From the Pastor's Desk...

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday. During this Extraordinary Mission Month let us remember the mission at the heart of our Christian faith – to share the Good News with the world! There will be a 2nd Collection taken up today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith that helps support the priests, religious and lay leaders who embody Christ's mercy and presence among the most vulnerable communities in our world. They have been charged to proclaim the Word persistently, when it is convenient and inconvenient. Let us then, pray and offer our support for the Church's worldwide missionary efforts. You can also drop off your World Mission Sunday envelopes at the rectory or you can mail them in to the parish office. Thanks so much for your support.

COMMEMORATING CARDINAL JOSEPH BERNARDIN ON THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS DEATH

Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, beloved and esteemed Archbishop of Chicago, died on November 14, 1996. He had arrived in Chicago in August 1982 and served here for fourteen years. During his time as Archbishop, he left an enduring mark on the Catholic Church in Chicago as well as on the civic community. He also had significant impact and influence on the nation and the world at large.

The Archdiocese of Chicago is preparing to remember Cardinal Bernardin in two events at the beginning of November. On November 1 at Holy Name Cathedral (750 N. State Street) at 7pm, there will be a commemoration of Cardinal Bernardin's contribution to the Church and to our civic life. The evening is entitled "Now More Than Ever: The Enduring Prophetic Voice and Legacy of Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Twenty-five Years after His Death." Five speakers will briefly address aspects of his legacy and its continuing relevance in today's world. Father Scott Donohue will introduce the evening and the speakers. Monsignor Ken Velo will offer an opening invocation. Sister Joan McGlinchey will conclude the evening with a prayer.

Steven Millies, director of the Bernardin Center at the Catholic Theological Union of Chicago, will reflect on the United States Catholic Bishops Conference 1982 pastoral letter on peace, an initiative that Cardinal Bernardin directed and that had national and international ramifications.

Father J. Cletus Kiley, a close collaborator with Cardinal Bernardin on personnel matters, will explain the Cardinal's contribution to a renewed vision of ministers and ministry in the Church as well as the ways he was a forerunner in addressing the abuse crisis that enveloped the Catholic Church.

Andrew McKenna, a close collaborator with Cardinal Bernardin in founding the Big Shoulders Initiative to support inner city schools, will highlight the Cardinal's commitment to investing in the future through Catholic education.

Rabbi Wendi Geffen will speak to the way that Cardinal Bernardin fostered ecumenical and interfaith relationships in a pluralistic world with a particular focus on his commitment to the Jewish community.

Cardinal Blase Cupich will address Cardinal Bernardin's consistent ethic of life, a broad-based vision of human life on a full continuum from conception to death and how we are summoned to protect and nurture all human life, especially in its most vulnerable conditions.

The evening promises to be an exercise of grateful memory for what Cardinal Joseph Bernardin has left us. It will also be a summons for us to continue his legacy that retains even more value today than in the time he was among us.

On the following day, November 2, again at Holy Name Cathedral, the annual memorial Mass for deceased bishops and priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago will be celebrated at noon. At that Mass, Cardinal Bernardin will be specially remembered. All are invited to participate in the events of these two days.

RECOGNIZING JESUS

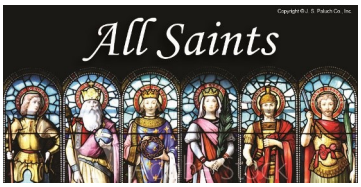

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

at the organ in church at 7pm.
We will sing at the 11:30 am Mass.
Everyone is welcome to sing with us.!!!

ALL SAINTS DAY

Monday, November 1st, is All Saints Day. On this day we celebrate and honor those men and women of days gone by, that have led and modeled for us, exemplary lives of faithfulness and solid Christian living. Because this holy day falls on a Monday this year, the obligation to attend Mass has been lifted. However, all are still encouraged to celebrate this special day at Mass.

There will be three Masses offered on All Saints Day -

Monday, November 1st, at 6:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

True blindness

The story of blind Bartimaeus is a powerful account of Jesus' compassion on human need. Bartimaeus knew who to ask for help and what kind of help to request. And still having found the Master and made his request, Bartimaeus had another step to make. Jesus told him, "it is your faith that has healed you." Without that step of faith, Bartimaeus would still be blind, even after his eyes were open. You see, God is more concerned with what our hearts see, than what we do with our eyes. Because it is our hearts that keep us on the path to His Kingdom. When our hearts have clear vision, we can follow the Savior wherever he leads. When those hearts are blind, we will stumble and fall, no matter how clear we think our path is. When you read Bartimaeus' story, stop and ask yourself, do I need Jesus to heal my blindness too? Then go and find your master, profess your faith and wait for His healing touch.

ALL SOULS DAY

On Tuesday, November 2nd, we will celebrate the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed with ALL SOULS DAY. Because this day falls on a Tuesday this year there will be one Mass celebrated at our usual 6:30 a.m. Mass time and an additional evening Mass celebrated at 7:00 p.m. to remember all those whose funerals were celebrated here at St. Eugene over the past year, in addition to all of your departed loved ones. All in our parish are invited and encouraged to attend this special evening Mass to honor and remember your deceased loved ones. This Mass will be a powerful expression of remembrance for those who have gone before us, not only in our parish community but within your own families as well. At this Mass the opportunity will be given to acknowledge your deceased loved ones by filling out the form on page 8 in today's bulletin.

In addition, if you would like to remember your deceased loved ones in a more permanent way, you may write their names in the spaces provided on the special All Souls Day envelope that was included in your October/November Sunday envelope packet. The envelopes can be placed in the regular Sunday offering basket and can also be mailed in or brought to the parish office throughout the week. The names that you submit will then be published in our parish bulletin within one or two weeks after All Souls Day (this is so we can gather all the names submitted that will come in late after All Souls Day) and placed upon the altar during the month of November and throughout the next year.

We hope that this time of prayer together will renew our hope and heal our pain and grief. In the sharing of our grief, we believe that our grief is diminished. May our loving God continue to bless and comfort you as you mourn the loss and celebrate the memories of your loved ones.

PLEASE PRAY

Parish Ministry Day

Date: Sunday, October 24, 2021
Time: 2 o'clock in the afternoon

Place: Our Lady, Mother of the Church
8701 W Lawrence Ave
Chicago, IL 60656
Our gathering will take place in the church.

Father Britto M. Berchmans will be our guest speaker and will lead our Spiritual Exercises "Joy of Ministry".

Rev. Britto M. Berchmans

Born in India to deeply-committed Catholic parents, Fr Britto is one of seven children. He joined the Salesians of Don Bosco as a young man and was ordained a priest in 1981. After he completed his priestly formation and his early education in India, he came to the US for his graduate degree in Journalism at Marquette in January 1985. Moved by his pastoral experiences in parishes in the Midwest during his graduate studies at Marquette and the University of Illinois in Champaign, he requested to be incardinated into the archdiocese and as a result became a diocesan priest in 2003. After serving as an associate pastor at St Anne's in Barrington for almost seven years and ministering as pastor of St Nicholas in Evanston for three years, he was pastor of St. Paul of the Cross from July 2009 to July 2021. Prior to coming to Park Ridge, he has served the Church as dean of philosophical studies, editor of a Catholic family magazine, campus minister, professor of mass communications, retreat preacher and spiritual director. He holds Master's degrees in Physics, journalism and Systematic Theology, and a Doctorate in Mass Communications. Father Britto also serves as a teacher of homiletics to those in Diaconate Formation. He envisions the ideal Catholic parish to be a community of disciples who seek to live the example of Jesus as defined in our Catholic tradition. His ministerial priorities include nurturing Catholic education and the religious formation of children and young people, making faith accessible to today's Catholic and strengthening Christian marriage and family life. As one whose priesthood has been shaped by the stark realities of India, Fr Britto considers it crucial for a parish to come to the aid of the poor here in our own country and abroad.

Catholicism is an entire way of life. But today it's not known.

We might be familiar with different aspects of the Catholic faith. But how does it all fit together? And what difference does it make for our lives? Symbolon: The Catholic Faith Explained opens up the "big picture" of the Catholic faith in a way that helps us know it, live it and articulate it to others. Through beautifully crafted teaching and state-of-the-art video, author, speaker and theologian Dr. Edward Sri leads a team of dynamic teachers who provide a clear and comprehensive explanation of the Catholic faith.

Filmed on location in Rome, the Holy Land, Calcutta and in the Augustine Institute studios in Denver, Symbolon— Part I: Knowing the Faith journeys through the core teachings of the Catholic Church and Symbolon— Part II: Living the Faith focuses on our encounter with God in the sacraments and moral life.

Symbolon features dozens of nationally-known teachers such as Johnnette Benkovic, Patrick Coffin, Jason and Crystalina Evert, Tim Gray, Curtis Martin, Edward Sri, Chris Stefanick, Teresa Tomeo and many others who unpack the Catholic faith and call people to live it more deeply.

Classes will begin on Thursday, October 28, 2021 in Room 110 of the school annex from 6:30-8:00 PM. The cost will be around $30 for materials for 22 classes. Please call Fr. Jack Dada at the rectory to register (773-775-6659).

ALL SOULS Mass of Remembrance

Tuesday, November 2, 2021 - 7:00 pm

On "All Souls Day," the Church commemorates and intercedes for those who have died. We invite the entire parish to remember our dearly departed, especially those who have died in the past year.

Your loved ones who have been buried from St. Eugene Church since last November will have their names inscribed in the "Book of the Dead," which will be placed in front of the altar for this Mass.

As we do each year, we will honor the dead in a special way at the Mass of Remembrance on November 2nd. If you would like to have the name of your loved one read at Mass and included in the program, please fill out the attached form and return it to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket no later than Friday, October 29. Please PRINT the name you would like remembered legibly so it can be read accurately. Please be aware that additional names CANNOT be added after October 29, so the list and program can be prepared for All Souls Day. Each family will also be given a carnation to bring up to the sanctuary as the names of the deceased are being read. Thank you for your understanding.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"What is the Church if not the assembly of all the saints?" wrote the fifth-century bishop Niceta. Each Sunday, in the Profession of Faith, we express our belief in the communion of saints, the one body—with Christ as its head—made up of "those who are pilgrims on earth, the dead who are being purified and the blessed in heaven." We are not alone!

The preface for All Saints begins, "For today by your gift we celebrate the festival of your city, the heavenly Jerusalem, our mother." What astounding words! All Saints Day (like every solemnity) is nothing less than the festival of the fullness of the paschal mystery, our dying and rising in Christ. Of course, now in autumn the mystery comes "clothed" in glorious autumnal garb, and so we celebrate our Easter faith with signs of the harvest, signs of nature's dying, signs of the "homecoming" that happens naturally when the weather gets cold and families find themselves together more often. While the dying can point to our own mortality, the homecoming reminds us of the mystery of our own resurrection with Christ.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Sound of Communion

The priest receives Holy Communion, and then there is movement, a bustle of activity, as we prepare to join the Communion procession. This holy meal does not happen in silence! Instead, we sing together even as we rise and move forward in procession to the altar. We must change and move to receive the Eucharist, and fittingly so, since the Eucharist is transformative—it demands action of us, internal as well as external. We do not receive the sacrament in silence, but with a dialogue that is also a profession of faith: "The Body of Christ." "Amen." "The Blood of Christ." "Amen." We acknowledge the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist with our "Amen" of faith, but more, our "Amen" is also a prayer that we may become what we receive, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world. We receive him not that he may become a part of us, but that we may become a part of him—part, too, of all the others who receive him, the whole communion of believers.

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!

$99 Down
$99 Per Month
$99 Installation

This promotion assumes an estimated job cost of $7883. The advertised payment of $99 a month is an estimate only, and assumes that third-party financing is available for new customers at an estimated 9.99% annual percentage rate for 132 months. Promotion available to qualified buyers on approved credit with $99 down payment. Not all buyers will qualify. Higher annual percentage rates apply for buyers with lower credit ratings. LeafGuard is neither a broker nor a lender. Financing is provided by third-party lenders unaffiliated with LeafGuard, under terms and conditions arranged directly between the customer and such lender, all of which are subject to credit requirements and satisfactory completion of finance documents. Any finance terms advertised are estimates only. LeafGuard does not assist with, counsel or negotiate financing, other than providing customers an introduction to lenders interested in financing its customers. Expires 10/31/2021

Receive a $25 Amazon gift card with FREE in-home estimate

All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete consultation together. Participants must have a photo ID, be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail or e-mailed within 30 days of receipt of the promotion form. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Amazon and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Expires 10/31/2021.

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas
bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap
puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup
of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
