CONFIRMATION

Saturday, October 16, 2021

On Saturday morning, October 16th, our Pastor Rev. Richard M. Yanos administered the Sacrament of Confirmation at Saint Eugene Parish. As a parish family, we pray that the Holy Spirit will enlighten and strengthen the Confirmandi. With the grace of the Holy Spirit, may they be good Christian ladies and gentlemen who truly live the Gospel in their lives.

From the Pastor's Desk...

Today, we celebrate the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Before today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus shared with his disciples that he must suffer, die and rise. Today's Gospel opens with James and John telling Jesus that they wanted him to do whatever they would ask of him. Jesus responds with, "What do you wish me to do for you?" Sadly, James and John are more concerned with their personal ambitions for glory as we see them asking Jesus for the top places of honor in his kingdom.

Jesus often asks people, "What do you wish me to do for you?" His humble deference to the will of others trained him for his final act of service on the cross. His entire life of voluntary servitude is the ransom that he paid to release humankind from captivity to sin. True disciples of our Lord who seek greatness will make themselves the servants of others because that is what Jesus did.

On behalf of our entire parish, I would like to congratulate our Confirmands who received the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend. We congratulate them and their families as they now become fully initiated into our faith and church life. Our hope and our prayer as the faith community of St. Eugene is that this celebration will be the beginning of a life-long venture of deepening, strengthening, and appreciating the relationship our Lord, Jesus Christ, wants with each of us as we are called to help build up the Body of Christ that is His Church.

I want to offer my sincerest thanks to all in our parish who have been turning in their feedback forms in response to the Renew My Church informational meeting that was held on September 22nd. At this meeting we laid out for everyone the proposed scenarios for the future of the five parishes that make up our Grouping. Again, those parishes are St. Eugene, St. Monica, Our Lady Mother of the Church, St. Rosalie and Divine Savior.

Our Grouping Team continues to meet regularly and will incorporate the feedback you have provided for our discussions. Know that we appreciate the time you have taken to offer your valuable input.

Next Sunday, October 24th, we join with the Church around the globe to celebrate World Mission Sunday. The Holy Father has declared the entire month of October an Extraordinary Month of Mission, through which we recommit ourselves to the mission of God in recognition that our faith in Jesus Christ and our relationship with the People of God are missionary by nature. Our faith is a treasure to be given, shared, and proclaimed.

This celebration also presents an opportunity to support the global network of missionary commitment, known as the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, through prayer, the soul of mission and charitable offerings from Christians throughout the world. The annual World Mission Sunday collection provides critical support to communities of faith in the most economically disadvantaged regions of our world. Working with limited means, these local churches bear witness to the Gospel amid poverty and turmoil, addressing all forms of material and spiritual need.

How this collection serves:

- Approximately 75 percent supports efforts of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to help sustain over 1,000 mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.
- Nearly 10 percent supports the work of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association to alleviate poverty, foster Christian unity and promote interreligious dialogue in the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe.
- About 15 percent supports the operations of the Mission Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago, which builds bridges of love and support between global missionaries and members of the Church in Chicago.

Pope Francis has said that, "The Church is on mission in the world…Each of us is a mission to the world, for each of us is the fruit of God's love." Those serving in mission at the global peripheries, especially communities and individuals who follow the command to serve despite their own financial struggles, witness this message of service and self-sacrifice. By joining with them, we in turn bear witness to a message of love and compassion so needed in our world today.

Please be generous in your support of next weekend's 2nd collection for World Mission Sunday and all the good works of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. You can also mail in or drop off your World Mission Sunday envelopes at the parish office throughout the week. Thank you for your support of this most worthy cause.

IN REAR VESTIBULE

Let us invoke the Holy Spirit with greater fervour and frequency, and humbly listen to him, journeying together as He, the source of communion and mission, desires: with docility and courage.

THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.

ALL SAINT'S DAY

Monday, November 1st, is All Saint's Day. On this day we celebrate and honor those men and women of days gone by, that have led and modeled for us, exemplary lives of faithfulness and solid Christian living. Because this holy day falls on a Monday this year, the obligation to attend Mass has been lifted. However, all are still encouraged to celebrate this special day at Mass. There will be three Masses offered on All Saint's Day - Monday, November 1st, at 6:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

ALL SOUL'S DAY

On Tuesday, November 2nd, we will celebrate the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed with ALL SOUL'S DAY. Because this day falls on a Tuesday this year there will be one Mass celebrated at our usual 6:30 a.m. Mass time and an additional evening Mass celebrated at 7:00 p.m. to remember all those whose funerals were celebrated here at St. Eugene over the past year, in addition to all of your departed loved ones. All in our parish are invited and encouraged to attend this special evening Mass to honor and remember your deceased loved ones. This Mass will be a powerful expression of remembrance for those who have gone before us, not only in our parish community but within your own families as well. At this Mass the opportunity will be given to acknowledge your deceased loved ones by filling out the form on page 7 in today's bulletin.

In addition, if you would like to remember your deceased loved ones in a more permanent way, you may write their names in the spaces provided on the special All Soul's Day envelope that was included in your October/November Sunday envelope packet. The envelopes can be placed in the regular Sunday offering basket and can also be mailed in or brought to the parish office throughout the week. The names that you submit will then be published in our parish bulletin within one or two weeks after All Soul's Day (this is so we can gather all the names submitted that will come in late after All Soul's Day) and placed upon the altar during the month of November and throughout the next year.

We hope that this time of prayer together will renew our hope and heal our pain and grief. In the sharing of our grief, we believe that our grief is diminished. May our loving God continue to bless and comfort you as you mourn the loss and celebrate the memories of your loved ones.

PLEASE PRAY

Parish Ministry Day

Date: Sunday, October 24, 2021
Time: 2 o'clock in the afternoon

Place: Our Lady, Mother of the Church
8701 W Lawrence Ave
Chicago, IL 60656
Our gathering will take place in the church.

Father Britto M. Berchmans will be our guest speaker and will lead our Spiritual Exercises "Joy of Ministry".

Rev. Britto M. Berchmans

Born in India to deeply-committed Catholic parents, Fr Britto is one of seven children. He joined the Salesians of Don Bosco as a young man and was ordained a priest in 1981. After he completed his priestly formation and his early education in India, he came to the US for his graduate degree in Journalism at Marquette in January 1985. Moved by his pastoral experiences in parishes in the Midwest during his graduate studies at Marquette and the University of Illinois in Champaign, he requested to be incardinated into the archdiocese and as a result became a diocesan priest in 2003. After serving as an associate pastor at St Anne's in Barrington for almost seven years and ministering as pastor of St Nicholas in Evanston for three years, he was pastor of St. Paul of the Cross from July 2009 to July 2021. Prior to coming to Park Ridge, he has served the Church as dean of philosophical studies, editor of a Catholic family magazine, campus minister, professor of mass communications, retreat preacher and spiritual director. He holds Master's degrees in Physics, journalism and Systematic Theology, and a Doctorate in Mass Communications. Father Britto also serves as a teacher of homiletics to those in Diaconate Formation. He envisions the ideal Catholic parish to be a community of disciples who seek to live the example of Jesus as defined in our Catholic tradition. His ministerial priorities include nurturing Catholic education and the religious formation of children and young people, making faith accessible to today's Catholic and strengthening Christian marriage and family life. As one whose priesthood has been shaped by the stark realities of India, Fr Britto considers it crucial for a parish to come to the aid of the poor here in our own country and abroad.

Catholicism is an entire way of life. But today it's not known.

We might be familiar with different aspects of the Catholic faith. But how does it all fit together? And what difference does it make for our lives? Symbolon: The Catholic Faith Explained opens up the "big picture" of the Catholic faith in a way that helps us know it, live it and articulate it to others. Through beautifully crafted teaching and state-of-the-art video, author, speaker and theologian Dr. Edward Sri leads a team of dynamic teachers who provide a clear and comprehensive explanation of the Catholic faith.

Filmed on location in Rome, the Holy Land, Calcutta and in the Augustine Institute studios in Denver, Symbolon— Part I: Knowing the Faith journeys through the core teachings of the Catholic Church and Symbolon— Part II: Living the Faith focuses on our encounter with God in the sacraments and moral life.

Symbolon features dozens of nationally-known teachers such as Johnnette Benkovic, Patrick Coffin, Jason and Crystalina Evert, Tim Gray, Curtis Martin, Edward Sri, Chris Stefanick, Teresa Tomeo and many others who unpack the Catholic faith and call people to live it more deeply.

Classes will begin on Thursday, October 28, 2021 in Room 110 of the school annex from 6:30-8:00 PM. The cost will be around $30 for materials for 22 classes. Please call Fr. Jack Dada at the rectory to register (773-775-6659).

ALL SOULS Mass of Remembrance

Tuesday, November 2, 2021 - 7:00 pm

On "All Souls Day," the Church commemorates and intercedes for those who have died. We invite the entire parish to remember our dearly departed, especially those who have died in the past year.

Your loved ones who have been buried from St. Eugene Church since last November will have their names inscribed in the "Book of the Dead," which will be placed in front of the altar for this Mass.

As we do each year, we will honor the dead in a special way at the Mass of Remembrance on November 2nd. If you would like to have the name of your loved one read at Mass and included in the program, please fill out the attached form and return it to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket no later than Friday, October 29. Please PRINT the name you would like remembered legibly so it can be read accurately. Please be aware that additional names CANNOT be added after October 29, so the list and program can be prepared for All Souls Day. Each family will also be given a carnation to bring up to the sanctuary as the names of the deceased are being read. Thank you for your understanding.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the eyes of many, the papacy is a peculiar institution. Still bedecked with some of the regalia of medieval princes, contemporary popes have worked to define their role in ways that give them influence over the world both within and outside the Church. The trappings of royalty, never really a good fit for the successors of Peter, could render a pope distant and irrelevant. On the other hand, the tendency of many to think of the pope as if he were the CEO of a modern corporation is also inaccurate.

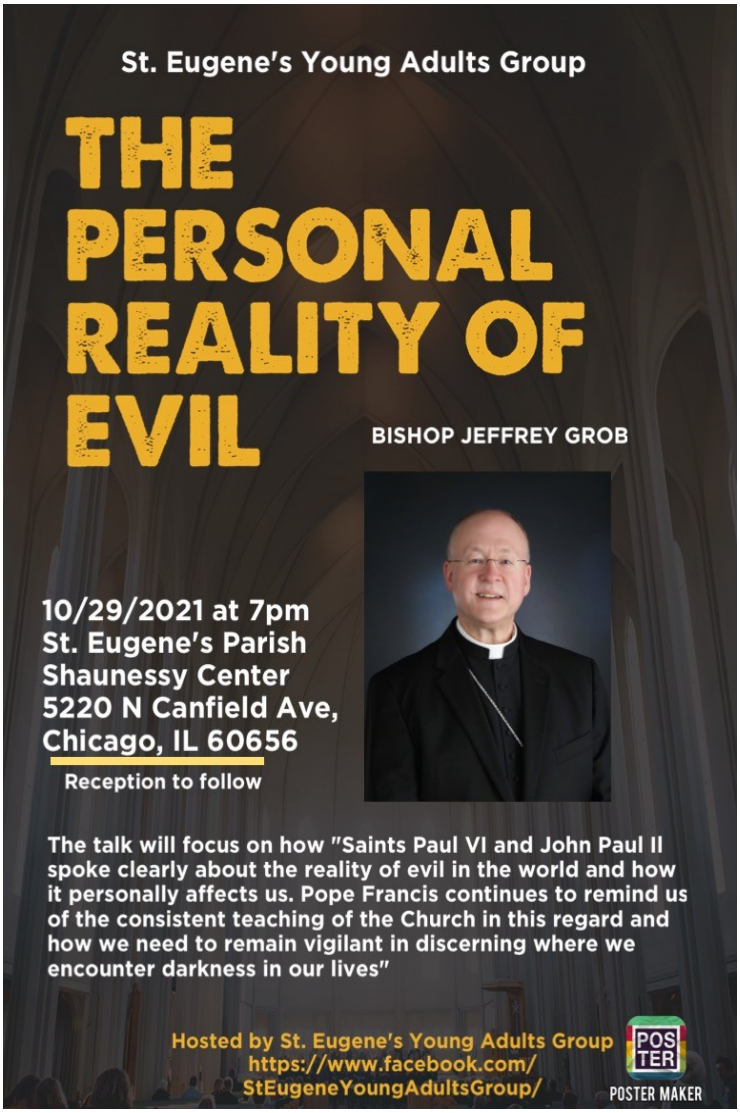

St. Gregory the Great, himself a pope, first called the pope "the servant of the servants of God." He is "first among equals" among other bishops, who by tradition exercise significant authority within their own dioceses, not depending on the pope's authority. This arrangement often puzzles those accustomed to a top-to-bottom "chain of command." History has seen popes of many styles, but most strive to live up to Gregory's definition. Perhaps today's Gospel puts it all into the best perspective: "Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." Pray for the pope this week.

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly
to listen to each other attentively
to imagine our future boldly
to discern your direction wisely
to persevere in your holy will courageously
to stay together in charity
to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good
to hand on your gifts to future generations.
May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence
inspire us with patient confidence
in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God,
forever and ever. Amen

FEAST OF FAITH

Only Say the Word

The bread is broken, the banquet is prepared, and now we are invited to the feast. Once more the priest holds the host, now broken, for us to see, and invites us to behold the one "who takes away the sins of the world." Truly blessed and happy are those invited to this meal, which is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:19). We respond to this invitation with a prayer to the Lord: we acknowledge that we are not worthy, but at the same time we are confident that the One who comes to us can heal us, body and soul. This prayer echoes the story of the centurion in Luke's Gospel. The centurion, a Gentile, asks healing for his servant, but does not consider himself worthy to have Jesus come under his roof—he believes that Jesus can heal his servant with a word, without even seeing him. Jesus is amazed at his faith. It is the same for us. We believe that Jesus speaks to us, comes to us, dwells with us, even though we neither hear his voice nor see his face.
