at times to feel that this particular mystery puts her on an entirely different plane of life than the one we ordinary human beings enjoy. We focus on her uniqueness and forget what she shared with us: the common struggle of being human in a harsh reality.

The truest blessings from this Feast come when we reflect on both sides of Mary. It is only when we remember that she was as human as we are, yet she triumphed, that her example becomes truly inspirational. Each of us is a unique creation of God bestowed with body, soul and gifts, just as Mary was. And if we will become wholly obedient to God as she was, we can fulfill our own place in His eternal plan. Mary's Assumption is a wonderful time to remember that we have work to do, a place to fill, an example to set. Are we?

No more fear

Because of Jesus Christ, death is no longer fearsome. We can look through the event of our death to a life of eternal happiness with the Father. Mary, our model, assumed body and soul into heaven, enjoys now what we have been promised. We look first to her Son, Jesus, but also to Mary; to enflesh for us the meaning and plan of the Divine. She is "one of us," and we look to her with love. We ask her intercession on our behalf when we face our death. We can picture her, present body and soul in heaven, as we say the Nicene Creed. "We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come."

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations.
May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

FEAST OF FAITH

The Shape of the Eucharistic Prayer

Our Eucharistic Prayers originated in the traditional Jewish meal prayers known as berakah, which were prayers of thanksgiving used at meals. Over the centuries, the Christian thanksgiving, or Eucharist, gradually took shape. While in the East the Eucharistic Prayers (called anaphora) took many forms, in the Roman Church there was for many centuries just one Eucharistic Prayer, called the Roman Canon (now known as Eucharistic Prayer I). Almost all Eucharistic Prayers include the same basic elements. They begin with thanksgiving and acclamation. Then there is an epiclesis, as the priest calls down the Holy Spirit upon the gifts. Then follows the institution narrative and consecration, as the words that Jesus spoke at the Last Supper are repeated. After the consecration, we remember in an explicit way all that Christ has done for us—this is the anamnesis, or remembering. The prayer concludes with the offering, the intercessions—prayers for the Church, our leaders, ourselves—and a final doxology of praise.

The reforms of the Second Vatican Council enriched our liturgy with additional Eucharistic Prayers, including both ancient texts (Eucharistic Prayer II is based on the most ancient of all existing Eucharistic Prayers) and new compositions. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Receive a $25 Amazon gift card with FREE in-home estimate

All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete consultation together. Participants must have a photo ID, be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail or e-mailed within 30 days of receipt of the promotion form. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Amazon and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Expires 8/31/2021

This promotion assumes an estimated job cost of $7883. The advertised payment of $99 a month is an estimate only, and assumes that third-party financing is available for new customers at an estimated 9.99% annual percentage rate for 132 months. Promotion available to qualified buyers on approved credit with $99 down payment. Not all buyers will qualify. Higher annual percentage rates apply for buyers with lower credit ratings. LeafGuard is neither a broker nor a lender. Financing is provided by third-party lenders unaffiliated with LeafGuard, under terms and conditions arranged directly between the customer and such lender, all of which are subject to credit requirements and satisfactory completion of finance documents. Any finance terms advertised are estimates only. LeafGuard does not assist with, counsel or negotiate financing, other than providing customers an introduction to lenders interested in financing its customers. Expires 8/31/2021

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
